

Hutterite Leader

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARY IRMA ROSS
Relatives and friends were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. William E. Ross, nee Irma Peters of Palmer Road, P.E.I., which occurred at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, on January 10, 1956, after a prolonged period of failing health. The beloved deceased leaves to mourn her husband, Sergeant William E. Ross, one daughter, Andrea, and two sons, Bryan and David. A third son, Dennis, died in infancy ten years ago.

Also left to mourn are her mother, Mrs. Veronica Peters, East St. John, N.B., and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Aubin Perry and Mrs. Camille Perry, St. Louis, P.E.I.; Mrs. William Walsh, Brighton, Mass.; Mrs. Earl Cornish, West Newton, Mass.; Mrs. Douglas Mulock, Miss Helen Peters, and Henry J. Peters, East St. John; Alphonse J. Peters, Sheet Harbor, N.S. Her father, John P. Peters, and two brothers Leo and George, predeceased her by several years. The remains were transferred to the Fitzpatrick Funeral Home, St. John, and Requiem High Mass was sung in Stella Maris Church, East St. John, on January 13. The celebrant, Rev. A.W. Kinsella, also recited the last prayers at the grave in St. Joseph's Cemetery. Pallbearers were Alphonse J. Peters, Henry J. Peters, Gordon Ross, Aubin Perry, Dominic Gionet, and Joseph Cormier.

The profusion of Mass cards, spiritual and floral tributes received testified to the high esteem in which the late Mrs. Ross was held by all who knew her. A large number of friends also called at the funeral home to express condolences to the bereaved members of her family.

Mass cards were given by the following: Rev. A.W. Kinsella, Sergeant W.E. Ross and family, Mrs. Veronica Peters, Mrs. Nora MacPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Aubin Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Camille Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mulock, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse J. NEW ANNAN

The New Annan Christmas concert was held in the schoolhouse on December 22nd., with a good number of parents and others present. Program consisted of dialogues, recitations, drills and songs under the direction of their teacher Mr. Walter Curley. A sale of candy took place after which Santa Claus arrived with one of his reindeers. Much to the enjoyment of all the children He then distributed gifts from a nicely decorated tree to all the pupils. The Women's Institute treated the pupils and pre-school children to a treat of apples, oranges and candy. The pupils presented their teacher with a nice gift, after which Walter thanked them for their thoughtfulness. The concert closed with "The Queen". Mr. Keith Thompson was chairman for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. MacLeod formerly of Irishtown, were welcomed by their new neighbors at Long River with a party at their home on January 4, when they were presented with a well filled puse.

Mr. William J. Proffitt called the gathering to order with suitable remarks, and called upon Mrs. Allan A. Campbell to read an address. This not only welcomed the newcomers, but expressed high regard for "James and Lina" who are already well and favorably known to many in this area. Mr. William B. Doughart made the presentation. The remainder of the evening passed happily. Piano selections were rendered by Mrs. Ralph Johnstone who also accompanied for a sing-song.

Among those assisting in serving refreshments were Mrs. W. B. Doughart, Mrs. Eustace Paynter, Mrs. Donald Campbell, Mrs. Ar-
