

Local and Other Items.

AGITATING.—The Agriculturist is agitating for a regatta and pyrotechnic display in Summerside this summer.

PRIZES.—The prizes for the pupils attending St. Dunstan's Catechism Class were distributed yesterday afternoon.

I. O. O. F.—The election of officers for St. Lawrence Lodge, for the ensuing term, will be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

MISS MCGARRY.—This talented lady will arrive here on Wednesday evening, and give her recital on the Friday following.

NO BILL.—The grand jury have found no bill against Mr. McCrury, committed at Sydney recently on a charge of perjury.

DOLLS.—Four hundred Dolls' worth—the largest and best stock ever shown here, are opening to-day, at the Diamond Bookstore.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A laborer named Donahoe, dropped dead on the street in Halifax, a few days ago. Heart disease was the cause.

TO-NIGHT.—Ex-Governor St. John lectures in the Market Hall to-night. Subject: Temperance and Prohibition. Hear him and judge for yourselves.

THE COBAN.—A telegram received here on Saturday, reports that the steamer Coban had been successfully floated, and brought to Quebec that day.

CONCERT.—The musical entertainment in the Convent de Notre Dame to-morrow, evening will, no doubt, be well attended. An excellent programme has been prepared. Admission only 25 cents.

NOTICE.—Truck license, horse and carriage tax and dog tax for this year (1888) must be paid by the 30th June inst., or will be sued for without further notice. Signed, F. S. CHANDLER, City Collector. june 22 tf

NOT FOR JOSEPH.—The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says Miss Endicott has quietly acquiesced in her parents' opposition to her marriage with Joseph Chamberlain, and the engagement is therefore off.

METHODIST.—The Methodist Conference of New Brunswick and P. E. Island opens at Moncton, N. B., on Wednesday. Rev. John Shenton left this morning; the other delegates will go to-morrow and Wednesday.

FALL IN HORSEFLESH.—On Saturday evening, while an attendant with a horse employed on the Waterworks was passing the trench at J. D. McLeod's corner, the animal fell into the excavation, but was released shortly afterwards.

ENGLISH FARMERS FOR NOVA SCOTIA.—Says the Bridgetown Monitor: We understand there are several English gentlemen to arrive here shortly, who are contemplating the purchase of farms and settling in the neighborhood. We trust they will be successful.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The principal of Queen Square School desires to return thanks to the following persons who have kindly forwarded prizes, viz: Rev. F. X. Gallant, Rev. J. C. McLean, Thos. Handrahan, Esq., F. McCarron, Esq., C. C., and Mrs. A. D. McLeod.

MOURNED FOR AS DEAD.—Kenneth McDonald, belonging to West River, N.S., who has been absent from Pictou county 37 years, and consequently mourned for as dead, astonished his friends in Westville, the other day, by a sudden visit. He came all the way from Australia, where he had been during the most of his time.

CITY SCHOOLS.—The annual Midsummer examinations of the City Schools begins to-morrow forenoon in West Kent Street School. On Wednesday, the classes in Prince Street School will be examined, and on Thursday Queen Square School will be attended to. The examinations will commence at ten o'clock each day.

JUMPED INTO THE WAGON.—While Nelson Clark and wife were starting from Summerside to drive home to Cape Traverse, one day last week, a horse just behind them took fright at a train near the station there, and jumped into Mr. Clark's wagon. Mrs. Clarke was thrown out, sustaining some injuries about the face, none, however, of a serious nature.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The Agriculturist reports that Lulu, the little five-year-old daughter of Mr. E. H. Wright, of Summerside, while leaning over the bannister at the head of the stairs, on Sunday night, 15 inst., lost her balance, and fell a distance of thirteen feet, striking a sofa. Her escape from death was almost marvellous. She lay in a critical condition for three days, but is now fast recovering.

SUCCESSFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.—A few weeks ago Dr. G. T. Smith, of this town, successfully removed a cataract from the eye of Mrs. William Smith, of Upper Coverdale. Mrs. Smith is a lady 86 years of age, and had been entirely blind for fully two years. She now rejoices at being able to see the light again, as well as to recognize those by whom she is surrounded. She can also, by the use of a glass, take observations of her neighbors' lands and buildings.—Moncton Times.

CHARLES WATTS.—This celebrated orator is to lecture in St. John on Sunday next, on "Secularism." He will speak in this city on Wednesday evening, July 4th, his subject being "Science, its Struggles and its Triumphs." An invitation will be extended to the clergy to meet and reply to Mr. Watts, if they desire to do so. His lectures are most favorably commented upon. An exchange says: "In discussion he is quiet, pertinent, logical, and, above all, good-natured." There is not in all," he says "a touch of malice."

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Result Still in Doubt.

DEPEW'S PREDICTION.

CHICAGO, June 23. The Convention was called to order at 10.20 o'clock; Warner Miller, of New York, presiding.

FOURTH BALLOT.—McKinley withdraws after Connecticut voting one for him. Indiana for the first time votes solid for Harrison. Illinois gives Harrison 3; Gresham, 41. New York gave Alger 3; Allison 1; Harrison 9; Sherman 1, and Blaine 8. Wisconsin voted Harrison 2; and Gresham 2. The result of the ballot was: Alger, 135; Harrison, 217; Allison, 88; Blaine, 42; Sherman, 236; Gresham, 98; McKinley, 11; Lincoln, 1; Fred Douglas, 1; Foraker, 1.

FIFTH BALLOT.—Blaine 46, Sherman 224, Alger 142, McKinley 14, Allison 99, Harrison 213, Gresham 87. The announcement of the votes for Blaine and McKinley was greeted with applause. Recess to 4 p. m. ordered.

NEW YORK, June 23. The correspondent of the World at Chicago says: "At 1 o'clock I learn on authority which I consider absolutely unquestionable that Sherman's support is in consultation now, and if it is decided that he cannot be nominated, will throw every vote that it can control to Allison.

While the delegates were leaving the Hall Chauncey M. Depew, in the presence of a number of people, predicted that at four o'clock Blaine would be nominated by acclamation and the general consent of the friends of nearly every leading candidate.

At 4.07 p. m., Hiscock, of New York, said a motion was to be made to adjourn till Monday. Warner Miller said the understanding was to adjourn to 11 a. m., Monday.

At 5.17 p. m., a motion to adjourn was made. Kansas called for the roll call. Iowa seconded it.

At 5.30 p. m., the Convention adjourned till 11 a. m., Monday.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, June 24. A young woman named Blanche Latulippe was burned to death in a house on Elizabeth street Saturday night. It is supposed the tragedy was caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp.

The operating room of the C. P. R. Telegraph Company was almost destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Judge Gill to-day granted J. M. Fortier, cigar maker, $150 damages from the Canadian Workman, for advising people not to buy cigars made by a "child beater" or "woman spanker." In two weeks Fortier's sales had fallen off $6,000, but that might have been due to the labor investigation. The damages claimed were $150,000.

Cumberland Election—Financial.

OTTAWA, June 24. The appointment of Hon. Mr. Royal as Lieut.-Governor of the Territories was made yesterday.

It is now understood that the announcement that the election in Cumberland would be held on the 10th prox. was premature, as the writ has not yet been issued. Hon. Mr. Foster has returned from Montreal, where he has been negotiating for placing the proceeds of the new loan temporarily with the various loan banks.

Items from the North-west.

WINNIPEG, June 14. The Methodist Conference at Portage la Prairie has decided to proceed immediately with the proposed Theological Institute in Winnipeg.

Hayter Reed, present Assistant Indian Commissioner in the North-west, has been appointed Commissioner, vice Mr. Dewdney.

A. Forget, Clerk of the North-west Council, succeeds to the position rendered vacant by Reed's elevation.

Death of a Noted Man.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 24. Hon. Rowland Gibson Hazard died suddenly this morning, aged 86. He was in his usual health a short time before his death. Mr. Hazard was noted as a Financier, Literateur, Mathematician and Meteorologist. His name was known all over the civilized world.

Shot Dead.

LAKE MEGANTIC, June 24. Lucius F. Warren, United States Deputy Marshal, was shot dead yesterday evening by a desperado named Donald Morrison, whom he was trying to arrest on a charge of arson. The people of the village are greatly excited as Morrison threatens to do more harm. A force is coming from Sherbrooke to arrest him.

Farewell.

MONCTON, June 24. Rev. J. H. Hogg preached his farewell sermon to an immense congregation to-night. He was presented with an address by the Sunday School this afternoon and a purse of $300 will be presented to him to-night.

Political Activity.

LONDON, June 24. Each party in the Commons is urgently whipping its members for the division on Morley's motion in regard to the administration of the Crimes Act. The division will take place on Tuesday.

The Papacy.

ROME, June 24. The Osservatore Romano, referring to Premier Crispis' policy as intended to force the Pope to leave Italy, says it will have that result if persevered in.

Boston Markets.

From the official market report of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, June 21, we extract the following:

POTATOES.—Receipts for the past six days 33,000 bu., previous six days 69,500 bu. The arrivals show a marked falling off this week, and the old stock on hand has been considerably reduced, but has been sold at very low prices as a rule. At the close there is a little better feeling, and some of the best hard domestic stock is held at 60c, with P. E. Island Chenangoes at 45 to 55c, as to quality.

EGGS.—Receipts for the week 11 boxes, 49 bbls., 9,704 cases; last week 17 boxes, 49 bbls., 10,126 cases. The arrivals continue moderate, and all choice fresh stock meets with a ready sale, with prices ranging from one-half to one cent higher than last week. Strictly extra eastern are scarce and bring full prices. P. E. Island, N. S. and N. B. firsts are in good demand at 17c. PORK.—There is a steady demand for pork at the following prices:—
