Successful Tag Day

The Charlottetown branch of the Women's Auxiliary, Canadian National Institute of the Blind, carried out its annual Tag Day last Saturday. The result of considerable work by the women themselves, and more than seventy canvassers who thoroughly covered the city and outskirts, was a successful day. The canvassers were drawn from all the city churches, and from the Women's Institute of Parkdale, and from Spring Park School. The young girls and a few boys were on the streets quite early in the morning, and worked conscientiously and according to a well drawn-up plan.

The women of the Auxiliary who planned and directed the work were most appreciative of the way in which canvassers conducted themselves, and wish to express their thanks to all of the children concerned. They also feel themselves indebted to the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, from whose rooms in the Legion building the fund raising campaign was conducted during the day. Mrs. S.G. Peppin, President of the Women's Auxiliary to the Blind was on duty throughout the day, along with the two conveners, Mrs. John B. Murley and Mrs. Allan J. MacDonald. There were many others who contributed their services. These were: Mrs. (Dr.) W.J.P. MacMillan, Mrs. John M. Garnham, Mrs. A.J. Coffin, Mrs. George Purvis, Miss Lorna Weeks, Mrs. L.A. Horne, Mrs. A. W. Hyndman, Mrs. Ann MacDonald and Mrs. A. Affleck.

The canvassers worked in teams of two and prizes were awarded to the teams making the highest collections. The prize winners were: First, Geneva MacMillan and Joan Marie Rush. Second, Andrea Gaudet and Elizabeth Gaudet. Third, Elizabeth Dwyer, and Rosina Beck. Parkdale: Gail Carver and Sandra Johnson. Spring Park: Janet Mellich and Brenda Theriault.

The choir contributed numbers both morning and evening under the direction of the organist and director Mrs. Allison MacRae, A.C.M.M.

Two Islanders To - Executive

Two Islanders were named to the executive of the Maritime Motion Picture Exhibitors Association at the annual meeting of the organization held October 16th in Saint John, N.B.

Re-elected vice-president was Mr. B.H. Yeo, theatre owner, and mayor of Montague, while George A. Walters, who manages the two Charlottetown theatres the Capitol, and the North-River drive-in, was re-elected secretary of the group.

The fifty-three theatre owners and operators in a resolution adopted by the meeting criticized the Government of New Brunswick and the St. John Common Council for ignoring or refusing appeals of the theatre industry to alleviate amusement and business taxes.

The annual conference referred to the "faithful service" moving picture theatres had given in all fields of public welfare and charity, and their long-established position as taxpayers and employers.

Other officers elected to the 1957-58 executive at Wednesday's meeting included: A.J. Mason of Springhill, N.S., president (re-elected), and F. Gordon Spencer of Saint John, vice-president (re-elected).

PREACHES FIFTH IN SERIES AT NORTH R. CHURCH
A capacity congregation gathered in the North River Baptist Church Sunday evening to hear Rev. Keith Hobson preach the fifth of a series of ten evangelistic sermons.

Mr. Hobson based his remarks on the story of the building of the ark. He said that there were people who saw Noah working at his task and said what a fool he was. He was building such a cumbersome ship. He would never be able to get it to the water to float it; it had no rudder, and he would never find enough craftsmen to propel it.

There were still others who helped Noah with his work because this brought them a livelihood, but that didn't believe in what he was doing.

When the ark was finished, the rain came, the flood waters began to rise. Noah went into the ark and God shut the door. As the waters rose, the people began making their way up the hillside to where the ark was only to discover the ark was afloat. The door was closed and their only hope of escape drifted out of their sight in the heavy winds.

Mr. Hobson said that people today are dawdling just like the people of Noah's time. The day of judgement will be upon them and their hope of salvation will be lost.

The service was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Owen Cochran. The choir of the churches of the pastorate combined to provide the music. Mrs. Terry Bee is of Charlottetown sang a Solo "Jesus Gives Me A Song", and Mrs. Ballis with Mr. Stirling Iman, also of Charlottetown, sang as a duet "Surrender". They were accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Frank Willis.
