CARVELL BROTHERS.—By reference to another column it will be seen that the Hon. J. S. Carvell has retired from the firm of Carvell Brothers, and that Mr. John A. Masservey and Mr. F. Parker Carvell have been admitted thereto. The firm is now, therefore, composed of Messrs. Lewis Carvell, William Henry Aitken, John A. Masservey and F. Parker Carvell. The latter, who is the traveller for the firm, is the youngest son of the Governor. Owing to ill health, His Honor has not been actively engaged in the business for some years. But he will long be remembered for his great and beneficial influence in the firm, and in the community at large. Mr. Masservey has been the chief clerk and book-keeper of the concern. These young men have been connected with the business for the past twelve years, and are well known as eminently capable men who have been deservedly promoted. We are glad to see that Mr. Aitken, who commenced his business life with Carvell Brothers twenty-five years ago, and is favorably known to everybody, is still to be found at his old post.

The value and variety of our Black Dress Materials is not an every-day affair. For many years we have been paying great attention to this department, but NEVER have we given so good a quality for so small a price as at present.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Our purchases are so large we secure special prices this spring lower than ever before. We have therefore decided to give a uniform discount of off old prices on all goods purchased from this department. As is well known, our prices have hitherto been "nett cash." The present is, therefore, THE TIME of all times to buy.

FIVE POINTS.—Our goods are perfection of WEIGHT, WIDTH, FINENESS, FINISH and COLOR. We make a specialty OF THE BEST.

Great Columbus!

HAVE YOU SEEN PROWSE BROS' TREMENDOUS SHOW OF Children's Clothing and Hats?

If so, what do you think of it? What do I think? Well I just think if the public would study their own interests they would always buy from Prowse Bros. Their Stock is the Largest on P. E. Island, and their Prices cannot be touched by any competitor.

But, say, do they manufacture their own wool? Why, no. The wool in their Clothing grows on sheeps' backs. But I see by some of their competitors' advertisements that they claim to have a larger stock of Clothing than Prowse Bros. It's not true, then, for Prowse Bros., without a doubt, can show more Clothing and Hats than any two firms on P. E. Island. Well, we will all trade there. But, say, did you hear they were going into the Carpet business? Yes, they have their magnificent large room nearly full of Brussels and Tapestry Carpets, etc., already, and lots more to follow.

Now, don't you think Prowse Bros. should be encouraged? Why, my dear fellow, you can hardly get in the Store for the rush. Well, I would wait a week to buy what I need from them, and I mean to advise all my friends to go to the Wonderful Cheap Men for Clothing, Hats, Carpets, etc. Their clerks are all so obliging, and don't think anything a trouble. We will sound their praises from North to South and from East to West, all over the country.

Charlottetown, April 7, 1892.

WHAT'S THE HURRY, GOVERNOR?

WELL, what spare time I have at my disposal I propose to spend at the STAR TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT, as I want to get several Suits and Overcoats etc. before I leave for the Continent.

As you know, Americans travelling abroad always dress nice, and of course I want to uphold the style and dignity of the "Home of the Brave and the Land of the Free"; so this opportunity I must take advantage of to advertize the Star of the Hub of Canada.

The man is known by the company he keeps, so Poole of London, Bull of New York, and McKenzie of the Star Tailoring Establishment of the Dominion of Canada are always associated with what is elegant and strictly correct in dress.

Our aspiration has always been to present a faultlessly fitting garment—what is termed, a "correct thing" by our customers. Our success in attaining to that aspiration is attested by our numerous customers from the Atlantic to the Pacific. To enlarge upon the quality of our goods is not necessary, as the same has become a common household word. Workmanship, etc., is in keeping with the reputation we have achieved. If you want for testimonials, ask anyone you meet. Prices at rock bottom.
