Public Service Announcement

Canadian Crossroads International, a charitable organization promoting international development and education in Canada and overseas, is seeking 220 Canadian volunteers for placement lengths varying from four months to one year. You could be placed in one of thirty-six Third World countries. Applicants require cultural sensitivity, adaptability and commitment to promoting international awareness. The minimum age is 19 years with no maximum age. Our oldest volunteer was 73. A specialized skill is not essential. You will receive extensive training. A living allowance, airfare and accommodation are provided. Each participant must raise part of the program costs. The deadline for applications is September 25, 1989.
