A Curious Animal.—A correspondent writes:—"Mr. Hamilton Binns, New Glasgow, has a curiosity in the shape of a calf (stuffed), having two heads, three tails, eight legs, and other extraordinary features. We believe Mr. Binns intends to exhibit this wonderful animal next October, when the public will have an opportunity of seeing one of the most wonderful natural curiosities ever placed on exhibition."

We learn from Mr. J. A. Lawson, who recently returned from the Templar's Convention at Richmond, Va., that Hon. J. B. Finch, the great Prohibition leader, is to visit Charlottetown the last of July, and that he has secured the services of Mrs. J. C. Stone, of Ohio, for the month of August or September. Mrs. Stone has done much by her eloquent advocacy to raise the temperance sentiment to what it now is in Ohio.

Under the heading "The Liberal Cause is Progressing," the Patriot tells a wonderful yarn about an animal, that being consigned to a city slaughter house, refused to go further than Messrs. Beer & Goff's, and claims that it was a good Liberal in politics. The animal probably was an over grown calf, and seeing Beer in large letters thought it had struck the committee rooms of the "leading candidate" of the Grits, and would there find congenial company. Hence the refusal to go further.

The steamer Worcester, Capt. Allan, left for Boston at 6 o'clock yesterday evening with a general cargo and the following passengers: Miss Janie Black, Henry Wyatt, Miss Macdonald, R. Buchanan, K. Kennedy, Annie Macdonald, H. S. Pethick, T. J. Moren, K. McKinnon, Helen McGuigan, M. S. Burnes.

The New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., which enjoys the distinction of being the largest and best equipped in the world, attracted to its halls last year 2,005 students from 55 States, Territories, Provinces and Foreign Countries. With its corps of 100 teachers, including such well-known artists as Carl Zerrahn, Augusto Rotoli, Carl Faelten, J. C. D. Parker, Louis Maas, Otto Bendix, Timothie Adamowski, Alfred De Seve and Leandro Campanari, it merits for the coming year a still larger patronage.

The Moncton Transcript says that on Monday evening, about 5 o'clock, the youngest daughter of H. W. Knight, of Sackville, aged 4 years, went to the spring for a tin pailful of water and fell headlong into the box spring, which holds about two feet of water. Fortunately Mr. Bowes went to the spring to get a pail of water, so that his wife, who is prostrate with the measles, might get a drink of fresh water, and found the little child's feet sticking out of the box. She was immediately rescued, and it was at first thought that the little one was dead, but she was happily resuscitated.

Significant.—Mr. Thos. Robertson, an extreme Grit, has long been the "white headed boy," in the County of Shelburne, N. S., a constituency which he now represents at Ottawa. At the local nominations on the 8th, Mr. Roberston was one of the speakers on the side of the Grit repeal candidates. When asked to explain why he voted to condemn the Government for Riel's execution, he said Sir John and his cabinet were the real criminals and ought to have been hanged instead of Riel. He was hissed so heartily that he could not proceed, and it is said he has the unenviable distinction of being the first public man ever hissed off the platform in Shelburne County.—Moncton Times.

We learn that McKenna, alias "Shorty," the fellow who stole a horse and wagon from Bridgetown, N. S., and ran away with an Indian's wife, was tried before the County Stipendiary, who committed him to Annapolis jail to await his trial in the coming session of the Supreme Court on the charge of passing the counterfeit money and for horse stealing. Mr. Randolph fortunately got his team back uninjured, but incurred considerable expense in doing so. Davis also secured his team. "Shorty" told a cock and bull story that he intended to go to Bridgewater, N. S., and from thence to take the woman he ran away with to Halifax, place her in service, then come back to Bridgewater, and bring the team home.

The market to-day was largely attended, both inside and outside, and sales quite lively at the following prices:—Beef (small) 7 to 10 cts per lb; do per qtr 4 to 7 cts; mutton, 5 to 8 cents; pork (carcass) 4 to 5 cts; pork (small) 6 to 8 cts; lamb, 6 to 8 cts; ham per lb, 13 to 14 cts; fowls, each, 30 to 35 cts; butter (fresh) 23 to 25; do (tub) 18 to 20 cts; eggs, per dozen, 10 to 12 cts; clover seed, 16 to 18 cts per lb; flour per 100 lbs, $2.25 to $2.75; oatmeal, do, $2.30 to $2.50; oats, 30 to 40 cts; hay per 100, 55 cts; potatoes, 18 to 20 cts; geese, 50 to 70; turnips, per bush, 12 to 13 cts; seed timothy, $3 per bush; veal, 3 to 7 cts per lb; turkeys, 80 cts to $1.75; radish per bunch, 6 cents; herring (fresh) 6 to 8 cts; lobsters, 3 to 6 cts each; halibut, 8 cents per lb.; rhubarb, 3 to 4 cents lb; codfish, 10 to 25 cents; mackerel, 5 to 8 cents; pigs, $4.50 to $5.00 per pair.

The Egg Trade.

Owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the Boston egg market, the principal shippers here have concluded to buy eggs (small lots) at 8 cents, and it is to be hoped that this necessary action on the part of buyers here will not create in the minds of farmers, and others who have eggs to dispose of, a disposition to hold their stock (as they have unfortunately sometimes done in the past) and thereby make matters even worse than they now are, and besides the outlook for an advance in the near future is not in any way encouraging at the present time.
