NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

HALIFAX, Oct. 28.

John Muir, of Muir & Scott, West India merchants, died while under the influence of chloroform, preparatory to undergoing an operation by Dr. Jennings.

Alexander Robinson's dwelling house at Willow Park was burned this evening; insurance, $3,000.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.

An unfortunate woman was found clinging to a plank in the canal this morning by a lamplighter, who, hearing cries, rescued her. The woman separated from her husband some months since and has been very destitute. She had sat down by the edge of the canal, gone to sleep and fallen in.

A directors' meeting of the Montreal Telegraph Company was held to-day. In reference to pooling scheme no result was arrived at, the hitch being the satisfactory division of the profits.

It is stated that Williams & Co., of St.
John, have obtained the contract for the St. John Custom House; tender, $208,000.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.

Centre Huron nominations took place on Saturday. Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Platt were the only two nominated. Mr. Mc-Kenzie and Mr. Cartwright made speeches afterwards, and were well received.

A large quantity of obscene literature was confiscated on Saturday by the authorities in this city.

From present appearances the election in Russell will go by acclamation, though the names of Mr. Boyd and Dr. Sweetland and Mr. W. E. Edwards, are mentioned as probable opponents of Mr. O'Connor, President of the Council.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.

Aldophe Roy & Co. failed to-day, with $300,000 liabilities. Real estate speculations of one of the partners is the cause of the embarrassment.

LONDON, Oct. 28.

In the international walk at Agricultural Hall, the score at 11 o'clock to-night was as follows:—Brown 110 miles, Vaughan, 110, Croxland 108, Corkery 104, Rowell 100, Barnett 100, Weston 96, Hancock 94, Craft 94.

A strike of iron workers has commenced.
The engineers' society, numbering 30,000, have resolved to strike if a reduction is enforced. John Elder & Co. have discharged 1,200 hands; they employ 4,000.

LONDONDERRY, Oct. 28.

Lord Dufferin arrived to-day and was welcomed by the Mayor, the Sheriff, and a number of other gentlemen, who presented an address and extended him the freedom of the city. Lord Dufferin said that he had left Canada as contented and loyal as Great Britain could desire.

LONDON, Oct. 28.

A Constantinople special says that in a circular addressed to the signatory Powers to the Treaty of Berlin, regarding the new rebellion south of the Balkans, the Porte describes the condition of the Mussulmen population in Bulgaria and Roumelia as intolerable, and declares that a foreign power is co-operating with the "Slavonic Committee at Sofia" and aiming at the establishment of this region into an independent State. In another note, addressed to Prince Labanoff, the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople, the Porte charges Russia with connivance at the plans of the rebels, and demands her aid in suppressing this rebellion begun under the very eyes of the Russian army of occupation. Prince Labanoff replying to the note assures the Porte that the Russians had taken no part in the Bulgarian uprising in Macedonia, which is merely acts of brigandage by Bulgarian and Turkish deserters possessing no political significance.

The Vienna Abend Post states that the latest news in regard to the Bulgarian uprising is disquieting, as the insurrection appears to have successfully resisted the first attempts at forcible suppression.

The insurgents are now advancing on Seres. On the other hand, some individual bands have been defeated. The Mahomedan element is rising on all sides to assist the Porte, and considerable forces have been dispatched from Salonica to insurgent territory. The object of the uprising is to realize the idea of Bulgaria reaching the Ægean Sea, in accordance with the treaty of San Stefano. It has more than local significance, and touches questions of a European character.

The declaration of the Austrian Government, recently made, that Austria will not occupy Novi Bazar, has reassured the Porte, and Safvet Pasha has warmly thanked Count Zichy, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador at Constantinople.

A Vienna dispatch to the Times in this connection states that the relations between the Cabinets of Constantinople and Berlin are on quite a friendly footing.

Baker Pasha has commenced work on the Chalalja lines of new fortifications.

The East Roumalian Commission has arrived at Philippopolis, and held its first meeting without molestation.

The reforms sanctioned for Asia-Minor included a gendarmerie under foreign instructors with partly foreign administration; a Court of Appeals partly foreign in composition, and for minor courts a foreign inspector in each vilayet. A European system of taxation under European administration will be experimentally introduced in one or two vilayets, and thence extended if successful to all. The officials at the head of the financial department and the Governors of provinces are to be appointed for five years, and are to be irremovable except for cause.

Hon. Messrs. Layard and Fournier, the British and French Ministers respectively, recommend Safvet Pasha, the Grand Vizier, to constitute a Commission of foreign merchants and bankers to devise a plan to stop the rapid depreciation of the currency, but the Sultan refused to consent, and the depreciation of the currency continues.

The Porte hesitates to appoint a governor for Eastern Roumelia for fear of a conflict between the Russian and Turkish authorities. Russia has informed the International Commission that it is impossible at present to restore the Turkish judiciary in Eastern Roumelia, the Russian authorities desiring in the interest of the province itself to continue in administration of its affairs as long as necessary.

Minister Layard has received information that Russian troops from Rustchuck, Shumla and Varna continue to arrive at Adrinople and elsewhere in Eastern Rou-melia.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.

The following dispatch has been telegraphed to the New England press from New York:—

"A London letter of October 12 to the World reports that the British Foreign Minister, Lord Salisbury, has been invited by the American Government to consider seriously the very decided objections which it is disposed to make to the payment of the Halifax award. The new circumstance is created for both governments by the recent report of Captain Sullivan, of the British ship Sirius, sent by the British Government to investigate the events of January, 1878, when a number of American fishermen were violently driven from the stations on the Newfoundland coast, their fishing tackle destroyed and business broken up. Capt.
Sullivan reported this outrage justified by the local law of Newfoundland prohibiting Sunday fishing, and the Marquis of Salisbury, it seems, accepted the report as embodying the Government's views, and so informed the United States. The American Government, it is said, then informed Salisbury that the question as to whether the American fisherman pursuing their business under the terms of a solemn treaty are liable to violence at the hands of petty local authorities for infringing a local regulation not embraced in the treaty, is too important and must be settled by the British Government for itself upon the report of the naval officer. The time fixed for paying the award will expire November 24. It is obvious that this matter must be sharply and immediately pressed upon the attention of Her Majesty's Government by the United States, as to pay the money without effectually breaking down the contention of Salisbury as to those offences, will put the United States into a false position and seriously embarrass their diplomatic action.
The situation has become decidedly uncomfortable within the past few days, and correspondence on the subject between the two governments has assumed a serious character."

VERSAILLES, Oct. 28.

The Senate and Deputies assembled today. The Senate adjourned until Thursday, when the election of Cassagnac will be discussed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.

The "Agence Russe" contradicts the reports that Russia intends to raise a loan on the security of her tobacco monopoly.

LONDON, Oct. 28.

A Bombay despatch says the field army of the Ameer of Afghanistan is believed to number 50,000 infantry, 12 cavalry and 200 guns, including a battery of Armstrong guns.

LONDON, Oct. 29.

A despatch from Simla states that movements of Persian troops in the direction of the Afghan frontier are reported, which will prevent the Ameer from withdrawing troops from Herat to reinforce Candahar.

VIENNA, Oct. 28.

There is great opposition in the Reichstag to Count Andrassy's foreign policy, but it is probable that he will be supported by the Hungarian Reichstag and by the members of the Hungarian Delegation.
These, acting with a strong minority of the Austrian members who favor his policy, will secure him a majority when a vote of the united delegations is taken.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.

The Germania (Ultramontane organ) says that the Kissingen negotiations have been without result, and that the Pope is now waiting an answer to certain propositions he made to the Prussian Government.

The Court Circular tells this story about Garibaldi: "When he was last in London one of the Mrs. Leo Hunters of the period secured him for an evening party through the intervention of a friend, to whom she expressed herself profoundly grateful. The General appeared, and received a warm welcome, but he had not been very long in the room before his hostess asked him to sing! Much astonished, the Italian patriot declared that he could not sing. 'Oh, I know,' said the lady, 'that all Gye's artists have to be very careful; but can't you oblige us with one little song?' Tableau!"

Mr. Ruskin is one of the few fortunate authors whose works rise in price. A Birmingham second-hand bookseller offers a collection of his entire works, sixty-eight volumes, bound, and all his pamphlets, for $500.
Separately the works would fetch even more.
