STRUCK BY A SWORD FISH.—The Halifax Herald states that just as Captain Hill was about finishing the survey on the Elliott at Pictou, what looked like the top of a bolt was seen protruding from the summer's side below the water line. An examination showed that the steamer had been struck by a sword fish, and that nine inches of the sword was imbedded in the ship's side. The piece of the sword went through a five inch spruce plank, also three inches of birch.

PRICE WEBBER AT MASONIC TEMPLE.—A highly delighted audience witnessed the comedy "Fanchon the Cricket," last night. The acting, costumes, stage settings, including the May Pole Dance, were highly creditable. Miss Grey received an ovation on her appearance, and she acted charmingly the character of Fanchon. Able support was given by Mr. Sterns, as the lover, and Mr. Webber's comedy was highly enjoyed. To-night "Under the Spotlight," with the railroad and pier scenes, will be played.

THE ELLIOTT.—The Pictou Advocate says: The new P. E. Island steamer Elliott arrived in port on Monday last and went on the Marine Slip, where she was coppered. She left this morning for Bluefields, Central America, where she will be engaged in the fruit carrying trade between that place and Savannah. Mr. Jas. McEachern, the smart young Island athlete, who until this year has always taken part in our 15th sports, is third engineer on the Elliott, and met many of his friends while in town.

THE NOVELTY OF THE EXHIBITION.—The most novelty which will be displayed at the Exhibition during this week, is, which the Island for the first time has seen in its Exhibition building is, the collection of beautiful and rare articles of wood and mother of pearl. Besides the exquisite drapery from Damascus, there will be a show of numerous objects of interest, as well as oriental costumes which were brought from Jerusalem by Mr. Khadler. We would therefore advise the public to call and procure what mementoes they can from the Holy Land, ere the three days of exhibition are over.

THE CATHEDRAL BAZAAR.

The success that attended the opening of the Bazaar exceeded the expectation of all. A large number of people visited the rink during the afternoon and night. The dinner, tea and refreshment tables were well patronized. This is not to be wondered at, when a first-class dinner or tea, with admission to the bazaar, can be had for 25 cents. The ice cream and oyster booths, too, came in for their own share of patronage, as also did the soda water fountain and flower stands; and the receipts at the fancy and other tables amounted to a handsome sum. The musical part of the programme was well looked after by the Citizens' Band, and they, with several accomplished pianists, discoursed the sweetest of music during the evening. On the whole, it may be said that everyone was well satisfied, and that the first day of the Bazaar was a decided success.

The big magic lantern show by Messrs. Haslam and Donell was an attractive feature, and was much appreciated. The highest praise is due Mr. J. Heter Haslam for the trouble and expense of bringing the apparatus and views to the city and placing them at the disposal of the committee free of charge. Such an act could only have proceeded from a generous heart.

This morning the election contest between the two great leaders in federal politics—Thompson and Laurier, was opened, and as the result will be announced every hour, we have no doubt that this will be a most exciting and interesting feature of the Bazaar. To-morrow, we will announce the result up to the time of going to press.

The guest committee for the scholarship in the Business College, and a free life insurance policy in the New York Life for one year, also opened this morning. This affords a grand opportunity to get a sound business education, as well as a safe, reliable insurance for the small sum of ten cents each.

Yesterday forenoon, after all the ladies in attendance at the tables and booths had taken their places, the interior of the rink was photographed by Mr. Clond Hill. These pictures will be ready for distribution in a day or so, and everyone visiting the Bazaar should procure a copy.

Nearly all the children attending the schools visited the Bazaar yesterday afternoon and enjoyed themselves in right royal style. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has the thanks of the Bazaar Committee for a handsome donation of $50.00 in cash; and they wish to thank Mrs. Howland for a beautiful lamp.

Mrs. James Byrne, Miss Maggie McEachern, Mrs. Peter Dwyer and Miss More wish to thank Mr. J. B. Dawson for $1 cash. Mr. Casey $1, Joseph J. Gillis $1, Louis Whear $1, Wallace Letch $1, Thos. L. Smith $1, Mary A. McGowan $2, Maggie McEachern $2, Katie Wright $2, Maria Wright $1, Arthur Alley $1, Dr. Wickwire, Halifax, $5, Miss Beardon, Halifax, $1, William Powell, Halifax, $2, and a number of other friends of the Bazaar have their thanks for $24.25.

J. H. Myrick & Co., have the thanks of the Ladies Committee for $5 in goods. Mr. William Whitlock, City, will please accept the sincere thanks of the Ladies Committee, for an elegant mirror, set in a beautifully carved walnut frame, valued at $10.

The thanks of the Ladies Committee are due Mrs. Charles Dalziel for $2 in cash. Mrs. Ben Hertz for a splendid cake, and to Mrs. (Capt.) John Hughes for a donation of tea and sugar.

A member of the Ladies Committee acknowledges with thanks the receipt of 27lbs of vanilla wafers from Mr. John Sterling, the representative of the Laing Biscuit Co.

The Ladies Committee desire to thank Mr. E. F. Purly for a valuable piece of marble. In addition to the magazines and newspapers already mentioned, the following have been received, each for one year: New York Journal, Illustrated London News, Demorest's Magazine, Our Little Ones, Painter's Magazine, Lintott's Magazine, Yankee Blade, Peck's Sun, The Irish World, Illustrated Fabiana. At the Literary Table there is also a picture of John Boyle O'Reilly, presented by Mr. P. V. O'Reilly, and a musical box and album combined. Books rare and valuable, books old and new, books galore. Last, but not least on the Literary Table, are several gold watches,—treasures in abundance.

Come everybody to the Bazaar, and when there you will behold a scene which will form a lasting impression on your memory.
