

DISTRICT LABOR COUNCIL MEETS

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown and District Labor Council was held last night at the Basileia Recreation Centre. Left to right are Alex Harold Stafford, Saint John N.B. education director for the Atlantic Region of the Canadian Labor Congress and J. M. McAlduff vice-president of the local council. At last night's meeting, Frank Gauthier was elected council president, succeeding Mr. Mac-Lean. Other executive members are William Shields, vice-president; Lloyd K. White, recording secretary, and Clarence R. Mason, treasurer.

Shaw Annoyed, Was Not Invited

A sod turning ceremony marking the construction for the Prince Edward Island - New Brunswick causeway will take place this afternoon in Bayfield, N.B. It is understood that the sod will be turned by J. Watson MacNaught, minister of mines and technical surveys and also Liberal candidate for Prince.

Premier Walter R. Shaw said yesterday that he had not been invited to attend the ceremony and to the best of his knowledge no one in the P.E.I. government has been invited.

The premier termed this "one of the most extraordinary pieces of impertinence" he has ever heard of.

The premier also thought it was unusual that the ceremony for a project of such importance to P. E. I. would be held in New Brunswick and that no one was invited, "aside from a few political friends."

"If I can get a hold of Philip

Matheson," said Mr. McNinis. "I will invite the minister of public works for New Brunswick. Mr. McNinis said he had been trying all morning to reach Mr. Matheson, the minister of public works for the Island.

Mr. McNinis said that anyone was welcome to come to the ceremony, but that he didn't have time to issue invitations. When the building of the causeway was announced from Ottawa on the morning of July 8, Premier Shaw knew nothing about it until he was asked by a newsman if he had any comments to make, he had no prior information from the federal government. He expressed his annoyance of this at that time.

REVEREND SWAMPED

PRINCES RISBOROUGH England (CPI) — Rev. Hugh Jones was swamped with spectacles after a recent appeal in his parish magazine. He asked his Buckinghamshire parishioners for their discarded spectacles to send to medical missionaries abroad. He expected a few dozen; 3,000 arrived.

Student Given $2,000 Award

Alexander Lee Horne Summerside, an engineering student at Nova Scotia Technical College in Halifax, has been awarded a $2,000 scholarship by Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Limited, it was announced in Halifax yesterday.

Kings Voting Showed Way

Statistics compiled over the past 35 years show that as Kings County goes in a federal election, the rest of Canada is likely to go too.

Kings has voted in 24 elections since 1874 and 19 times it returned a member of the party that won most seats in the country.

Park Supervisor Is Appointed

R.P. Malis acting regional director of the Natural and Historic Resources Branch has announced the appointment of Paul A. Lange of Ottawa as regional supervisor of National parks in the Atlantic Region.

Mr. Lange has recently assumed responsibility for the regional
