At Craup, he instanced, they had a huge fair although they had only started it recently and there were enormous crowds. "I feel you can do the same thing if you get behind the thing properly," he advised.

So easy!

Let rise 'n' bake 'em!
If you bake at home, try these with Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast!

Celery Seed Buns

- Scald 1 1/2 cups milk. Stir in 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 3 teaspoons salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine. Cool to lukewarm.
- Meantime, measure into large bowl 1/2 cup lukewarm water. Stir in 2 teaspoons granulated sugar. Sprinkle with contents of 2 envelopes Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture and 3 cups once-sifted all-purpose flour and sprinkle with 2 teaspoons celery seeds. Beat until smooth and elastic.

Work in additional 2 1/2 cups (about) once-sifted all-purpose flour.

- Turn out on floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Divide dough into 2 equal portions. Shape each portion into a 15-inch roll and cut into 15 equal-sized pieces. Shape each piece into a smooth ball. Place balls in greased muffin pans. Brush tops with melted shortening. Cover. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about 1 hour. Brush risen buns with soft butter or margarine and sprinkle with celery seeds. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°, 15 to 20 minutes. Yield—2 1/2 dozen buns.
