

Queen's County Exhibition.

AFTER the excellent address of the Lieutenant Governor, Chief Justice Palmer was called upon to say a few words, and he delivered a short, vigorous speech, on the expediency of the higher cultivation in agriculture.

The Exhibition was, on the whole, a very good one. A principal feature and a great attraction was the fine display of cloth made by the Tryon, Mill Valley and Mill View Cloth Mills.

The display of photographs was very creditable. Fancy goods were "fair, but good." Fruit fine. Mr. Abraham Gill, of Little York, showed a splendid selection of apples, plums, etc., which was ruled out because enclosed in a neat case with glass top, and not in baskets.

The Judges report:—The Judges regret to find such a small show in this class. But this may in some measure, be caused by the smallness of the prizes offered, although there must also be a want of enterprise on the part of those engaged in the business.

About Lobsters and Trout.

THE Minister of Marine and Fisheries, under date Ottawa, 1st inst., has directed that "fishermen, and others, in the Province, be allowed to catch, but not to can, lobsters, during the present season, for private use and immediate consumption, and for the purpose of supplying the local markets and trans-atlantic steamers."

The Belfast Convention.

THE Patriot was "respectfully requested" to publish the Secretary's report of the Convention held at Eldon on Thursday, the 2nd inst. But instead of doing so, it says:—

"We are informed on excellent authority that the so-called Liberal-Conservative convention lately held in Eldon, was everything but a representative body, that it was quietly engineered by Mr. Donald Montgomery, that its work was cut out for it beforehand by the new Superintendent and one or two other wire-pullers, that it did nothing but follow the secret instructions that some of its members had received, that an unfair undvantage was taken of influential men who had strong claims on the Liberal-Conservative Party, and that the choice made is very far from meeting with the approbation of the Liberal-Conservatives of Belfast."

These are the gentlemen who are stigmatized as the most obedient tools of Mr. Donald Montgomery, viz:—

- Henry Burke, } Pownal. John Acorn, } Lot 50. Donald McLeod (joiner), } John F. McLeod, } M. Harbor Road. Angus A. Martin, } Roderick A. McDonald, } John Murchison, } Eldon. D. A. McLeod, } Alex. McMillan, } John McDonald, } Caledonia. Wm. McPherson, } William Forbes, } D. Carmichael, } Pisquid, Lot 49. A. O'Keefe, } D. Crawford, } Wood Islands, N. McKenzie, } Belle Creek & Rona. Alex. Martin, }

We rely upon the electors of Belfast to give the Patriot its answer (in a practical way) on the 21st inst. We shall see whether or not the Patriot may act with gross unfairness and recklessly attack the characters of several of the most intelligent and independent men in Belfast and go unpunished.

The Mission to England.

The Toronto Telegram very properly condemns the Globe's action in asserting, without any knowledge on the subject, that the recent visit of the Dominion ministers to England has been a failure, and holds on the contrary that their silence as to the result is a very favorable indication. It says: "The magnitude of the enterprise upon which the Canadian Government have embarked renders it absurd and unreasonable to presume that the whole question of dealing with them has been disposed of at a single step, or that all the difficulties in the way have been finally overcome by the mere visit across the waters of the Canadian Ministers. But it is fair to assume, from the manner in which the Ministerial delegates were received by the Imperial authorities, that whatever projects they have had to lay before the Home Government and the home capitalists, have been favorably regarded. It is fair to assume that the First Minister and his associates were not idle during their stay in London, and that their efforts, active and earnest as they undoubtedly were—for the credit and the future of their Ministry were dependent upon them—have not been barren of result. Indeed, we should not have looked for so speedy a return of all the delegates had they not so far advanced their enterprise and placed it in such a shape as to satisfy them of a satisfactory conclusion and as to warrant them in the belief that they will have an account to render to Parliament, four months hence, likely to challenge its approval and the approbation of the country."

We made money at "Rocklin House" fast, while the Show and Exhibition did last.

Hon. J. H. POPE will act as Minister of Customs during the absence of Hon. Mr. Bowell.

The price offered for the "Osborne House" to-day, was such as would not induce the owners to sell. It was, therefore, "bid in."

DEATH FROM A STING.—The Montreal "Star" of the 2nd says:—"Mr. Robert Duffin, a respected citizen of St. Henri, died this morning in great agony from the effects of a sting in the arm, inflicted some time ago by a poisonous fly or other insect."

LARGE SHIPMENT OF POTATOES.—The brig Laura B., which has been loading potatoes at Rankine's Wharf, Portland, during the past week, will sail this morning for Liverpool, to which port the cargo is consigned. Messrs. J. & W. F. Harrison are the shippers. There are in all between 3,100 and 3,200 bbls., consisting of Early Rose and Prolifics. The potatoes have been purchased from different farmers along the St. John River, and were brought down by the May Queen to Indian-town, and from thence were carted to the place of loading. This, it is said, is the largest cargoes of potatoes that ever sailed out of this port.—St. John Tel.

Funeral of Judge Pope.

By Telegraph to Daily Examiner SUMMERSIDE, Oct. 9, 4 p. m.

The funeral of Judge Pope left the crossing near the Judge's residence, by train, at 3 p.m. There were five cars loaded with people; and a great number went out by road to join the procession at St. Eleanor's. The engine moved slowly and almost noiselessly along; and presented a very solemn appearance.

TEARER'S DIRECTORY.—It is as true of advertising as in anything else in life, that if it is worth doing at all it is worth doing well. Tearer's Directory is finding its way to every nook and corner of the island. No business house of any standing should be without a full page, because then the proprietor will get a business notice free.

THE best place to get Cigars, Tobaccos, Pipes and Smokers' Requisites, is at the Apothecaries' Hall, DesBrisay's Corner.

THE brig "Fanny," Captain Murchison, owned by Messrs. Welsh & Owen, arrived from Liverpool to-day, with a cargo of salt, after a passage of 30 days—25 days to Canso.
