Local and Other Items.

TO-MORROW NIGHT.—The moonlight excursion.

YOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL.—This excellent magazine for October at the Diamond Book-store.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.—Saturday last, the 15th inst., was the Jewish Day of Atonement.

RE-OPENED.—The Pioneer reports that St John's Church, St. Eleanors, was re-opened on Sunday, after having been thoroughly repaired.

SERVICE PIPE.—Applications for service pipe will be received at the Water Commissioners' office on and after to-morrow 19th instant.

THE RIFLE.—The annual meeting of the Queen's County Rifle Association will be held at the office of Major Dogherty, this (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock sharp.

THE PROBABILITIES.—The probabilities are that to-morrow night will be fine and moonlight; and that the moonlight excursion will be thoroughly delightful in every respect.

MOONLIGHT.—Poets have sung and novelists written of the beauty of moonlight. The excursion to-morrow evening offers an opportunity of proving the truth of their observations.

MASONIC.—The brethren of Victoria Lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M., will please remember the special meeting to-night, at eight o'clock sharp, for the purpose of conferring the third degree.

THE MARKET.—To-day's market was a fair one. There was a good variety of fruit and vegetables. Mr. Bourke, of Southport, had some magnificent cauliflowers on sale. Prices in another column.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy will send a description of it FREE to any person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal. 4m—m14

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATES' COURT.—This forenoon, William McCarey, drunk, was fined $2 or 8 days; and William Morton (sailor) drunk, was remanded to jail till his ship is ready for sea. The Scott Act cases were adjourned until this day week.

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION NOTES.—Live-stock exhibitors are reminded that Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Pigs and Poultry must be entered on the Secretary's books, on or before Friday, Sept. 28, and no later. See prize list, Page 5, Rule 8. A McNeill, Secy.

FINE APPLES.—We are indebted to A. C. Douglass, Esq., for a basket of splendid apples grown in his orchard. In size and flavor they are equal to any that are imported, and superior to many. What need to import apples when such splendid ones can be produced at home.

"ART THOU WEARY."—Mr. Gladstone has replied to the Welsh gentleman who asked his opinion on the authorship of the well-known hymn, "Art Thou Weary," that Dr. Neale was the translator, and St. Stephen, of Saba, the author. He imagines the hymn to have been composed in the Servian tongue.

THE GOVERNMENT CUTTERS.—The Critic, Capt. McLaren, was in Georgetown on Saturday. The Acadia has been transferred to the Nova Scotia coast, with headquarters at Halifax. She was in Georgetown, on Saturday, getting balance of her coal. Capt. McLaren says that only six American seiners were on his beat, last week, and he had no trouble in keeping his eye on them.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The members of the Artillery Band hold their annual moonlight excursion in the steamer St. Lawrence, to-morrow night. The steamer will leave the wharf at 8 p. m. There will be brass and string bands in attendance. The success of previous excursions under the same auspices may be taken as an indication that the coming one will be first-class in every respect.

NEARLY DROWNED.—A young lad named McPherson, while fishing for smelts on Connolly's wharf, this afternoon, fell into the water. The cries of his companions brought to the scene some men who were working on the wharf, one of whom jumped into the water after the boy, who, owing to his long immersion, was insensible when brought ashore, but under the care of Dr. Conroy he soon recovered.

A CHANGE SUGGESTED.—A gentleman in King's County writes: "Some surprise is felt at the Regatta Committee fixing on Thursday, the 27th inst. as the day for holding the regatta in Charlottetown, that being the date fixed some time ago for the King's County Exhibition. It looks as if the Charlottetown boatmen were afraid of competition from the eastern county. Had they not better change the day yet, so that all could have a fair shake?"

HE SAW A SEA SERPENT.—Capt. Andrews who made the attempt to cross the Atlantic in the dory Dark Secret, says that he abandoned his boat because he had seen a sea serpent. He says that he never drank a drop, and therefore, his story, like that of Mr. Mutch, is true. The Montreal Witness remarks, that since the ancient mariner saw slimy things crawling with legs upon a slimy sea, the imagination of the dazed sailor has turned as naturally to seeing snakes as the delirious brain poisoned by alcohol.

A CLEVER CAPTAIN.—The schooner Jubilee, owned by Capt. Malcolm McDonald, Georgetown, arrived in that port on Saturday, 15th inst, and landed some 100 barrels mackerel. We understand that part of this fare was taken in a very clever way. The fish were schooling round the schooner and the men were fishing with hook and line, when a happy thought struck the master to run his seine. This was done. The fish were kept on top of the water by plenty of bait while the seine was cast around them. When all was ready, the schooner sailed over the back rope and the seine was pursed up, thereby securing some 36 barrels of prime fish. Well done, Capt. Walker.

KING'S COUNTY EXHIBITION.—Preparations for the King's County Exhibition are being actively pushed. The Drill Shed has most of the fitting up finished. The cattle show grounds are also well under way. Great surprise, however, is felt that some effort has not been made by the Commissioner of Public Works to fill up the unsightly hole left in the cattle show grounds, by the removal of the cellar walls of the late Court House. We understand the Government obtained the proceeds of the sale of the stone, and they should see that the dangerous, disgraceful holes where the Court House and its outbuildings stood, are covered up.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

From the Altar to the Tomb.

DELIBERATE SUICIDE.

HALIFAX, Sept. 17.

Young Mary Morrison was married last Tuesday week at Cow Bay, C. B.; to-morrow she will be buried. On coming home from church yesterday she went into the old house, then went home and got the tea. A peculiar noise was heard up stairs and their friends rushed up, when they found her in a pool of blood, and a bloody razor lying beside her. The act was deliberately planned as she got the razor at home. She and her husband were devoted to each other. She has not been talkative since her wedding, and to a friend she said she was afraid her soul would be lost. The coroner's verdict was, "A fit of temporary insanity."

OTTAWA NEWS.

GRIT CORRUPTION.

DIVERSION OF TRADE.

OTTAWA, Sept. 17.

The election in Cardwell will be held on Oct. 3rd.

In the election trial for Ottawa County, in the Quebec Legislature, on Saturday, Dr. Geo. Autry admitted to have hired out 100 men who polled illegal votes for the Grit candidate, as personators of dead and absent voters.

A special cable states that several Glasgow, Liverpool and London firms trading with Canada are preparing to divert future shipments from ports of the United States to Canadian ports. They will cease consignments via United States during the winter.

A meeting of the Cabinet Council was held this afternoon, but no important issues were discussed.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.

In an interview between Hon. Mr. Chapleau and the leaders of the Conservative Party here, it was decided not to bring out a straight party candidate for Montreal East, but that the Conservatives would endorse Mr. Lepine, the labor candidate.

There was a flurry in the tobacco trade to-day, caused by the announcement that Smith, Fischel & Co., cigar manufacturers, were in difficulties and that the senior partner was absent from the city. An informal meeting of creditors was held this afternoon, when the accountant was appointed to examine the books and draw up a statement. The direct liabilities are almost entirely held abroad, and amount to $14,000. The indirect liabilities are in the neighborhood of $50,000.

R. J. Elliot, (Advocate), while walking on the street, this evening, was struck on the head by the hoof of a runaway horse, and sustained injuries, from which he is not likely to recover.

A Murderers' Confession.

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.

Angus Jacobs, the Indian murderer, is on trial in the Court of Queen's Bench. The trial will probably last three days. Detective Trimp's evidence to-day contained the following confession made by the prisoner: "I will tell you the whole thing. I killed her with a stone, striking her on the head. I was with a friend. My wife came in and we had some words. I went home and took a stone and struck her with it."

Manitoba News.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 17.

The Methodist mission board closed its meeting on Friday night. The next meeting will be held at London, Ont., the first Tuesday of October next year.

The agreement between the Northern Pacific Railway Co. and the Manitoba Government will be ratified on Thursday.

Dividing the Profits.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 17.

Charles Pillsbury & Co., the largest milling firm in the world, just finished a division of $40,000 among the employes, in pursuance of the profit-showing plan, adopted four years ago.

The Yellow Fever Scourge.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 17.

The official report to-day shows 52 new cases and seven deaths.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Sept. 18.—10 a. m.

North-east to north-west winds, fair weather, not much change in temperature.

EXHIBITION PROSPECTS IN KING'S.—The Exhibition in King's Co. promises to be unusually interesting this year. A great number of horses will be shown, and the way some of the cattle and sheep are being pushed for all they are worth, warrants the expectation that these classes will be well filled. Although the harvest is late, some early grain has been threshed; and the farmers' evenings are busily occupied with picking out the heaviest grains for the Exhibition. Keen competition is expected in turnips, as some farmers have been carefully tending their plants since last May. The exhibit of potatoes will not likely be so good as last year, for the crop is said to be on the small side. Too much cold, wet weather.

DIED.

At Rustico, on Sept. 6, Lslass Blanchard, son of the late Thomas Blanchard, in the 35th year of his age, leaving a wife and five children to mourn their loss.

Souris Notes.

Fishing for the latter days of the past week was not encouraging, as the weather was blustry and inclement.

About 25 sail of American fishermen left Gloucester for North Bay last week; and some of them arrived at this port to-day and report no mackerel on their shore. Some of these vessels abandoned seining, and are fitting out for bank fishing.

The repairs to the Breakwater, under the supervision of Mr. Cantwell, are progressing rapidly to completion, considering the very disadvantageous inshore wind and stormy weather lately. Mr. Cantwell feels confident that the work, when completed, will stand the test of the giant south-easter.

ALPHA.

Souris, September 17, 1888.

A Suggestion.

SIR,—Permit me, through your columns, to hint to the committee of the moonlight excursion to be held to-morrow night, the advisability of engaging for the occasion the trio of musicians now doing our town. They would prove a strong attraction to the excursion, as their music is delightful, and no doubt they could be got cheaply enough.

Yours,

Sept. 18, 1888. W.
