Savage Harbor

The fishermen here at Savage Harbour, enjoying one of the most successful seasons in many months, find the bountiful harvest continuing with the end of the season only one week away. New modern records for this shore will be set by more than one boat fishing out of this harbour.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell and Mrs. John Morrison, all of Savage Harbour, were visitors to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mrs. James MacKay and daughter Patricia of Charlottetown were weekend visitors to Savage Harbour where they were the guests of Mrs. MacKay's sister-in-law Miss Thelma MacKay.

The many friends of Mr. John Pigot will be happy to learn that he has made a speedy recovery from his recent illness. Mr. Pigot, one of the most successful fishermen of this area as well as one of the most highly respected, took ill on Sunday evening. He rallied quickly, however, and is now able to move around and about again as usual.

Mrs. Lloyd Robertson of Amherst, N.S. who underwent an operation at the P.E.I. Hospital on Friday has been discharged from the hospital and is now recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Coffin, Savage Harbour. Mrs. Robertson will remain here for several weeks before returning to her new home in Amherst.

It is pleasing to note that the condition of Mr. Garth Pigot was very severely injured in a car accident on the corner of the South Highway about two months ago, is steadily improving and hopes are now high that very soon he will be able to leave the hospital and return to his home at Mt. Stewart.

Miss Olive Ferrish of Summerside was a recent visitor to Savage Harbour while here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gunn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rapson of Charlottetown were weekend visitors to Savage Harbour, where they were the guests of Mrs. Rapson's sister Mrs. John Pigot.

The mackerel struck at Savage Harbour during the week and the dean of all fishermen, Mr. Freddie Moshier, was out in his tried and worthy craft to bid them welcome, a welcome they shall neither remember or forget as he took a delegation of some two hundred of them and introduced them to the citizens of the community.

Beryl Collier, Grade IV, Myrna Poulton, Grade III, Anne Howatt, Honours in Essay Contests.
 Margaret Rose Roberts, a pupil of Grade XI won a prize for an essay. This contest was sponsored by The Swift Canadian Company.
 Elaine Trainor, a pupil of Grade VIII, tied for the first place in the Centennial Essay Contest.
 Lorna McInnis, a pupil of Grade VII won a $500 prize in the Essay Contest sponsored by the Association for the Blind.

Bristol

Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie of Toronto were called home owing to the sudden passing of Mrs. Leslie's sister, Miss Hattie Pigot, Savage Harbour, former residents of this vicinity. Mr. Leslie carried on farming on the old home-stand for a number of years; while Mrs. Leslie, who was Rena Pigot in single life, was a school teacher and taught in this district. Their many friends who have not seen them in many a moon are happy to see them and their three children around and in top health.

The only packing plant canning lobsters around these parts, the Savage Harbour plant, has closed for the season. With good fishing now the fishermen have joined others in selling their catches alive. The lobster packing business seems to have ended here after a hundred years, a century that saw a dozen plants all canning lobster drop off one by one.

Mrs. Fred Yorston spent the past week in the city with her brother, Gus Downe, and family. Mr. Downe, who is a retired postal clerk, will move to his summer residence at St. Peter's this week for the summer months.

Friends here of Mrs. Alex Birt, city, will be sorry to learn she furnished by Mrs. Reta Morrison, Jack MacDonald and Leonard Doyle. A delicious supper was served after which all wished their way homeward, but not before extending all the best wishes to Miss MacKay for a long and happy wedded life.

A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Moshier and their sons, Stewart and Wilford, and Mr. and Mrs. Peeman Jay and son Wayne of Morell journeyed via the Wood Island Ferry to Pictou N.S. on Sunday where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moshier of Halifax and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moshier and their two children Marcel and Doull also of Halifax. The entire group continued on to Fairview where they thoroughly enjoyed a good old fashioned family picnic.

Mr. Joseph McNeill of Miscouche was a visitor to Savage Harbour where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Gunn. —C.H.

Dredging

operations are progressing favorably here at Savage Harbour with the large suction dredge No. 12 slowly but just as surely digging her way out to sea. Already the sand-devouring monster has reached the creosote-piled wall and will follow it till she strikes the open sea. Digging through some twelve feet of sand, she is leaving behind a waterway some nine feet deep. This if it would remain, would be ideal and meet to a full degree the needs of the fishermen. But many of the old hands shake their heads and wonder whether or not the cut will fill in again. A few short months ago a stream, very small it is true but yet a stream, was finding its way to the sea through the very same course now being followed by the dredge. If in the course of such a short time that stream could be wiped out and buried securely beneath some four or more feet of sand, what, they argue, is going to prevent the sand from filling in the new cut.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shanahan of Charlottetown were recent visitors to Savage Harbour where they were the guests of Mr. Joseph MacKay and Miss Thelma MacKay.

Messrs John and Alex MacAdam who fish out of St. Peter's found themselves more or less helpless out on the fishing grounds on Monday when their engine refused duty. They finally drifted ashore at Crowbush Cape just East of Savage Harbour. They lost their lobsters as well as having their boat damaged, but all in all they are quite happy that old man weather was just as he was.

Mrs. Aeneas MacIntyre of St. Andrews had the misfortune to lose a very valuable cow during the week. Just what caused the death of this valuable animal is not clear. It appears that Mr. MacIntyre, rounding up his cattle, found this one on her back in the roadside ditch, dead.

A delightful shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murphy, Savage Harbour, on Thursday night in honor of Miss Phyllis MacKay who will be married on June 29th. Some forty young people gathered to do honor to the bride-to-be, who is one of the most popular young people of this district. The many beautiful gifts were opened by Miss George Gunn while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Phyllis Murphy. Several pleasant hours were spent in dancing with excellent music being for treatment. Her old home is in Bristol and she was Mary Squires in single life.

It has been announced from the Bishop's Residence in Charlottetown that Rev. Phalen McKenna has been transferred to Alberton, replacing the late Rev. William Monaghan, who died last winter. Father McKenna has served here for 14 years and during that time has made a sea of improvements including the remodelling of both churches and both cemeteries. Father McKenna will leave the first week of July.

Friends of Mrs. Danny MacDonald, St. Peter's, will be sorry to learn she is a patient in the Souris Hospital at this time. She was Etta O'Brien before her marriage some years ago.

Mr. Tom Kenny, who is employed in the city as a carpenter, spent the weekend with his wife and family in this vicinity.

Mr. Howard Blaxland, who joined the Royal Canadian Navy, left last week for Quebec for training. Mr. Blaxland is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blaxland. Howard was employed in the city for quite some time before entering the Navy. —N.
