IN MEMORIAM

HENRY LEWIS CROZIER

There passed peacefully away at his home in Wilmot, on Nov. 28, Henry Lewis Crozier. The late Mr. Crozier was born in Hamilton, P.E.I., on April 17, 1870, and the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crozier.

He was a man devoted to his family. His genial disposition won for him many friends who will long remember him for his gracious hospitality and deeds of friendliness and neighborliness. In his early years, he joined King Edward Masonic Lodge at Malpeque and later transferred to Hiram and Lebanon No. 3, Summerside, of which he was a member in good standing. During his long life, he was engaged in farming, and through thrift and hard work built up a comfortable homestead.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, formerly Janie Simpson, and five sons: Ira, Wilnot; Burnett, on the homestead; Bruce, Baltic; Roland, Rockingham, N.S.; Lloyd, Fairview, N.S.; also five daughters: (Esther) Mrs. M. B. MacMillan, Cambridge, Mass.; (Blanche) Mrs. Roy Simmons, Wilnot; (Marion) Mrs. Horace Huestis, Wilnot; (Georgie) Mrs. Robert Simpson, Kingston, Ont.; (Ella) Mrs. Bruce Murphy, French River. Also a large number of grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

One son died in infancy and one son, Roy, died while serving overseas in World War II. He also leaves one brother, George, at Hamilton, and two sisters, Bessie, Mrs. James Donald, and Jessie, Mrs. Samuel Carruthers, both of Kensington. One brother and three sisters predeceased him.

On Nov. 26, a large number attended the funeral service which was held from his late residence and was conducted by Rev. W. O. Weale, assisted by Rev. Emerson Huestis and Rev. Earl Smith.

The hymn, "Rock of Ages" was sung and a quartet, "Going Down The Valley" was sung by Messrs. J. C. Mountain, Maurice Mill, William Forbes and Ellwood Campbell. Rev. and Mrs. Weale rendered a duet, "There's No Disappointment In Heaven", on which he based a comforting and inspiring message.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Hiram Leonard, Brenton, Waugh, Brecken Simmons, Hartwell Condon, Alban Ledy and Reuben Large. The Masonic service was conducted by W. H. Darrach, P.G.M., under the auspices of Hiram and Lebanon Lodge, and a large number of brethren accompanied the funeral procession to the interment in the People's Cemetery, Summerside.

Hampton And Vicinity

Mrs. Mark Cameron made a return trip to the city on Dec. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. William Potts and son Noel, Angley Shore, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

Mr. Chas. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Villett were weekend business visitors to the City on Friday.

Mrs. J. A. MacKinnon is spending a few days, as a welcome visitor, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Peter Ferguson.

Mrs. Daniel Gass, Appin Road, was a weekend welcome guest at the home of her daughter Mrs. George MacLean.

Mr. James A. Ferguson has returned from Halifax to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Ferguson, Sea View farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Walsh and family, Kingston, paid a brief visit to DeSable and Hampton recently, at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacLean and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MacQuarrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gamble visited the P.E.I. Hospital during the week-end, and returned home with their baby son who had been receiving treatment.

District residents attending the L.O.B.A. concert in Crapaud Hall on Dec. 7, report this concert largely attended and much enjoyed.

Music lovers of this district greatly enjoyed hearing the Canadian pianist, Margaret Ann Ireland, in the P.W.C. auditorium on Dec. 8.

Miss Catherine MacKay, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. MacDougal, and Mr. and Mrs. Affleck, visited relatives and friends, and scenes of beauty and romance on the mainland, on Dec. 8.

To relatives, including those residing in this district, of Mrs. Sarah Jane Yeo, grand old lady of Sherbrooke who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Pickering, on Dec. 6, at the wonderful age of 101, widespread sympathy is extended.

Widespread sympathy is extended to relatives and friends of the late Mr. J. W. Calbeck, well known and widely respected resident of Summerside, who died at his home on Dec. 1 at the age of 87 years. The late Mr. Calbeck is survived by many relatives who resided, in former years, in the nearby district of North Tryon.

The invitation, through the press, by the Canadian Citizenship Council, to a Christmas party to "all new Canadians" at the Canadian Legion Hall, demonstrates the spirit which should bind men and women everywhere together in the common bonds of friendship, and sets an example to nations as well as individuals.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Inman recently returned from an extended and an enjoyable visit among relatives and friends in the State of Florida, where they had the pleasure of contacting many Islanders, some of whom are permanent residents and others who hibernate there each year during the winter months.

Hampton Women's Institute held their December meeting at Crowfield, the hospitable home of the secretary, Mrs. F. A. Merrill. A large number of members were present, and a large quote of business was dispensed with, with the new president, Mrs. J. V. Campbell, in the chair. An interesting contest, introduced by Mrs. Merrill, caused the members some brain exercise. An enjoyable lunch was served by a committee of the W.I., assisted by Helen Merrill and Barbara Dunsford. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Villett.

Included among week-end visitors at Hampton were: Mr. G. R. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacPhail, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shaw,

HELPFUL HUNTERS

SMITHERS, B. C. (OP)—Hunters Eddie Makow and Bill Martin found a cow moose entangled in a broken telephone line. They untangled the wire and the moose moved slowly back into the forest. The hunters were too busy to fire at a bull moose that crossed their path.
