OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

Charlottetown lost a well known and highly esteemed citizen in the death, on Wednesday evening, June 28, of Mr. Roy L. McClure, manager of the New Method Cleaners.

SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY—In the County Court Judge's Criminal Court of Queen's County Saturday, Wilfred Bradley and Michael Drain, previously found guilty of the theft of a cash register and contents of a value exceeding $25.00 appeared before Judge C. G. Duffy for sentence. They were each sentenced to two years in Dorchester Penitentiary. Drain, previously sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary will serve his present sentence at the expiration of the three year term, it was announced.

ON MOTOR TRIP—Mrs. Wallace T. Perham, Glendine, Montana, Mrs. Ella Griffiths, San Jose, California, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. MacKenzie, Salt Lake City, Utah, Miss Elizabeth Yndogliata, Glendine, Montana, Miss Laura A. Smith, Moncton, N. B., and Jack MacKenzie of Miles City, Montana are visiting the Island at present having arrived here by motor cars. Mrs. Perham and Mr. MacKenzie are grandchildren of John MacPhee, a native of the Island, Jack is their nephew, while Miss Smith is Mrs. MacKenzie's aunt.

Prince Edward Islanders celebrated Dominion Day under cloudy skies which in the afternoon opened to deluge the Province with rain. City and town dwellers planning outings looked with rather gloomy countenances at the weather but farmers were delighted as they saw their growing crops drink down the welcome moisture.

At Alberton a horse racing meet was rained out. That was the only general event planned for the day.

At Summerside the Yacht Club's annual regatta was postponed until Sunday when a curtailed program was carried out.

Trout fishermen fared very well, according to reports reaching Charlottetown last night. No extraordinary fish as regards size were reported but "good luck" was the general reply to questions.

Police reported "no serious accidents" over the holiday weekend.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — On Thursday evening, June 22nd, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erle Coles was the scene of a prettily arranged shower tendered to Miss Beth Coles a June bride. The living room was decorated with pink and white streamers, white bells, potted plants, and ferns. To the strains of Lohengain's wedding march played by Miss Verna Rodd the bride-to-be was escorted by Miss Margaret Coles to a decorated chair and little Miss Maxie Coles presented her with a beautiful bouquet. The gifts from the well filled basket were opened by Miss Margaret Coles and Miss Elia McLaine and presented to the bride-to-be while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Elsie Hooper. The gifts were tastefully arranged by Miss Verna Rodd. The bride, in a few words, thanked her friends and invited them to visit her in her new home after which "For She's A Joly Good Fellow" was sung. Lunch was then served and the remainder of the evening spent in social intercourse.

The annual meeting of the Little Theatre Guild held in the "Charlottetown" on Thursday evening, June 29th marked the closing of a very successful fourth year for this society. Reports from the various officers and committees revealed most satisfactory progress in all departments.

Financially, the Guild is ahead by $300 compared with last year, in spite of the fact, that much greater expenditure had been made necessary, to send winning play of the Regional Festival, "It's Autumn Now" to compete in the Dominion Drama Festival in London, Ontario.

Officers and Executive, elected for the coming year, are as follows:

President: J. A. Lawson.
Vice-Pres.: A. L. Wright.
Secretary: Miss Davida Baker.
Treasurer: A. Belcher.
Executive: Mrs. H. K. S. Hemming, I. Y. Reddin, Mrs. Benj. Rogers, Jr., R. W. Beckett, Mrs. Fred Nash, R. Burleigh Taylor, Miss Mary Moran, C. F. Bentley, Miss Bernadette Gaudet, J. A. Haslam, Miss Margaret Jenkins, Arthur Farquharson, Miss Margaret Sterns.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Samuel Carruthers of Carleton at 1.30 P.M. on Thursday, June 29th when her only daughter Ruth became the wife of Arnold Henderson of Bedeque. The ceremony was performed under an arch of exquisite pink and white cut flowers, the young couple being unattended. Rev. Ralph Barker of Bedeque United Church was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother Robert, was charming in her wedding gown of Queen's blue Sheer. She wore a white hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and maidenhair fern. The bridal party entered the living-room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Ferguson of Marshfield. During the signing of the register Miss Ferguson sang very effectively I Love You Truly. A dainty buffet luncheon was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left by motor for a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. The bride wore a tailored suit of Moorland brown with accessories in rust, and a handsome fox fur. On their return the happy couple will reside in Bedeque where the groom is a progressive and prosperous farmer. Both young people are prominent in church and social circles and are extremely popular. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing them a happy married life. Among the guests present at the wedding were the following: Mr. and Mrs. James F. Henderson, Mrs. L. W. Trueman, Rev. Ralph Barker and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Alexander Cousins and Miss Ruby Cousins, Miss Mary Ferguson, Mrs. J. C. Gillespie, Miss Penzie Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Huestis, and Mr Allison Lea. D

PURCHASES FARM—Mr. Emmet Parish, Milton, has purchased Mr. Russel's farm at Covehead Road.

PASSES FOR OPERATOR—Word has been received that Charles W. Batt of Charlottetown has passed his examinations for Commercial Marconi Operator, taken at Halifax last month.

DOING POST GRADUATE WORK—Dr. Harold Hughes who has been holidaying at his home in Norboro left on Wednesday morning for St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal, where he will do post-graduate work. Dr. Hughes visited the City last week. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Macdonald, Fitzroy St.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVES — The Canadian National Steamship Colborne arrived in port here yesterday afternoon with passengers and cargo on board. Part of the freight included 250 puncheons of molasses which will be unloaded here. Some of it is consigned to Summerside and will be shipped there by motor truck. Unloading began shortly after the ship docked and continued until 11 P. M.

FIREMEN ANSWER CALLS—Charlottetown firemen answered two calls over the holiday weekend. First was at 10:00 Friday night for a fire in some refuse on the edge of the railway fill, near the McColl-Frontenac Oil Company property at the City approach to Hillsboro Bridge. A line of hose was laid. The blaze, which caused no damage was believed to have been set in the rubbish by children. Saturday morning at 11 o'clock a roof blaze at the residence of Frank Hopkins, corner of Grafton and Edward Streets gave firemen another run. The fire had made slight headway and a small hose from one of the house taps was used to combat it. There was slight damage.

—SURPRISE PARTY—A number of Summerside friends motored out to Wilmot on Thursday evening to tender a surprise party to Mrs. John Silliker, who celebrated her 85th birthday on Wednesday. Mrs. Silliker was taken completely by surprise, but welcomed her guests in her usual gracious manner. A very pleasant evening was spent, Mr. Alexander McClumpha delighted the company with some old Scotch songs; Mr. Donald Baker gave a humorous reading and Mrs. Whalen gave several charming selections on the piano. Mrs. Silliker was the recipient of many lovely gifts, including a substantial cheque from her son. Harold Silliker in Hollywood. After a sumptuous lunch the guests left, wishing their hostess many happy returns of the day.—S.

McNEILL - BECKER WEDDING—An interesting wedding took place on Saturday, June 24th, when Miss Florence McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill of Cardigan, was married to Mr. Melvin S. Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Becker of Ayr, Ontario. The ceremony was performed by the bride's minister, Rev. T. Owen Hughes, B.A., at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Cardigan. The Ladies Aid Society and the young ladies had tastefully decorated the church with flowers and ferns for the occasion. The bride was given away by her father and was attended by Miss Evelyn MacEachern, while Mr. Linwood McNeill acted as best man. Mr. Sterling McLeod officiated at the organ and the solo "Because" was sung by Mrs. W. Agnew. Messrs. Elwyn Hughes and Clifford Hughes acted as ushers. The church was filled with interested friends from far and near who had come to wish happiness to the young couple. The bride is a Deaconess of the Presbyterian Church and had gained innumerable friends in the fields of her labours in New Brunswick, and the large number of gifts from New Brunswick as well as from the community around Cardigan testify to the bride's popularity. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the bride's home, where also a reception was held, after which the young couple, showered with confetti and good wishes, left to spend a few days at Cavendish and then returning to Cardigan to complete their honeymoon, will motor to Ayr, Ontario, where they will make their home. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Heath Bowness, Kensington was the scene of an enjoyable evening when the many girl friends of Mrs. James MacDougall nee (Isabelle MacLean) tendered her a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening, June 28th. On the arrival of the many guests they were received at the door by Miss Marie Millman, and escorted to the cloak room by Miss Kathleen Ready, Miss Marguerite Higgins then showing them to their seats. When all was in readiness Mrs. MacDougall was sedately escorted to the beautifully decorated room and seat of honour, both being charmingly decorated in pink and white, by Miss Mildred Bishop. The large carriage overflowing with the many beautiful gifts was then brought into the room by Miss Joan Wedlock and Master James McNeill, who in a very realistic way represented a bride and groom. Mrs. Gordon Cooke assisted by Miss Edna Champion then opened the presents, and as Miss Mildred Bishop presented the presents to the happy bride Mrs. Ivan Darrach read the accompanying verses, Miss Mary Power then arranging them on the table. At the conclusion of the presentations the large gathering then all joined hands and sang "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow," after which the happy gathering was entertained by solos from Mrs. P. J. Kennedy and Master James McNeill, music by Mrs. Dr. R. D. McNeill and Miss Nora Taylor, until a dainty lunch was served and enjoyably partaken of by all, they then all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," in this way thanking their host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Bowness for their support and assistance in making the event so successful. The jolly crowd then noisily and happily marched to the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William MacLean, where the happy couple are for the time being residing and after cheering the happy newlyweds entered and bounced them thoroughly, ending an evening of joy that all would for ever remember.

TUESDAY

VISITED FAIR.—Mrs. Samuel A. Ross (nee Florrie Darrach) native of Clyde River, P. E. I., recently visited relatives and the Exposition in San Francisco, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Bain, who went back to their home in Boston by way of Vancouver, Banff and Winnipeg.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Easton was held Saturday afternoon from the residence of Robert Edwards, Hampshire. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. MacQuarrie, and Rev. Mr. Phillips. Pall bearers were Messrs. Bertram Younker, Stafford Vickerson, William Green Joseph Purcell. Interment was in Milton Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Phillips officiating at the grave.

HOUSE - WARMING—A very pleasant shower was tendered Mrs. Keys at the home of Mrs. W. H. Poole, Montague, on Tuesday evening, Mr. Keys in on the R. C. M. P. force in Montague. The young couple are starting house keeping after spending the winter at the MacDonald Hotel, so the Montague friends planned this little surprise for Mrs. Keys who received quite an array of dainty and useful articles for her new home.—L.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. L. G. Hunt of Miami, Arizona, were shocked to learn of her very sudden death on June 22nd, 1939. The late Mrs. Hunt, nee Frances Covey Howatt, was born in Tryon, P. E. Island in July, 1891. In her early girlhood she went to Arizona principally for her health, and there she eventually made her home.

Of her family there are left to mourn her husband, Mr. L. G. Hunt, one son, Hollis, two daughters, Helen Hunt and Dot, Mrs. Doran Lee of Alhambra, California, with whom she was recently visiting. Also a sister, Viola, Mrs. E. E. Hiller, and a brother, Fred Howatt.

COM. L. L. MacINTYRE DEAD—In the Boston Post of June 28th appeared the notice of the death of L. L. MacIntyre of New York, but formerly of Boston. No particulars have been received. At present it would appear as if Mr. MacIntyre mentioned, was Commodore L. L. MacIntyre a native of Charlottetown who was formerly on the composing room staff of the Patriot but who has been for many years a resident of the United States, being a New York college physical director for thirty-five years, and a member of the U. S. V. Life Saving Corps—in which he rose to the rank of Commodore. He visited Prince Edward Island last fall.

VISITING BROTHER — Rev. Daniel F. White of Princeton, British Columbia, was a visitor to California last month, coming to see his brother, the Rev. Brother Andrew, who had been ill for several weeks in St. Mary's Hospital, San Francisco, and other relatives around the bay. Father White is a native Prince Edward Islander, says the Oakland Maple Leaf, who came to the Far Canadian West to carry on the work of his sacred calling. Among the places of interest he visited, accompanied by Brother Andrew, was St. Mary's College in the beautiful Moraga Valley.

FUNERAL AT BELLE RIVER. — Funeral of Miss Grace A. MacKenzie, 56, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Finlay MacDougall, Belle River, to Wood Islands Cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, Rev. Wallace Wadland and Rev. Blair MacPhail. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Alan D. Stewart, Simon Stewart, D. J. Riley, Charles MacWilliams, Donald Campbell and Alexander D. Stewart. Miss MacDougall, a native of this Province was for years a nurse in the United States. She died in the Prince Edward Island Hospital here last Friday.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING — At 9 A. M. July 1st, with only immediate relatives present, the marriage took place very quietly at her mother's home, of Miss Evelyn Patricia, daughter of Mrs. Simmons and the late George L. Simmons, Spring Park Road, to Robert Donald, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Matheson, Clyde River, the Rev. H. L. Denton officiating. The wedding music was played by Miss Florence Simmons. The bride who was unattended was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. L. H. Simmons. She wore a gown of ivory satin with finger tip veil and carried a sheaf of Briarcliff roses. The living-room, where the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated with late spring flowers. Following a dainty wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Matheson left on a motor trip to the White Mountains and other points of interest in the New England States.

a large number of friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald K. MacGregor of Summerfield gathered at their home to tender them farewell before their impending departure for Lot 16, where they will go in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor, during their sojourn in our community have endeared themselves to all by their kind hospitality and splendid co-operation with all the different organizations in the district, and especially the United Church at Summerfield and the Springfield Women's Institute. Mr. Ernest Haslam capably performed the duties of chairman for the evening and called upon Mr. Allison Mayne, who read an address expressing the sentiments of all present, and Miss Janet Sinclair presented a purse. Mr. MacGregor thanked the donors on behalf of Mrs. MacGregor and himself, and all joined in the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Mr. Haslam then called on Mr. D. N. McKay, Mr. George Mayne, Mr. Linus MacDonald, Mr. Harry Ford and Mrs. Everett Haslam, all of whom uttered expressions of regret at the departure from among us of these very good neighbors who spared no effort to advance the welfare of the district and who truly earned the name of good citizens. During the evening a musical program was enjoyed by all. Lunch was served by the ladies. R

The annual picnic of the Ayrshire Breeders Club of P. E. Island was held at the Dominion Experimental Station here on Friday afternoon. Speakers included Frank Napier, Ottawa secretary of the Canadian Ayrshire Breeders Association, Dr. L. A. Donovan, of Saint John, vice-president of the same association, Hon. W. H. Dennis, Dr. J. A. Clark and Earl Ings president of the P. E. Island Ayrshir Breeders' Club, who presided.

A Supreme Court jury disagreed six-six yesterday when they sat in judgment for more than three hours on the case of Douglas Aretas Smith, charged with causing bodily harm by operation of a motor vehicle. The jury was discharged by Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault presiding judge. The case arose out of an accident on harbor ice last winter in which Bertha LeClair, 15-year-old Charlottetown girl was seriously injured. Evidence was heard last week and the case summed up for the defence, the Crown and by the Presiding judge when the Court resumed yesterday morning.

OLD FERRY WILL OPERATE—The S. S. Prince Edward Island would operate on the Borden-Cape Tormentine run as second ferry across Northumberland Strait during Confederation Week, July 16-22, it was learned last night. The old car ferry which arrived from dry dock in Halifax over the weekend after being overhauled will work in conjunction with the S. S. Charlottetown, vessel used regularly for the nine-mile crossing during the week when traffic is expected to reach a new high. The Prince Edward Island is to have her machinery overhauled at Bruce Stewart & Co., here.

Heredity is a subject about which comparatively little is known by the layman, yet it is of far-reaching importance in human affairs, as well as in the study of plant and animal life. The demand for a comprehensive, popular work on heredity has long been felt by educationists, and has now been met by a book which is to be published in September, entitled "You and Heredity". The author is Mr. Amram Scheinfeld, of New York, a brother-in-law of Dr. Leo Frank, of Rosebank, this Province, who is at present visiting Dr. and Mrs. Frank and renewing former acquaintances on the Island.

WEDDING AT NORTH RIVER—A quiet ceremony, but one of interest to a large circle of friends, was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage, North River, Saturday evening, June 24th, when Hilda Etta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector McNevin, Saint Catherines, was united in marriage with Neil Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McPhee, New Dominion, Rev. J. M. Blesedell officiating. The bride was most attractive in a dress of blue crepe, worn with beige coat and white accessories. Miss Annie McNevin, sister of the bride, and Mr. Arnold MacDonald attended the bridal couple. Following the ceremony, the party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held. Many relatives and friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McPhee a hapy and prosperous future.

WEDNESDAY

Rev. Canon Andrew and Mrs. Andrew, who have been visiting Major and Mrs. F. F. May of St. Eleanors left on Monday on their return to Pictou, N. S. S

There passed away at Hunter River on the morning of June 12th Janie Darke, beloved wife of W. G. Darke. She had been ill only a few days of pleurisy. She was the only child of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Essery of Loyalist Road, Milton, born on February 7th, 1872. She was married to W. G. Darke on March 27th, 1902, by the Rev. Mr. Parkins of the Methodist Church, Winsloe. She became a member of the Prince Town Road Methodist Church when very young and continued a member to the end, always eager to advance the work for the promotion of God's kingdom, being organist for many years before and after her marriage.

THIEVES STEAL LEAD—Charlottetown thieves have turned their attention to churches, it was learned last night. Yesterday afternoon City Police placed two men under arrest when they were found carrying a sack filled with lead which police believe came from the roof of St. Paul's Church. High prices for certain types of scrap metal has made theft of it profitable, it was said. Some time during Monday night George Vickerson's grocery store on Upper Hillsboro Street was forcibly entered and a quantity of cigarettes, soap, tea and other goods stolen. So far as can be learned no cash was taken. The goods were later found by City Police cached in a vacant house on Cumberland St., but no arrests have yet been made in connection with the break. Entrance to the store was effected by prying the bars off a rear window. The Polyclinic, Prince Street, was also visited Monday night and a small amount of cash stolen. Entrance here was effected in a similar manner as that effected in a recent break in the same building, through a rear window.

Nine witnesses gave evidence yesterday as the case, the King vs. Arthur Amand Gallant, charged with receiving stolen securities continued in Supreme Court. All witnesses yesterday were called by the Crown and were examined by Attorney General Thane A. Campbell and Assistant Crown Prosecutor Frederic A. Large. Mr. J. J. Johnston, counsel for the accused conducted cross examination. Chief Justice J. A. Mathieson is presiding judge.

Giving evidence yesterday were D. J. Riley, Charlottetown wholesale tobacco dealer from whose safe bonds, certificates, jewellery and cash were taken on the night of December 20th last, Miss Marjorie LeClair, Charlottetown stenographer, Stanley Pursey, North Rustico fisherman, Benjamin Binns, Charlottetown, Dr. B. C. Keeping, deputy minister of health, Constable L. A. McInnis of the City Police Force, John S. Waugh, and Ruby Harper, Telephone Company employees, and Sub-Inspector Norman James Anderson of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Inspector Anderson was on the stand when court adjourned to re-assemble at 10:30 this morning.

On Tuesday, June 13th, at 1 a.m. James A. Wright of Cape Traverse passed peacefully away after a two month's illness, which he bore with unfailing patience and trust.

There passed away on Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Irving Hogg, Wilmot, Mrs. Bessie MacEachern at 75 years of age. Mrs. MacEachern had not been well for some time, but her death came as a shock to her family and friends.

Rev. John MacKinnon of Chesley, Ontario, is this month celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the Christian ministry. Due recognition of this fact was made in the recent meeting of the United Church Presbytery of Bruce in Port Elgin, by congratulations and felicitations, and also by a tangible evidence of goodwill in the gift of a beautiful piece of silver to Mr. MacKinnon and a bouquet of roses to Mrs. MacKinnon.

FUNERAL AT SUMMERSIDE—The funeral of the late John McCarville, was held Tuesday morning from his late residence at Freetown to St. James Church, Summerfield. A large number were present to pay last respects and showed high esteem in which the deceased was held. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Phalen McKenna with service at the grave being conducted by Rev. Fr. Frank McQuaid. Pallbearers, all life-long friends and neighbors were: Messrs. Austin Scales, John Campbell, Colin Campbell, Patrick Cash, Barnaby Croken, Wilbert McCarville.

Seldom is a community so shocked and saddened as was Crapaud and the surrounding districts when it was learned that Mr. David Sherren had passed away at the P.E.I. Hospital on Sunday, June 4th at the age of 71 years. He had not been feeling well for some time but had been able to be up and around a few days previous to his death. He entered the hospital for treatment and had an apparently successful operation and seemed to be doing well, but an unforeseen complication developed and in spite of the best medical attendance and nursing he entered his Eternal rest on the above mentioned date.

On Monday evening, June 26th the home of Mrs. Samuel Carruthers at Carleton was pleasantly crowded with friends and relatives gathered from far and near to shower her daughter Ruth with gifts and best wishes on the eve of her approaching marriage. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Mrs. Helen Bell, while Miss Mildred Muttart escorted the bride-to-be to a seat under a lovely arch of pink and white honeysuckles, centred by a white marriage bell. Rose-colored streamers diverging from the arch added to the attractive appearance of the room.

Word was received on Saturday, June 24th, that Mr. Roy Hunter one of our local young men who had been located in Brantford, Ont., for sometime suffered a painful accident on Friday, when, while at work at the Brantford Oven and Rack Co., the fingers of his right hand became caught beneath the weight of a ten ton press, completely severing the tips of all four fingers. He was immediately rushed to the Brantford General Hospital, where he was skillfully attended to by Dr. J. E. Carson and is now resting comfortably. His mother, Mrs. Ella M. Hunter left immediately to be with him during his convalescence.

—VISITING AT CENTRAL BEDEQUE—Mr. W. E. Leard, his daughter, Mrs. William Lobb and grandson, Harley Lobb are visiting Mr. Leard's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Webster at Central Bedeque. Mr. Leard has renewed many old acquaintances after 26 years of absence from the Island. Many places of interest have been visited including the National Park. They will leave on Friday morning for their home at Beaty, Sask., Miss P. M. Ayers, who is visiting her brother, Rev. George Ayers, of Summerside, will accompany them to Saskatoon. They also have been guests while on the Island of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Hardy, Union Road, Dr. J. H. Ayers and Mrs. Ayers, Charlottetown, and Mrs. W. B. Leard and sons of Souris East.

The hall here was filled to its utmost capacity on Friday evening, when the A. Y. P. A. of St. Mark's Church, Kensington, presented their three act play "Three Days of Grace." The first act was a pretty scenery in the living room of J. Osgood Brooke's summer cottage, about 11 o'clock of a June morning. Act II. The same as Act I. The second day at three o'clock in the P. M. Act III. The same as previous acts at 10 A. M. The month of June. The following are the cast of characters, Constance Brooke, The elder Brooke's sister, Mrs. Reagh Sudsbury; Newt Hawson, the general handyman, Reagh Sudsbury; Liz Yeater the cook, Miss Marion Lockhart; Barbara Brooke, the younger sister, Miss Wanda Mill; Mrs. Annabel Brooke, Connie and Bob's mother, Mrs. Ernest T. Mr. Berrie was born at Montague, P. E. I.

TANDEM BICYCLE BUILT—A bicycle "built for two" has made its appearance in Charlottetown. The machine attracted considerable attention as it was driven about the city by two young men last night. The vehicle was manufactured locally, from parts of two standard "bikes". The forward hand of the composite machine is the frame of a girls bicycle while the rear part is the frame of a man's wheel. It was built by the Chandler Bicycle Shop on Sydney Street east.

LEGION TO MEET AT S'SIDE—Annual convention of the Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, B. E. S. L. would be held at Summerside on July 27, it was announced last night following a meeting of the executive here. Major Milton Gregg, V. C., M. C., representing the Dominion Government would be present and an invitation had been extended to Major Power, M. C., Minister of Pensions, Ottawa, to attend, it was announced. Further details would be made public later, the executive said.

Crops in the Province, with the exception of hay, were making satisfactory growth, Dr. J. A. Clark, superintendent of the Charlottetown Experimental Station declared last night when he returned from west Prince County Illustration Station field days. Even hay had picked up considerably and was looking better than it was ten days ago, Dr. Clark said. The crop would be light, however. Prospects of a small fruit crop appeared good while the set of larger fruits gave promise of a possible 'bumper crop". Potato plants had made a good start.

—DIED IN CH'TOWN—Miss Carrie Grady received word of the death on Wednesday in the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown, following an operation, of her nephew, Frank Grady Mr. Grady was 58 years of age and was the son of the late John Grady of Summerside. He leaves to mourn one brother, Dr. Kingsley Grady, and one sister, Mrs. Walter James, both of Vancouver, B. C. The remains were brought up from Charlottetown and are resting at Percy Bowness Undertaking Parlors until noon on Friday when they will be taken to St. Mary's Church where the funeral will take place at 2 p. m.—S.

—DEATH OF MR. JOHN McCARVILLE—An old and highly respected citizen of Freetown passed away on Saturday last at his home in Freetown, in the person of Mr. John MacCarville, at 74 years of age. Mr. McCarville was the son of Frank McCarville, one of the pioneers of the district who came out from Ireland and made a home for himself at Freetown. Mr. McCarville was the last of the sons of the pioneers but two sisters are left to mourn, Mrs. Joseph Murphy, Summerside, and Mrs. E. Morgan of Charlottetown. Mr. McCarville also leaves a large family to mourn to a kind and affectionate father. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning from St. James Church, Summerfield, and was attended by friends from all parts of the province.—S.

—DEATH OF MR. CHARLES DYMENT — There passed away on Thursday, June 29th at his home in Bethel, Mr. Charles Dyment at 78 years of age. Mr. Dyment was a most highly respected citizen in the community and his passing left a gap in the life of the citizens of Bethel which it will be hard to fill. He leaves to mourn his widow, and two daughters, Mrs. Edward MacWilliams of West Cape and Mrs. John Buchanan of Malden, Mass. (His son, Walter, died in Germany, a prisoner of war.) One brother Levi Dyment of Tyne Valley survives. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from his late residence. Rev. M. D. MacLeod of Bethel United Church officiated, assisted by Rev. James G.
