

Sask. Judge Dies At 60

REGINA (CP)—Judge Peter Stanley Deis, 60, of Melville, Sask., died in hospital Wednesday after suffering a heart attack Monday.

Born at Vibank, Sask., Nov. 14, 1906, he graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Manitoba after completing studies at Campion College in Regina and St. Boniface College. He graduated in law from the University of Saskatchewan.

When appointed to the district court bench Sept. 24, 1965, Judge Deis had been practising law in Regina for 34 years.

He joined the Regina Rifle Regiment in 1941 and served in the legal branch until 1945. He attained the rank of captain.

TOKYO (AP)—North Korea announced Thursday a shakeup in the party structure. Communist party Chairman Kim Il Sung's title was changed to general secretary of the party's central committee. A six-man presidium of the political committee of the central committee, headed by Kim, also was created.
