do with it, and it is principally owing to the influence which he exercised over their minds that it gained so slender footing in that province. By thus denouncing the Fenian conspiracy he raised for himself a host of bitter and unscrupulous enemies. These enemies, cowardly, treacherous and ruthless, pursued him with threats, dogged his footsteps with the persistency of savages, and when opportunity offered, foully murdered him. Language fails us when we attempt to convey our idea of the atrocity of the deed.

THE following beautiful lines by the late MR. McGEE, written on the death of a friend, will be read with mournful interest. They breathe a spirit of piety which derives a colouring from his own religious belief, but which all may read with profit. Several lines seem as if they had been written for his own funeral procession.

REQUIEM ÆTERNAM.

LAWRENCE DEVANY, DIED MARCH 3RD, 1868.

St. Victor's Day,* a day of woe,
The bier that bore our Dead went slow
And silent, sliding o'er the snow—
Miserere, Domine!

With Villa Maria's faithful dead,
Among the just we made his bed,
The cross he loved, to shield his head,
Miserere, Domine!

The skies may lower, wild storms may rave
Above our comrade's mountain grave,
That cross is mighty still to save—
Miserere, Domine!

Deaf to the calls of Love and Care—
He bears no more his mortal share—
Nought can avail him now but prayer,
Miserere, Domine!

To such a heart who could refuse
Just payment of all burial dues,
Of Holy Church the rite and use!
Miserere, Domine!

Right solemely the Mass was said,
While burned the tapers round the Dead,
And manly tears like rain were shed,
Miserere, Domine!

No more Saint Patrick's aisles prolong
The burthen of his funeral song,
His noiseless Night must now be long,
Miserere, Domine!

Up from the depths we heard arise
A prayer of pity to the skies,
To Him who dooms, or justifies.
Miserere, Domine!

Down from the skies we heard descend
The promises the Psalmist penned,
The benedictions without end,
Miserere, Domine.

Mighty our Holy Church's will
To shield her parting souls from ill,
Jealous of Death! she guards them still,
Miserere, Domine.

The dearest Friend will turn away,
And leave the clay to keep the clay
Ever and ever She will stay—
Miserere, Domine.

When for us sinners, at our need,
That Mother's voice is raised to plead,
The frontier hosts of Heaven take heed
Miserere, Domine.

Mother of Love! Mother of Fear!
And holy Hope, and Wisdom dear,
Behold we bring thy suppliant here,
Miserere, Domine.

His flaming heart is still for aye,
That held fast by Thy clemency,
Oh look on him with loving eye,
Miserere, Domine.

His faith was as the tested gold,
His Hope assured, not overbold
His charities past count, untold.
Miserere, Domine.

Well may they grieve who laid him there,
Where shall they find his equal—Where?
Nought can avail him now but prayer,
Miserere, Domine.

Friend of my soul, farewell to thee!
Thy truth, thy trust, thy chivalry,
As thine—so may my last end be!
Miserere, Domine.

*Saint Victor's day (March 6th)

THE information we received as to the price of hay and straw in Bedeque, was derived from a very reliable source. The Summerside Journal says that we have been misinformed. For the sake of the poor people who are short of fodder, we are glad to find that they are not asked by the Bedeque farmers to pay more than £6 for hay, and £4 per ton for straw. These prices are high enough in all conscience.

By the by who informed our Western contemporary that the House rose on Monday last? The House is sitting while we write. Quite a number of nice little bills have passed through it since this day week. Among others, one which will bring hope and joy to many a poor settler's home. The sum of £3000 has been placed at the disposal of the Government to be distributed through the Island, for the relief of those farmers who have no seed to put in the ground and no money with which to buy it. £900 is appropriated to each County, and £300 is left in the hands of the Government to meet emergencies. For the purpose of administering relief to those who require it, the Island is divided into thirty-four districts, corresponding with the road districts. To each district a committee of three is to be appointed, of which the Road Commissioner is to be a member. The business of this Committee will be to receive applications for aid, and to decide upon the need of the several applicants. No sum greater than £4 will be loaned to any one person. The sums given will be secured by Joint Notes of Hand drawn in favor of the Government, payable in December next, and bearing six per cent. interest from date.

We look upon this as a very timely and judicious measure, and one calculated to do a great deal of good, particularly among the struggling farmers in new settlements. As the Government will require payment for the money advanced, no one need feel humiliated in applying for a loan.

On Saturday last, a Bill placing the sum of £10,000 at the disposal of the Government for the purchase of proprietory estates, without any restriction as to the price to be given per acre, was read the first time. We have heard that part of Lot 27 has been offered to the Government by the Hon. J. C. Pope, and conclude that the Government wish to avail themselves of this, or any other opportunity, to purchase well settled portions of Townships that may offer itself during the recess.

We are requested to state that a number of the Ladies and Gentlemen of St. Paul's Church in this city, intend giving an Amateur Concert in the School Room in connection with that Church, on Tuesday evening the 28th inst. The object of the Concert is to assist in paying off the debt incurred in the enlargement and improvement of the School Room. A plan of the Reserved Seats and a copy of the Programme can be seen at Mr. R. Watson's The Concert will commence at 8 o'clock. Reserved Tickets 3s, unreserved 1s. 6d.

☞ THE weather at last begins to feel like Spring. There is a considerable quantity of ice in the harbor still, but it is in a very unsound condition. A few fine days and a warm breeze or two will send it floating from our shores. We hear that Souris harbor was free of ice more than a week ago.

☞ No Mail has crossed the Straits since Friday evening last. The latest telegrams will be found in another column.

☞ OWING to the large amount of space required for the Road Scales and the City Accounts, we have been obliged to leave out our usual quantum of Parliamentary Debate. We have, however, endeavored to give our readers the very latest intelligence. For the same cause a number of advertisements have been crowded out. We hope that our advertising patrons will accept our apology. We don't intend to slight their favours we assure them.

CHARLOTTETOWN DEBATING CLUB.

The debate on Friday evening last, on the question "should Capital Punishment be abolished," was opened by Mr. Wm. Crabb, and after a short discussion decided in the affirmative.

On Friday next the winter session of the above Society, will close with a Literary Entertainment, to be held in the Temperance Hall. The entertainment will consist of original address and essays, recitations, readings and dialogues, &c. The Programme, further particulars of which will be given in due time, promises an entertainment of an unusally instructive and amusing character. Doors will be opened at 7½ o'clock, and chair taken at 8 precisely. Ladies will be admitted free; gentlemen will be charged 9d. each, to defray expenses.

☞ THE Entertainments of the Dramatic Club proved quite a success. The acting was good, and there was a full house on each night. We learn that the Club intend giving another Entertainment before the season closes.

At the Annual Meeting of St. James' Church, on Monday night, the following gentlemen were elected Trustees for the current year, viz: J. W. Morrison, W. R. Watson, Arch. Kennedy, A. Brown, J. D Mason, James Anderson and H. M. McLeod, Esquires. After the transaction of the financial and other annual business, the Chairman, Hon. Col. Gray, on behalf of the Congregation, presented their popular and esteemed minister, the Rev. Mr. Duncan, with an address, accompanied by the handsome donation of £100 currency. The Rev. Gentleman has obtained three months leave of absence, and in a few weeks, intends to revisit his native land, so as to be present at the meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in May next. We understand the young men and women of Mr. Duncan's flock also intend to present him with a purse previous to his departure. This, with £25 additional stipend, is highly creditable to both pastor and congregation.—Pat.

On Wednesday evening last about fifty of the members of St. John's and Victoria Lodges, and the Alexandra R. A. Chapter of Free Masons, assembled in St. John's Hall for the purpose of presenting Charles U. Hanford, Esq., who has been for some years an energetic member of the first and last named bodies, and is now about leaving this city, with an address accompanied by a handsome gold chain and Mark Jewel.—Ib.

BE it enacted by the City Council of the City of Charlottetown:

Section 1st. That there shall be an Assessment levied on Real Estate within the City, for the purpose of raising a revenue for the current year; and that such assessment shall be at the rate of ten shillings on each hundred pounds of the value of such real estate, equal to one shilling on every one pound of the rental, and shall be paid by the occupants of real estate within the City, according to the several proportions or valuations entered against the name of each and every person in the Assessment Books, prepared from the returns of the Assessors, according to the Act of Incorporation.

Section 2nd. AN EFFECTUAL WORM MEDICINE.
Brown's Vermifuge Comfits,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

HUNNEWELL'S
UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.

Ten Years have clearly proved that the theory of simplicity, the great element of this splendid preparation, which allows its use whenever there is tickling or irritation in the Throat, and producing no debility, is the only and true theory by which Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Bronchial Complaints, and all Throat Affections, which, if neglected, end in Consumption, can be effectually cured.

☞ Sore Throat, the great origin of Diptheria, when neglected, is cured by making a Gargle with equal parts of water.

☞ Whooping Cough is completely relieved of its violence by a constant use of the remedy.

☞ Testimonials of undoubted character can be seen at my office by all.

Small Bottles, 25 cents. Large do 50 cts.

☞ Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Medicine.
