MASTERS & SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros.

The Elliot.—The steamer Elliot, with a general cargo, arrived at this port last night from Boston.

The Rain of the 2nd Batt.—Will attend St. James' SS. picnic at Suffolk tomorrow. Train leaves the station at 10:30, sharp.

Laid to Rest.—The body of Winnie McLean, daughter of Mr. Stewart, on Monday, was interred at our service. The funeral cortege was large and the floral offerings beautiful.

St. James' Picnic.—St. James' Church Sabbath School picnic takes place tomorrow at Suffolk. Parties leaving by the 1 o'clock train can have tea on the grounds and return by excursion train.

The S. S. CORAN sails from Montreal on Friday morning, Aug. 3rd, for Charlottetown, Sydney and St. John's, Nfld. She will be due at Charlottetown on Monday morning, Aug. 6th. Ad later.

A PLEASANT TRIP.—The League of the Cross picnic at Red Point today is well attended. The Southport took up a large number this forenoon and another this afternoon. The weather is fine, and all are enjoying themselves. The League band is in attendance.

SACRAMENTAL.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will (D. V.) be dispensed in the Brookfield Presbyterian church on the Second Sabbath of August. The Rev. M. Campbell of Strathallan and the Rev. R. MacLean of Valleyfield are expected to assist the pastor.

A VALUABLE FIND.—A well defined vein of manganese has been discovered in the Crooked Creek mining company's property, between Albert and Harvey, in Albert County. The ore appears to be of a very high order, and all the indications are said to be very promising.—Moncton Times.

THE CHICAGO STRIKE.—The official record shows that the destruction of railroad property in Chicago, during the strike, amounted to $450,000. This represents, of course, only material that was burned, broken up or rendered useless. The loss of wages, traffic and business amounted to millions.

A CELEBRATED CASE.—The prosecution brought by George Macdonald, of Lot 10, against Rev. A. E. Burke, Dr. Murphy, and W. P. Reid, for destroying liquor at the Alberton tea, was engaged into yesterday before Henry Wright, Stipendiary Magistrate for Prince County. After hearing the evidence His Honor reserved judgment until the 5th inst.

MIRACLES BY ST. ANNE.—It is said that ten miraculous cures were effected at St. Anne's on Thursday, among them those of Mr. David McLean, of Boston, who had been unable to move for several years; Miss L. Fitzmaurice, of Grayton, Ont., who had been for a long period unable to walk without crutches; and Mrs. Coffin, of Cobourg, who obtained relief from a nearly of long standing.—Quebec Telegraph.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a young man named Arthur Pennington, for being drunk and incapable about the Post Office building, was fined $2 or 10 days.

During the month of July, ending yesterday, there were 23 convictions for drunkenness, 2 for larceny, 4 for nuisance, 5 for assault. One nuisance case and one assault case were dismissed. The receipts were $235.00.

SHIP NEWS.—In port at Souris, July 31, schooner John M. Plummer, Richards; Hattie D. Linnell, Hattie Maude; Mabel R. Bennett, Smith; Ethel B. Jones; Lottie Gardner, cruiser Kingfisher. Capt. Sol Jacobs reports that he has not seen as good an appearance of mackerel in North Bay for fifteen years. Boats did well at Campbell's Cove on Friday and Saturday. Mackerel large and fat.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Florida left on return to Boston last night with a general cargo and the following passengers: Miss Mary Poole, Mrs. McLean, Chas. H. Miller, Isabel H. Anderson, J. M. Anderson, Allen Finkler, Milton Finkler, Melvin A. Cameron, Walter S. Whitney, Laura C. Tinkham, Miss Lena Longhens, Miss Edith Savage, Harry Paul, Miss Louise Coffin, L. C. Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Costello, Mrs. Mackenna.

MASSIVE OPERA HOUSE.—Something new in the way of entertainment will be furnished by the Elex Fontana Combination, who open a two night engagement on Monday, August 6th. The wonderful feats of invisible strength by Grace Eden, the little "Georgia Wonder," are exciting interest through the province. Clergymen, physicians and scientists have witnessed the various tests made, but none could explain the mysterious powers possessed by this little lady. Charles Kelly's singing and guitar playing is said to be of a very high order, and he is an established favorite wherever he has appeared. The absolute control of Prof. Fontana over his hypnotized subjects is very laughable, indeed. We advise all lovers of amusement to see this remarkable combination. Popular prices will prevail.

The Dominion Bank paid to-day a quarterly dividend of 3 per cent. This is at the rate of 12 per cent. per year—not a bad rate for a country rained by the N. P. in a year of commercial depression.

The Boston Advertiser says of the Government of Corea that it "is merely a form of constitutional snobbery, robbery and jobbery." From this one would infer that it is a grit government, conducted on "sound liberal principles," with a large fund for election purposes.

Montreal Gazette: Under the Lockwood bill, now being discussed by Congress, a Canadian entering the United States to perform labor service of any kind, is to be punishable by a fine of $100 or imprisonment for ninety days. Canadian labor organizations are somewhat given to passing long resolutions sympathizing with citizens of the United States who go on strike. The introduction of and support given to such laws by United States labor organizations suggests that the condition of reciprocity of good feeling is absent from the international labor situation. It might be wise hereafter for Canadian labor to keep its wind to cool its own porridge.

Somewhat Out of Our Line, But it Does Not Matter so long as we get a good thing for our customers.

We have made arrangements with a prominent Portrait Company that any of our customers purchasing $10 worth of goods from us shall receive, free, a life-sized CRAOTINT, copied from any photograph they wish. These pictures are works of merit, and are guaranteed to be satisfactory. A beautiful frame is supplied with each picture, for which a charge of $3.50 is made. In offering these Craotints to our customers on these conditions, we feel satisfied we are doing that which will please them very much.

THE THEATRE.

Harry Lindley and the select company supporting him gave their second performance at the Opera House last evening, presenting the sensational melodrama "Shadows of a Great City." The audience was not so large as it should be—as the merits of the play deserved—but what was lacking in numbers was more than made up in enthusiasm and applause. Every one seemed to be highly pleased with the manner in which the play was presented. Harry Lindley and Miss Flint were, of course, the stellar attractions. Mr. Lindley took the part of "Jim Farron," and took it well, keeping the audience fairly bubbling over with laughter all the time that he was on the stage. The "Buddy Roman" of Miss Flint was a splendid impersonation. The kind-hearted, hospitable Irish woman was well portrayed, alternately eliciting sympathy and laughter. Miss Sutton as "Nellie" was excellent, and she had the audience with her throughout. One of the neatest bits of character acting we have seen for some time was that of Mr. Woodale, who impersonated "Levi Nathan," a "gentleman from Jerusalem." The character was a difficult and disagreeable one, but it was in good hands and was well maintained. Mr. Chapman as "Tom Cooper" sustained the favorable impression he made on the previous evening, and Mr. Marsh made an excellent "Geo. Benson." The other characters were all well taken. To-night the beautiful society play "Queen" will be presented, together with "The Weavers," one of the funniest of funny comedies. Harry Lindley has an excruciatingly funny part, and all who enjoy a good laugh should make a point of attending.

PERSONAL.

Royal Dean Astor, of Nova Scotia, and his son are here—the guests of the Master of the Rolls. Princess Bismarck fell from her bed on Sunday morning and was unconscious for several days. Mr. Charles Schofield, B. A., of St. John's arrived last evening. He is the guest of the Master of the Rolls.
