

ATLANTIC FOLK FESTIVAL

EXCITING ENTERTAINMENT

ATLANTIC FOLK FESTIVAL
The 1980 Atlantic Folk Festival will be the scene

firmation of their headliners, but they are just as enthusiastic about the pro-

Festival. Originally conceived as a small, very loosely organized jam session area, the second stage will become an integral part of the festivities. Set in a more intimate, comfortable location, it will present featured performers from the main stage, as well as lower profile artists who demonstrate particular specialties. The program will be scheduled according to various themes, and so far sessions include a mandolin set; a blues jam led by local blues artist Ted Jordan; sea shanties; and a guitarist/vocalist session. A number of Acadian musicians are also expected to be featured, along with a session demonstrating the fiddle styles of P.E.I., Cape Breton, and Newfoundland. The second stage is basically designed as a quieter alternative to the squeeze and excitement of the main stage.

"wandering minstrels" will again lead informal campfire entertainment; barbecues and homecooking will be offered in a newly-organized food concession area; and regional handcrafts will also be available.

Improvements are being effected in the area of traffic and gate control, with a much enlarged staff to increase efficiency and decrease line-ups and lengthy waits at the entrance. "We don't claim it'll be perfect," says Diamond, "But last year's Friday night bogged-down gate situation gave us a lot of ideas on how to speed things up."

There's no doubt that the 1980 Atlantic Folk Festival has much to offer. With the two stages going simultaneously, music will be pouring out all over, and, hopefully, a grand and glorious time will be had by all.

The event will begin on Friday at noon on August 1, and entertainment, as in past years will begin around noon on Saturday. Tickets for the Festival will go on sale in outlets all over the Atlantic Provinces on June 1st.

ARLO GUTHRIE and his band will be appearing with American folk legend PETE SEEGER as special guest headliners at this year's Atlantic Folk Festival. The Festival will be held August 1, 2, and 3, at the Moxsom Farm, Hardwood Lands in Nova Scotia.

of some of the most exciting entertainment ever to appear on a Maritime stage. Organizers have just announced the signings of two American folk legends as this year's special guest headliners. ARLO GUTHRIE and PETE SEEGER will be appearing in a two hour concert during Sunday afternoon's program at the Moxsom Farm. The dates of this year's Festival are August 1st, 2nd, and 3rd.

Coordinators Brookes Diamond and Fiona Perina are elated by the recent con-posed line-up of regional talent. "This year, being our sixth, will mark some real developments for the Festival," says Diamond. We're scheduling a lot of new faces on both our stages, and hope to broaden the variety of music even further than we have before."

Diamond notes that they are particularly working on developing the second stage or "session" stage, as it is sometimes called, into a focal point of the

COOK FIFTH IN NATION

Peter Wiederkehr, the head cook in UPEI's cafeteria, was in Toronto last weekend to compete in the New Zealand Lamb Association's national cook-off. Competing with nine other finalists from across Canada, Peter placed fifth on points. The winner was a German cook who resides in Ontario.
