HORSESHOEING.

HAVING secured the services of MR. WILLIAM TUCKER, a native of this Island, who has had nine years' experience as a Horse-shoer in the United States, I am prepared to supply a long-felt want in this line. Mr. Tucker has reduced horse-shoeing to a science, and is prepared to perform all classes of work in a common-sense and scientific manner. I need not inform the intelligent horseowner that the gait of the horse and condition of the feet must be understood to weight a horse properly and to successfully operate thereon. Numerous patrons already admit the merits of the work performed, and recommend his system of shoeing. Customers can always depend on prompt attention and entire satisfaction.

Canadian Securities.

HOW THEY HAVE INCREASED IN VALUE IN THE ENGLISH STOCK MARKET DURING THE PAST YEAR.

(From the Canadian Gazette, London.)

For the first time since this journal was established—now nearly four years—the financial retrospect usual at this season yields almost unalloyed satisfaction. A comparison with this time last year shows that, with rare exceptions, pre-existing securities have advanced in value—in some cases very considerably—and there has been, we are glad to say, no fresh instance of default or disgrace. As compared with what could be said of Australia or South America, but little new work, has, however, been done. No prominent issue of any kind has been made—Dominion, provincial, or municipal. On account of railway companies the principal operation was the issue in April last of the balance of the Canadian Pacific railway bonds. That company's Manitoba Southwestern bonds have also been placed this year, chiefly, however, in Amsterdam. The Manitoba and North-western railway company have also got their bonds into the market. The Island of Anticosti company has been floated during the year, and bonds have been issued on behalf of the city of Winnipeg waterworks company and the Halifax graving dock company.

As to the improved market value of Canadian securities known in great Britain there is much to be said. Dominion 3½ per cents. are as much as 6 higher, having risen from 92½ to 98½. Provincial government bonds have as a rule improved, but the older 6 per cents. are naturally inclined to lose some of their considerable premiums, as the redemption dates come to be thought more of. Of municipal bonds, those of Quebec and Toronto show a rise of about 3 per cent., but Toronto credit is a long way ahead of that of any other Canadian city. But the most considerable advance is in railway securities. All those which have any pretensions to soundness have risen considerably. Canadian Pacific shares were 60 a year ago, and they have recently been above 75, but are now just under 70. The company's bonds, in spite of the large addition to the amount on the market, have risen from 102½ to 107, and they changed hands at 108 a week or two ago. The Grand Trunk series have advanced to a still larger extent. The guaranteed stock, which was 55, is now 74; the first preference has advanced from 55½ to 76½, and the second preference from 38½ to 58. The bonds of the various lines leased to both these great companies also show great progress in some cases. New Brunswick railway bonds have risen from 82 to 98, Northern of Canada third preference bonds from 92 to 95, and Windsor and Annapolis debenture stock from 52 to 70. St. John and Maine shares have been so high as 45, but they are now not much over 30. In the other sections there has also been some improvement. Bank of British Columbia shares, which were 60, are now 68; and bank of Montreal shares, which, with $200 paid, closed last year at $400, are now $481. Loan shares are better than they were a year ago, trust and loan shares, however, being still at a slight discount. Land shares have, as a rule, improved; but there has recently been a reaction from the unduly high price of Hudson's Bay shares of a month or two ago. There is practically nothing to say of the other sections of our Canadian investments. It is worth nothing, however, that stock exchange securities in Canada have also greatly advanced during the year. Amongst banks our readers are most familiar with the bank of Montreal, the Canadian bank of Commerce, the Merchants bank of Canada, the Imperial bank of Canada, and the Dominion bank. We have already shown the extent of the rise in bank of Montreal shares, and it is satisfactory to note that the shares have also greatly advanced. The Ontario loan companies nearly all show further progress. The shares of the Canada permanent are 212 per $100 paid up, those of the London and Canadian have risen from 146 to 161, National investment of Canada shares from 101 to 108, and Union loan and savings from 132 to 136. Of the few companies of this class which have gone back during the year, are the Dominion savings, the Hamilton provident and loan, and the Ontario loan and debenture. Insurance shares have also improved in several instances, and, with few exceptions, the miscellaneous securities tabulated in our "Dominion trade and finance" columns also compare advantageously with their condition a year ago.

Boston Markets.

JANUARY 12.

POTATOES—The market for Potatoes at the roads is a shade firmer, with sales of Houlton Hebrons at 63c to 65c. Houlton Rose at 55 to 58c and Prolicats at 58 to 60c per bu. Several cargoes of Provincial stock have arrived and the supply is liberal.

FISH—There continues to be a fair inquiry and the indications are that trade will soon be fully under way. Mackerel are held with confidence, and the stock is mostly in dealers' hands. We quote nominally as follows:—Nova Scotian and P. E. Island extra No 1 at $20 to $25; ordinary No 1 $15 to $18; No 2 at $12 to $13; and No 3 at $9 per bbl. Bays of American inspection are in very small stock and firmly held at previous rates. Total receipt of Mackerel at Boston for the week 463 bbls, of which 425 bbls were from the Provinces.

CANNED GOODS—Mackerel, per dozen 1 lb. cans, $1.05 to $1.15; Lobsters, per dozen 1 lb. cans, $1.45 to $1.55.

EGGS—The high prices of eggs has checked consumption and the demand for the past days has been light. Prices show an easier tendency and present rates cannot be depended upon. Sales of Eastern extras at 33 to 34c, and Southern at 32 to 33c. Limes steady at 22 to 24c per dozen.

CURRENT NOTES.

A three-year-old son of Frank Steeves, of Moncton, fell into a tub of hot water on Thursday afternoon, and was badly scalded about the hips and abdomen. It is feared he will die.

A woman in Merced County, Cal., buried $2,500 in gold in the cellar for safe keeping. Her seven-year-old boy discovered the hoard, however, and had distributed $700 of it among his playmates before he was found out.

The poets that sing of the beautiful snow Have heads that are made of unbleached dough. Had they shoveled their walks a couple of times They'd never have written their slushy rhymes.

Bishop Sweeney, of St. John, N. B., had his left shoulder dislocated and his body severely bruised a few days ago, by being thrown from a carriage near the Sussex depot. The horse took fright at an engine and ran away.

Alexander Johnstone, the oldest Free Mason in England, died suddenly at Langholm, Dumfriesshire, on Dec. 1. He was ninety-five years of age, and had been a member of the ancient craft for more than seventy-one years.

A lonely Skating Rink met a Toboggan Slide the other day. "How are you feeling?" asked the Rink in doleful tones. "I am H-n-ky," replied the Slide. "I am in fast company and Making Barrels of Money." "Come and see me in about Two Years. From now," said the Rink, "and we will Gondole together. I have Been There myself."

Rev. Antoine, Ouellet, Shediac, was recently waited on by a number of parishioners and presented with a purse containing $45 in gold. Last week the members of the Society of the Children of Mary, Fredericton, presented Rev. J. C. McDevitt with an address and a handsome set of otter furs.

Almost any evening in Springfield, Mass., says the Union of that town, if you have a chance to look, you can see happy young couples practising toboggan attitudes in the parlor. There is one position in which the steerer gets his chin on his passenger's shoulder, which requires a good deal of practice, but is awful nice when you get it.

A St. Petersburg despatch says the budget for the past year shows a deficit of $5,222,662. The minister of finance attributes the continued commercial crisis to the unavoidable reduction of public and private incomes resulting from depression. He considers it inexpedient to increase the present taxes or to levy new ones, as there are resources available sufficient to cover the deficit.

The unfortunate fate of Lord Idlesleigh has excited sympathy everywhere. Newspapers extol him, and some of them make very uncomplimentary comments on the treatment the dead man received at the hands of the Prime Minister. In this respect, the St. James Gazette says: "It cannot be said Lord Idlesleigh was murdered. It is no crime to be a young man in a hurry and it is no crime to push a man from the stool on which you believe you would make a better figure. Perhaps some of his assailants will now feel remorse, and especially those to whom he was a joke, not one of whom was worthy to unloose his shoes."

The alarming signs of the times in Europe are attracting the attention of military and commercial men the world over. Six of the seven European powers are rapidly arming. The German minister of war wants 41,000 more men at once. The Austrian government ask for three millions of improved rifles. Russia is concentrating her masses of cavalry on the south-western frontier, and the French army are burning with a strong desire to wrest Alsace and Lorraine from the grasp of their conquerors of 1870. These four nations alone have 5,900,000 men ready for the field. Austria has an army ready of 1,200,000 men, Germany one of 1,400,000, France one of 1,500,000, and Russia one of over 1,000,000. The German government, fearful of the internal political dissensions among the states of its own confederacy, is dismayed at the prospect of a French invasion in the near future. Russia only awaits a favorable opportunity to defy Austria. General Boulanger and his 40,000 well-disciplined French officers thirst for a renown that can only be gained by the restoration of the lost provinces. England is making active preparations that she may be ready to act when action may become inevitable. Turkey and Italy have immense armies, and of their support England is assured. The times seem out of joint, and complications may arise on any day that will whelm Europe in one of the most disastrous wars that this planet has ever witnessed.
