

Buyer meets seller with Guardian Want Ads. Dial 8506 ask for classified ad rates, for quick results.

Published as Second Class Mail by The Post Office at Charlottetown, P.E.I.

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

Charlottetown Canada, Saturday, November 30, 1957

Cloudy; rain ending early this morning; little change in temperature; westerly winds 15. Low-high at Charlton 30-46.

Want End To Special CNR Tax Deal

OTTAWA (CP)—A delegation of Maritime war veterans asked the federal cabinet to abolish special municipal tax arrangements for the CNR in the east-coast provinces.

Is Hopeful Of The Outcome Of Fed.-Provincial Meeting

OTTAWA (CP)—A delegation of Maritime war veterans asked the federal cabinet to abolish special municipal tax arrangements for the CNR in the east-coast provinces.

Watch For Satellite Rocket

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—A worldwide alert is expected Saturday to watch for the death rattle of Russia's rocket satellite. Scientists say it may plunge to earth Sunday.

Fisheries Fed. Asks Closer Check On Lobster Pack

Concerned with the deterioration of the lobster pack, the Prince Edward Island Fisheries Federation meeting here yesterday in annual session passed a resolution asking the Federal Fisheries Department to check more closely on quality and on officials who control quality.

Eisenhower In Gettysburg For A Rest

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The commander-in-chief from a minor stroke broke once more Friday to rest at the Gettysburg Hotel.

Issues Statement On Safe Driving

The following statement in connection with National Safe Driving Week has been issued by Hon. A. W. Matheson, Attorney General for the Province.

Yanks Up Tariff On Beef Cattle

OTTAWA (CP)—The flow of Canadian beef cattle to the United States, roughly 100 times greater than last year, will be stemmed by a frost in U.S. beef cattle prices.

Churchill To Spend 83rd Birthday With His Family

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill, who turned 83 on his 83rd birthday today, will give himself a party on his 83rd birthday today.

First Snow Storm N.B. North Shore

BATHURST (CP)—A storm which brought the "first real snow" in the province today night caused traffic trouble and interfering with a hockey fixture.

New Zealanders Voting Today

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (Reuters)—The national party will power tonight years in a fourth consecutive term in today's New Zealand election.

Galadriels Conference Notes

PARIS (AP)—The government of Premier Felix Gaillard Friday in the National Assembly on plans for a Galadriels conference.

U.S. Air Command Is Put In Charge Of Missile Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Thomas D. White, air force chief of staff, announced several shifts in command Friday as part of a new U.S. missile command.

Federal Members Peased With Conference Results

Health Macquarrie, M. P. and John A. Macdonald, M. P. arrived from Ottawa last evening on what they termed, "a short visit to become acquainted first hand with the needs of their constituents."

Historic Photo

Diefenbaker has been photographed with provincial premiers. From left to right are: Premiers Stanfield, Nova Scotia; Frost, Ontario; M. Diefenbaker, Ontario; Diefenbaker, Quebec; and Man/Robt. Bennett, British Columbia.

Observance of Polarization

In each case, there would be a certain amount of polarization caused by electrons—tiny particles—between the radar and the object. By observing the polarization, it is possible to calculate the distance of the object and the direction of the wind.

Expert On Past Dies

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Dr. Robert Guy Crawford, 71, archaeologist and pioneer in the adaptation of aerial photography to archaeological field studies, died at his home here Friday.

British Scientists Will Use U.S. 'Moon' To Study Space

LONDON (AP)—British scientists hope to use the American satellite, Explorer 1, to study the moon. This would be the first time that British scientists would be studying the moon from space.

Production Decision

The shells found a defence department spokesman said today that the shells were not from the American missile.

Production Decision

The shells found a defence department spokesman said today that the shells were not from the American missile.

Production Decision

The shells found a defence department spokesman said today that the shells were not from the American missile.