

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 17, 1890.

Notes and Comments.

In an article going the rounds of the press the statement is made that "there is a country like France for starting journals. During 1889 no less than 950 new papers were brought out, of which not one remains alive now."

A good-sized packet of letters written by Napoleon the Great will (the London correspondent of the Manchester Courier writes) probably be offered for sale at Sotheby's at no distant date.

The following, copied from a Boston journal, sets forth Erastus Wiman's political principles as they are regarded by the Yankees themselves: "Erastus Wiman lives on Staten Island, and cherishes a tremendous hobby for the annexation of Canada."

The New York Herald, having recently been representing Sir John Macdonald as expressing views as to the future relations of Canada with the Empire glaringly inconsistent with those he has held and expressed heretofore on many great public occasions, a member of the League in Canada set himself to obtain a correction from the best of all possible sources.

MILITIA CAMP.—According to orders received from district headquarters, the following corps are drawn for the annual drill at Camp Brighton this year: Garrison Artillery—1 battery, Georgetown, comprising 3 officers and 31 non-commissioned officers and men.

FROM BOSTON.—The Steamer Worcester, Captain Nickerson, arrived here from Boston this morning at 8 o'clock. Besides the usual general cargo she brought 33 hhd. and 2 cases of tobacco for Hickey & Nicholson, and 2385 lbs. flour for Carvell Bros. and F. T. Newbury.

W. R. WATSON, Druggist is wholesale agent for K. D. C. It is sold by all druggists, and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia and indigestion of the money will be refunded.

It is positively announced from London that Gen. Wolsley will resign July 31. Lord Wolsley's views as to the reorganization of the army are at variance with those of the commander-in-Chief, the Duke of Cambridge, whose retirement he considers necessary before anything practical can be effected. The Queen stands by her cousin the Duke, and refuses to hear of his withdrawal.
Said Connaught to his consort,
As they travelled from the coast,
'This is, then, the mighty railroad
Of which all Canadians boast.
Of which we reach home remind me,
When I tell of where we've been,
To be sure and prove the merit
Of this railway to the Queen.
For I've travelled oft and widely,
Round the world and near and far,
But I never found real comfort
'Till I struck the C. P. R. I
And the Duchess made a memo
On a dainty little card
Of the matter, as commanded
By her stately royal pard.
