Lobster Carnival Is Ready To Roll

Events new to the Carnival will be the beard - growing and pipe - smoking contests. These are expected to draw a large list of entries and Ron MacArthur, sponsor of the growing contest, said last night he expected to have at least 50 beard - growers on hand.
LIVESTOCK SHOW
 Grasse Linckert, chairman of the livestock show, said he expected an increase of 50 head of cattle over last year's entry list of 575.
 Other activities will be the Baby Contest, Acadian Day, Glamorous Grandma Contest, Miss P. E. I. Contest, for which there are already more than 15 entries, and many others.
 The final word last night from the committee chairman was that plans for the program are progressing favorably, but in the event that there are snags before Monday's official opening, a final meeting had been called for Saturday afternoon.
 Harness racing at Summerside Raceway will be held each night during the week, leaving Monday through Saturday nights.

Church Groups Plan Meets For Centennial Day
 O'LEARY — Rev. Kenneth Thompson of First Baptist Church in Middleton, N.S., will be guest preacher at a combined service of worship to be held in the week, from Monday through Saturday nights.
 Congregations participating in the outdoor service will include those of the United Church, pastored by Rev. O'Leary, West Channel Baptist Church, St. Luke's Anglican Church and O'Leary Church of the Nazarene.
 It will be held in the new community centennial park which is to be officially opened on Saturday. Should weather be unfavorable it will be held in the Baptist Church.
 At the same hour Roman Catholic people of the community will assemble for mass in St. Anthony's Church in Bloomfield.
 These services are being held in connection with the O'Leary

Centennial Awards Presented

Centennial Awards in the form of plaques were presented the owners of 12 Centennial Farms by J. Lincoln Dewar when they were honored Tuesday night at a community dinner sponsored by the Women's Institute of Lorne Valley.
 The program included music and tumbling displays and a reading of the history of Lorne Valley. Guests included members of the community.
 Those receiving awards were Donald MacLeod, Victoria Cross; Cecil Walsh, Summerside; James Campbell, Baldwin's Road; Peter MacLeod, Lorne Valley; Wilbur Macdonald B. Lorne Valley; Mrs. Ward B. Jay, Plaquet; Victoria Cross; Jay, Plaquet; Norman MacMillan, Albert Plains; P. Valley and Son, Albert Plains; Gerald Walsh, Elliotville; Bernard MacMillan, Summerside, and J.L. Dewar, New Perth.
Open-Air Church Services Are Planned At Park
 A series of open-air non-denominational services has been planned this summer in the camping grounds at Stanhope. Clearance for use of the seating in the entertainment area has been obtained by the superintendent of parks through Ottawa, and the first service is scheduled for the evening of July 12.
 This laymen's effort—it is being sponsored by the United Church Men's Council on P.E.I.—is believed to be somewhat unique, at least in the national parks.
 One interesting feature for holidaying campers is the concession to summer attire which may be worn at the services. Sports apparel and summer clothing have been decided as quite sufficient.
 Meetings will begin at 8:15 and end promptly at 9.
