Tea Topics

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing"—but the redeeming feature is that generally a little knowledge leads to study, and the little soon becomes a great deal.

And so it is with our Matchless Blend of Ceylon Tea. A little knowledge of its goodness leads to a trial, and then you've learned that real good tea can be had at a moderate price. We know that your verdict will be the same as that of the house wives who have used it steadily for thirty years.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE AMONG ENGLISH CATTLE

LONDON, June 21.—Foot and mouth disease has again broken out among animals in this country this being the worst outbreak yet reported to the board of agriculture. The peak has occurred in the Derbyshire area, where more than 100 animals have been certified affected by the disease. Slaughtering has begun with a view to preventing the spread of the infection and urgent restrictions have been issued to the same end.

A JOKE?—OR WHAT— Some prominent gentlemen in the city have received within the past few days the curious communication quoted below. In each case the letter had many names attached, the last one being that of the sender. "Copy this out and send it to nine friends whom you wish good luck. This chain was started by an American officer and should go three times aorund the world. Don't break this chain, for whoever does will have bad luck. Do it within twenty-four hours and count nine days and you will have some great luck."

WINS PRIZE.— Mr. James P. Bradley, the popular druggist of "The 2 Macs" is receiving the hearty congratulations of his many friends in winning second prize in a contest on "Salesmanship" open to Canada and the United States by "Drug Topics" a journal devoted to the drug business, edited in New York. Over 2500 druggists and drug clerks took part in the contest and Mr. Bradley may justly feel proud in winning second place, among the druggists of North America. The contest was a two hundred word treatise on the best methods of selling Cream Eleayo. Three prizes were offered, the first being won by a druggist in Kansas and the third by a druggist in Lynn Mass. The Guardian heartily congratulates Mr. Bradley on his success.
