

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, June 13, 1866.

JOHN INGS, QUEEN'S PRINTER.

VOL. VIII.—No. 372

LAWS OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

CAP. XI.

An Act to amend the Act intituled "An Act for establishing a Court of Divorce in this Island, and for repealing a certain Act therein mentioned."

[Passed May 11, 1866.]

WHEREAS the Act of the General Assembly of the said Island, passed in the Fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for establishing a Court of Divorce in this Island, and for repealing a certain Act therein mentioned," contains no provision compelling the Sheriffs of the several Counties to serve any citations, writs, or orders, or to execute any process of contempt, in case they should decline or refuse, when ordered or directed by the said Court so to do;

And whereas, it is expedient that the Sheriffs of the several Counties should execute the process of the said Court, when required so to do:

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall be the duty of the Sheriffs, in the several Counties, to serve any citations, writs, orders, or decrees, and to execute any process of contempt, or any other process of the said Court, within their respective Counties, that may be sent to them for that purpose.

II. All Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Jailors, Constables, and other Officers shall be aiding, assisting, and obeying the said Court, in the exercise of its Jurisdiction, whenever required so to do.

III. The Common Jail of the County of Queen's shall be the prison of the said Court. Provided always, that, in case it shall be expedient, and it shall seem to the said Court that the ends of justice require it, any prisoner of the Court may be committed to the Common Jail of any County within which he may reside, in case the Court or the Lieutenant Governor shall so order or direct.

CAP. XII.

An Act to amend the Act to amend the Law of Real Property.

[Passed May 11, 1866.]

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to amend the Act passed in the Twenty-eighth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria,

Chapter Fourteen, intituled "An Act to amend the Law of Real Property," by giving the first Section thereof a retrospective effect:

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, That all corporeal tenements and hereditaments, shall, as regards the conveyance of the immediate freehold thereof, before the passing of the said recited Act be deemed to have lien in grant, as well as in livery.

II. This Act shall be taken to be, and shall be read as part of the said recited Act, except, and in so far as the same may relate to any suit now pending in any Court of Law or Equity within this Island.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to continue the Act to prevent the running at large of Hogs within the Town, Common, and Royalty of Charlottetown, in so far as relates to the said Royalty.

[Passed May 11, 1866.]

WHEREAS the Act hereinafter mentioned will shortly expire, and it is deemed expedient to continue the same:

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Act made and passed in the Tenth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent the running at large of Hogs within the Town, Common, and Royalty of Charlottetown," in so far as the same relates to the Royalty of Charlottetown, shall be, and the same is hereby continued, for the period of Ten years, from the passing hereof, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the General Assembly of this Island, and no longer.

CAP. XIV.

An Act to authorize the Commissioner of Highways for District Number Four, in Queen's County, to place a Gate at the Northern extremity of certain Roads therein mentioned.

[Passed May 11, 1866.]

WHEREAS it is deemed advisable, in order to prevent, as far as practicable, the shifting inland of the Sand Hills on the Northern portion of Township No. Thirty-three, and the destruction thereby of valuable property, to protect the same
