1953 BUICK
Four door sedan. Dark Blue in color. Standard transmission. Has had motor overhaul. We've had them better but not at this price. $550.

1955 METEOR STATION WAGON
This two door beauty is all ready to go. It's automatic transmission provides ease of handling second to none. Interior clean and sporting beautiful seat covers. Better take a second look at this price tag. $1059.

1953 CHEV. SEDAN DELIVERY
Here is an exceptionally fine performing truck. Engine smooth as silk, tires better than new. Has scratch or two on body but nothing serious. Rides like a Buick, performs like a Cadillac. $475.

1954 BUICK
Four door sedan. Standard transmission, seat covers. Here's your chance to be different, get a "big" car instead of a "small" one. You'll brag of its power, smoothness, and all round performance to your neighbors. $1189.

1957 G. M. C.
1/2-ton pick up. This has the "long box" suitable for the cattle buyer and farmer. You won't have to double your cattle to make them fit in this one. Drive them to the Packing House in comfort and at very little expense. $1325.

1957 PLYMOUTH
Two door sedan. Now here is where you show your ability to recognize a distinct bargain. Look at the car, look at the price. Drive it to check its performance. Don't believe everything you hear about this model—except the price— $1575.

1957 METEOR
4 door V8 Sedan with radio. Can't say much about this except customer wanted beautiful '59 Pontiac styling so he traded. Absolutely in top condition. The only thing that's faded is the price. $1615.
