ANY papers and tracts left at C. D. Rankin's Drug Store for the use of patients at Falconwood Asylum, will be thankfully received.

THE Bazaar and supper in aid of Upper Prince Street Methodist Church last evening, was very well attended and quite successful.

A CLOCK warranted to run for five years without either winding or regulation has been invented in Europe. The Belgian Government placed one in a railway station in 1881, sealed with the Government seal, and it has kept perfect time ever since.

THE New York Tribune very sensibly remarks that if the Republican party had expended $1,000,000 in sending copies of its best newspapers to 1,000,000 doubtful voters from June to November, instead of spending $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 on brass bands, uniforms, flags, etc., it would have had a much better prospect of winning.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send self-addressed envelope to REV. JOSEPH T. LEMAY, Station D, New York.

THE Herald says:—We regret to record to-day the death of Mr. Edward Trainor, the eldest son of Mr. James Trainor, of Graham's Road. The deceased was a very industrious, worthy young man, and with a view of improving his circumstances removed four years ago to Minnesota. In his new home he was very successful, and his early death is widely mourned. We tender to his bereaved relatives our sincere sympathy in their affliction.

AN ISLANDER PROMOTED.—Mr. H. C. McLeod, who has been agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia here for the past two years, has been promoted to the Winnipeg agency. While congratulating him on his deserved promotion, we have to regret the removal of himself and family from this town. No permanent appointment to the Bank's agency here has yet been made. The management is now in the hands of Mr. D. R. Fergan, of the head office.—Amherst Gazette.

THE Montreal Star says:—The funeral of the late Mr. D. B. Macpherson took place this afternoon from his residence No 10 Milton street to St. Paul's Church. Mr. Macpherson has resided in Montreal for about thirty years and has always been respected for his upright and honorable conduct and liked for his genial disposition. He was at one time a partner in the firm of Messrs. Lyman, Sons & Co., but latterly has been in business on his own account as manufacturer's agent in St. Francis Xavier Street. [Mr. Macpherson was a son-in-law of Mrs. McLennan, of Charlottetown.]

THE PRESS.—Dr. Saunders takes charge of the Halifax Christian Messenger, as editor. Mr. Selden retires from that charge with a very honorable record. He has served the Baptist church with great fidelity and tact. Dr. Saunders is a gentleman, a scholar, and an able writer. He belongs to the class of clergymen who can earn their living in several ways, and, like Paul, can drive a plough, or make a tent or a basket. We cannot but think such men, laid aside by physical defects from the active ministry, do much better in harness of some kind than drawing out their existence in respectable idleness and poverty.—Hants Journal.

WE regret to learn by telegram to Capt. D. McKee, that Thomas Clift, Esq., of the firm of Messrs. Clift, Wood & Co., St. John's, Newfoundland, died on the 17th inst. This firm have had for many years extensive transactions with not a few of our merchants. The deceased gentleman was the managing member of the firm, and was very popular with all of our people who visited St. John's. They will greatly miss his genial countenance and kindly counsel.—Patriot.

ANOTHER despatch received by Capt. McKee announces the death of Mr. G. P. Pitts, well known commission merchant of St. John's, Newfoundland.

A COWARDLY outrage was perpetrated upon an offensive country lad named Frizzle, belonging to North River, yesterday afternoon. It appears the lad was returning home with a load of straw which he was unsuccessful in disposing of in the city. When a short distance beyond the residence of Hon. Judge Fether's, he discovered the load upon which he was sitting, to be a solid mass of flames. He cries for help brought several persons to the scene, and the burning straw was quickly thrown from the truck, the horse was released therefrom, just in time to prevent his being cremated. The boy accuses one of two men from his own neighborhood, who passed him on the road a short time before he discovered the fire, of being guilty of the cowardly act. We hope he will be caught, and made to pay for the straw.

ONE OF our Ontario apples (large barrels), the finest lot we have ever received. This is the time for families to try in their supply.—BEER & GOFF.

The Franchise Bill.

LONDON, Nov. 19. The Better Way.

Oh Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! How long will you remain, The panted, and trodden down, By whiskey's favored train? How long shall your fair face be hid, Your better thoughts disperse, As you in future, make the bid For Rum's debauching cur?

Oh Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! Upraise your drooping head, And call to mind your old renown, When you and Law were wed:— When but to break a law, was sure To find the law's intent,— When Charlottetown would not endure Escapes from punishment.

Oh Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! Resume your true control, And do not let your brave sons drown Their senses in the bowl. Stand for the right, your holy right Of saving citizens:— And to this end, both day and night, Close up the lawless den.

Oh Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! Be faithful to your trust, And do not shrink when mortals' frown Would lay you in the dust:— The glory born of Just and Right, Is greater than the dimes, That fire-water brings to light; In these law-breaking times.

Oh, Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! Let Prohibition be Your watchword and your jewel'd crown, For all eternity:— Call back your sons that go astray, And teach them common sense, And show them that, the better way, Is Total Abstinence.

Oh, Charlottetown! Fair Charlottetown! The law-abiding look To thee and justice to disown The traffic that you brook:— They ask you, fearlessly to do, Nor falter as of late; Prosperity shall come to you, And P. E. I. be great.
