Bizarre coincidence

Une jeune fille de Keestone, nommé Lulu Kendall, qui se trouvait à l'agonie dans le couvent de Sturgis Dakota du Sud, déclare que pendant son sommeil, elle avait rêvé que son père venait de tomber dans un précipice et que, dans sa chute, il s'était mortellement blessé.

Pour satisfaire à son désir de mourante, des personnes furent envoyées à la recherche de son père. Le jour suivant, ce dernier fut trouvé au fond d'un précipice, où il était tombé pendant la nuit en venant voir sa fille. On ne croit pas qu'il survive à ses blessures.

Quant à sa fille, elle était morte peu d'instants après avoir raconté son rêve.

Mort tragique d'un Cycliste

Un terrible accident s'est produit le 21 à Péoria, Ill., pendant une représentation donnée par la Mundy Carnival Company.

Un nommé Arthur Holden, qui faisait en bicyclette le tour bien connu sous le nom de "looping the loop," venait de parcourir la première partie de celui-ci, lorsque, par un défaut de construction de l'appareil, il fut projeté avec son bicycle à plus de quarante pieds dans le vide. Dans sa chute il s'est cassé la colonne vertébrale. Ce malheureux a sa famille à Gallesburg, Illinois.

Accident de chemin de fer

Trois hommes ont été tués et quinze autres plus ou moins grièvement blessés dans un accident de chemin de fer qui s'est produit mardi près de Hagerstown, Md., sur la ligne du Western Maryland Railroad.

Un train d'ouvriers passait à toute vitesse sur cette ligne, se dirigeant vers Hancock et Patre; le train se composait de deux wagons qui étaient poussés par une locomotive. La machine se trouvant à l'arrière du convoi, il fut impossible au mécanicien de voir un quartier de roche qui avait roulé en travers de la voie. L'accident inévitable se produisit; le train dérailla et les deux wagons vinrent tomber dans le canal de Chesapeake.

Deux hommes qui se trouvaient dans le train ont disparu et on craint qu'ils ne soient au fond du canal, en dessous des wagons. Le canal a six pieds de profondeur.

WANTED

A good Agent for the OLIVER TYPEWRITER

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U. S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the Oliver is the very best typewriter made, regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought here for the same price at which it is sold in the U. S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

This should be a very attractive proposition to any purchaser of writing machines. Apply to the CANADIAN OLIVER TYPEWRITER CO., Temple Building, Montreal

The Delineator for May

The May Delineator, with a complete display, pictorial and descriptive, of the latest Spring fashions, contains a wealth of suggestion for those who wish to be smartly gowned, and many other features of interest to women. Hon. Justice David J. Brewer contributes an article on "Woman in the Professions" in which he comments on the significance of the fact that the status of women has changed in the last half century. Miss Winslow's club story, "The President of Quex," drawing near its end, deepens in interest, and the author supplements the installment with a chapter on "Cult Women and the Child Labor Question." In "Famous American Songs," Gustav Kobbé gives the story of the origin of the popular air, "Ben Bolt," and in an interesting historical sketch of Annapolis, Hester D. Richardson vividly pictures the romantic interest attached to the spot where the body of John Paul Jones is to rest. Florence Rockwell writes her experiences in playing Shaksperian rôles and speaks of the need of a national theatre. A very "Abbott and Juliette" B. G. Towne contribute short stories for older folks, and Alice Brown a fairy tale for the little ones. There are other features to delight young folks, including a chapter in the serial, "Sunlight and Shadow" and past-times by Lina Beard. In the "Campaign for Safe Foods" Mary Hinman Abel writes of coloring matters and commercial cheats, and the pages devoted to the household are full of suggestions for the kitchen with many other helpful hints to the housewife.
