Bernardine Hall bursary

An award of $500 will be made in conjunction with other bursaries awarded from the Memorial Bursary Fund to an applicant who:

- 1) is a Junior or Senior female student living in Bernardine Hall and has lived there for at least two years.
- 2) has an average of 70% or better in last semester's work
- 3) writes a personal essay about what she has participated in during her years in Bernardine Hall — i.e. how she has helped promote residence spirit.

Selection will be made by the Scholarship and Awards Committee and two people from Counselling Services.

Applications must be received in the Registrar's Office by February 8, 1985. Applications may be picked up either in the Registrar's Office or in the Department of Student Services.

Extra! Wanted: one production manager for the newspaper, for this semester only. Salary: $40 per issue.

Duties: must be willing to work with a Wednesday deadline (meaning long hours Tuesday afternoon and night).

— must design and coordinate layouts for the Gem, including the organization of layout staff.

— must be familiar with or able to grasp rudiments of design such as balance, consistency, and attractiveness.

— some familiarity with photography is an asset.

— must be responsible and willing to work.

P.S. It can be fun too. Apply by January 26 at the Student Union office.
