Obscure Middle-Aged Pro Captures U.S. Open Lead

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—An obscure, middle-aged club pro from Michigan, Bob Gajda, took the first round lead in the U.S. Open Golf Championship with a two-under-par 69 Thursday. Defending champion Jack Nicklaus scrambled to a 76.

Ice cold putters also blunted the bids of the other two members of the game's Big Three. Favorite Arnold Palmer, sinking only one big putt, fired a 73 and South Africa's Gary Player missed four putts of under four feet for a 74.

Gusty winds and occasional rain added to the natural hazards of the historic old course of the Country Club and sent scores skyrocketing.

TWO BREAK PAR

Only two players—Gajda and Jacky Cupit, who shot a 70—were able to break the 35-36—71 par of the tough, 6,870 - yard course where Francis Ouimet, a 20-year-old caddy, beat the great British stars Harry Vardon and Ted Ray 50 years ago.

There were four players at even par 71—Julius Boros, Tony Lema, Lionel Hebert, ex-PGA champion, and 28-year-old Davis Love Jr.—and others went on from there, mostly into the middle and high 70s and 80s.

Lema, handsome young star from San Leandro, Calif. sank spectacular birdie putts of 35 and 25 feet on the final two holes. Love, out in 32, and Boros, with a front nine of 33, both weakened on the treacherous incoming stretch which has been termed "Satan's Stretch."

Nicklaus, reigning Open and Masters champion and at 23 the game's leading money winner for the year, had the sort of round that probably will give him nightmares for years.

STARTS POORLY

He started by going over par on three straight holes — and then went two over at the frightening, 445-yard 11th hole.

He got his first birdie at the 15th.

Automatically, with a score of 76, he might be counted out as a factor in this tournament, which he won last year at Oakmont in a playoff with Palmer.

Palmer, his private army comprising the bulk of the 15,849 opening day attendance, sank only one man-sized putt—a 15-footer for a birdie at the 12th—and missed a half dozen which just rimmed the cup.

Gajda, a tall, loose - jointed bachelor who says "I've never won anything," pieced together a steady round which included three birdies.

Pontiacs Nip Kinkora 4-3

SUMMERSIDE — The Pontiacs defeated the winless Kinkora boys 4-3 in a well-played baseball game at Queen Elizabeth Park last evening, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Jack Pate, the winning pitcher, had a 3-hit, 3-0 shut-out going when Kinkora came to bat for the last time, but the visitors hit three singles and a triple in that frame and tied up the ball game.

Dave Brophy singled in the final frame, stole second, went to third on an error at short, and romped home beating the throw to the plate when David Matheson hit to second.

Pate, besides being charged with seven hits, struck out 4, and walked only one. Gerald Smith, on the mound for Kinkora, also pitched well, confining the Pontiacs to four hits, one base on balls, and striking out 2, but three big Kinkora errors in the third scored two runs. The Pontiacs got an earned one in the fourth inning on two singles and then racked up the winning counter in the seveth.

Gerry Smith did yeoman service on his own behalf at the plate, getting three singles in three tries. Wally Sherry hit 2 for 4, Gary Somers and Bonnie Roberts each hit a single.

For Pontiacs, Dave Brophy hit 2 for 3, Dave Matheson 1 for 2, and Turk Arsenault 1 for 3

Great Night's Racing

HARNESS racing fans surely had a great time of it Wednesday night at Charlottetown Driving Park where sensational racing was served up throughout the entire program.

It started at the very first dash of the early closer and continued uninterrupted all evening. Simcoe's Magic was the leader, grabbing that first division of the early closer in 2.09:4 Emmet 'Cowboy' Bernard kept things going with another race-record performance with Art Craig's Captain Chief. The time was 2.11:1. Then along came Alyre Pineau with his Slippy Queen and another great mile of 2 10:3.

The first, second and third place finishers came back at one another in the raceoff in dash five and this time Clarke Smith, scoring in number nine spot, stormed home a winner in the terrific time of 2.09:4.

It meant that the first three divisions of the early closer and the raceoff among the top horses all brought race-record miles.

THEN Walter Downe proved that he has his horses ready early for the word when he reined Janet M to a double dash triumph in dashes four and eight. Janet equalled her mark of 2:09.2 in both trips, copping the miles with comparative ease.

These outstanding performances so early in the season surely prove that the local track is in excellent shape. Those who were skeptical about the rock dust can't argue with success. The trainers and drivers alike are proclaiming the oval tip top and the miles the horses are going are surely showing this to be the case.

Spectators could hardly believe the times when they were announced Wednesday night but they were agreeably surprised with the entire show.

It was an ideal night for racing but despite the excellent behaviour of the weatherman, the crowd was disappointingly small. Those that were there showed a keen interest in the pari-mutuel and as a result this end of the business was the best of the entire year.

Another good night Saturday should see the folks turn out in much better numbers for what promises to be a thrilling program.

Lions Top Irish 7-4 For First Victory

Led by the acrobatics of catcher Gary Gallant, Barry's Lions registered their first win of the season last evening on the Old Diamond, toppling BIS Shamrocks 7-4.

The game was scoreless till the top of the third inning when the Lions counted their first run. They added another in the fourth before getting an answer from Vern Blanchard's Irish.

The Shamrocks came from behind twice to tie the score before Barry's team put the game out of reach with a four run rally in the sixth inning.

The greenshirts evened the count at 2-all in the fourth, 3-3 in the fifth and came through with one tally in the seventh.

Winning pitcher Kier Jones allowed only five hits over the distance, walking four and fanning none. Loser Stirling Simms gave one hit in each of the first five innings and then was banged for three hits, including a two-run homer by Gary Gallant in the sixth. Simms issued no free tickets to first and struck out one.

Gallant and teafamate Glen Thompson were top stickers, each hitting 3-for-4. No player on the losing team garnered more than one hit.

In the fifth inning Lions' backstop Gary Gallant was lodged on third after making first on a single when teammate Vince Mulligan hit a pop-up to second which second - sacker Charlie Weatherbie handled easily. The moment the ball landed in Weatherbie's glove Gallant was streaking for home. BIS catcher Jack Hennessey had Weatherbie's relay in time to tag Gallant but he couldn't locate him. The Lions' catcher had taken a flying leap from about ten feet from the plate, doing a roll and eluding Hennessey completely.

Officials for last night's game were: — plate, Frank Bell; bases, George Murphy, Bud Lund.

Next league action is Monday evening with the Mariners playing host to Barry's Lions.

HUNTER'S CORNER

Scribe Recalls 2 Souris Men Were Top Conservationists

Souris has lost two remarkable men with the passing of the two Frank's. . . J. Frank Sterns and Frank Hennessey. Both were conservationists of the highest order. Mr. Sterns combined conservation with moderate hunting. He was not a game hog and believed in hunting in a leisurely manner. He loved to roam the quiet back roads and woodland trails of the glen in quest of ruffed grouse and took as much enjoyment out of the quiet strolls where he could drink in the beauties of nature as he did in the actual taking of game.

One trail he often patronized was The Father James Road. . It was a good grouse producer in the old days. The old Tarantum trail was another productive grouse territory but its glories have faded with the passing years. Too many vandals patrolled this quiet back country grouse habitat with 22 cal. rifles weeks before the opening day on October 15th.

Frank Sterns was a conservationist of the highest order. Frank Hennessey was not a hunter but he was a conservationist nevertheless. For many years he was warden of Black Pond sanctuary. There was none better, or more conscientious employee, who ever patrolled the sanctuary.

It meant just what the name implied in those days. Black Pond sanctuary is a mere relic compared to its former glories. Two factors contribued to this fall-off in waterfowl population. . an easing up of patrol activity with the retirement of Mr. Hennessey and a sharp decline in our waterfowl population as applied to this province.

The current black duck hatch appears to be slow in materializing although the crop of breeding ducks appears normal. Water is abundant and the ordinary pot holes and ponds are not drying out like they do after a period of hot, dry weather. It's generally late August or early September before our local duck hatch can be pin-pointed with any degree of certainty. High water levels and cold weather has slowed up the trout take this season. The water in many ponds and dams is ice cold and trout are not rampaging so far afield as in more temperate seasons.

USUAL TEMPO MISSING

Some nice salt water beauties have been creeled but the action is not up to its usual tempo to date. Many trout fishermen are trying their luck well off the mouths of creeks and rivers.

Covehead Bay has supplied a few top specimens but one must have the patience of Job to fish in this body of water. One angler hooked into a real heavyweight a few evenings ago. . .it just headed for the open sea with the throttle wide open and the cast and two flies went by the board. The sensation of power was akin to having a rampaging half ton steer hooked at the base of the tail. Some fighting two-and-a-half pounders have been creeled but a lot more casts have been lost.

A fair sprinkling of Huns have put in an appearance this summer. One farmer reports two pair on his farm and also the disappearance of two coveys. . . an 11 and a 16. . . has been reported after calcium chloride was spread on the highway in the vicinity of where the aforementioned coveys had their headquarters.

Our robin population has made a remarkable come-back this past three years. One runs across them most everywhere this summer. A few years ago an intensive spraying program to save the Dutch Elms in the States practically wiped out the robin population in the areas affected.

A REAL FIGHTER

The robin is quite pugnacious and a fighter of the highest order althought it cannot be classed as a songster. I used to enjoy their late evening chirp as they prepared to retire for the night. When I farmed at Mount Albion for a number of years after the War (1914-1918) the robins always reported when a cat, bronzed grackle or crow visited their premises.

After the 22 B.S.A. rifle cracked they appeared to sense whether or not it was a kill or a miss. If their enemy had been eliminated they'd give with a few joyous comments and then silence. If it was a miss it took them minutes to settle down and I imagine their remarks were definitely not complimentary.

What a rifle that was! It weighed as much as a service rifle and had a 6 hole peep sight. When I was really on I could drive tacks at 50 yards. A crow at one hundred yards was a 'sitting duck'. Robins can become very possessive at times.

One insisted in making her nest on the mantle above the kitchen stove. The foundation was well underway on our return from a trip to town. The door had been left ajar when we left. She did raise a brood the following year when I joined the RCMP.

I purposely left an opening for her to enter. She raised her brood of four and appeared glad to see us when we called every week. She showed no fear and I fully believe she was the robin that used ot fly to the Red Astrachan tree near the kitchen door and say thank you after I had made a successful shot. Come to think of it, I never laid eyes on her mate. If she had one she most certainly kept him in the background. I've seen that happen in real life.

Holman's Whip St. Eleanors

SUMMERSIDE — Holman's softball team beat St. Eleanors last evening by the score of 10-5 at St. Eleanors Wednesday evening. D. Sherry pitched for Holman's while Dave Walker toed the slab for St. Eleanors.

For Holman's D. Sherry hit 5 for 5, L. Gamble 3 for 4, and H. H. Adams 3 for 5. For St. Eleanors, Claude Lyle and Jack McGillicuddy hit 2 for 3.

Bonshaw Blasts Hunter R. Team

Bonshaw swamped Hunter River 22-9 in a Gulf League softball game Wednesday evening.

The losers used three pitchers, E. Gallant, G. Bernard and R. Matheson in an unsuccessful effort to halt the Bonshaw boys.

MacLeod went the distance on the mound for the winners.

Home runs were clouted by Pat MacLean of Bonshaw and Hunter of Hunter River.

Two Runs In 10th Give Flyers 5-3 Win

Forbie Kennedy's Flyers downed Rovers 5-3 in an extra inning City Baseball contest at Memorial Field last night.

Going into the top of the tenth with the score deadlocked at 3-all the leadoff batter Freddie MacDonald hit a fly ball to left field for the first out. Bill Sherry then poled a double and came home on Lennie Baglole's single for the winning run. Baglole then romped home when Jimmy Duffy's hit was bobbled.

The Rovers went down one, two, three in their half of the extra frame.

Freddie MacDonald went the distance for the winners, tossing an eight-hitter, none for extra bases. He also had difficulty locating the plate, issuing eight free passes to the initial sack. Four players went down swinging on his offerings.

Lloyd 'Say' Doiron was charged with the defeat, after relieving John Lane in the top of the ninth. Over eight innings Lane allowed eight hits, walked three and struck out eight. Doiron gave up two hits, accounting for the winning and insurance runs.

MacIsaac of the Rovers led all stickers with two hits in three appearances. Bill Sherry, Len Baglole, Jimmy Duffy and Carl McQuaid went 2-for-5 for the winners.

Yanks Widen Lead; Chisox Fall Off Pace

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Yankees opened a two game lead in the American League Thursday, with a 5-4 ninth inning victory over last place Washington Senators.

Chicago White Sox fell off the American League pace as they dropped a 9-4 decision to Minnesota Twins.

National League leading St. Louis Cards and the second and third place San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers were idle.

The Yankees won their seventh straight with two runs in the last of the ninth off the relief pitching of ex-team mate Jim Coates. Bobby Richardson drove both runs home with a double and handed the Senators their eighth straight loss.

Harmon Killebrew homered and Zoilo Versalles hit a triple with the bases loaded as the Twins picked up five runs in the fifth to beat the Sox.

BOSOX WHIP TIGERS

Dick Stuart and Chuck Schilling contributed homers to the cause as Boston Red Sox whipped Detroit Tigers 8-3 and pinned the third straight loss on new manager Charley Dressen. Jim Bunning took the loss and a $50 fine for deliberately hitting Roman Mejias with a pitch.

Bill Williams crashed two homers into the teeth of a Lake Michigan gale to power Chicago Cubs to a 5-0 victory over Houston. Larry Jackson threw the shutout for his eighth win.
