

Handicap your Cough!

Don't wait a few days to see if it will "wear off"; it is much more likely to become dangerous and it will undoubtedly be much more difficult to cure. The longer you permit it to prey upon the delicate membranes of your throat, bronchial tubes and chest, the more you render yourself susceptible to other attacks and to chronic pneumonia or consumption.

Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is an infallible remedy: for more than 30 years it has been curing the worst cases and it will surely cure you.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up, to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on, with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, sinking spells, digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago, the need for a reliable remedy for so-called female complaints was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's favorite prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

THE KISS PATROL.

One of the Latest Stories Told About Admiral Dewey.

"While I was up in New York during the Dewey celebration," said a federal official, "I had an interesting talk with an old friend of mine who is in the secret service and who was there on special detail to look after some of the distinguished guests. Just how many government detectives were on hand nobody knows except Chief Wilkie, and he isn't apt to tell, but there were enough to put a very prompt quietus on any crank or indiscreet enthusiast who might have been inclined to make things unpleasant.

"It seems that Dewey had a particular dread of being kissed. He probably remembered how poor Hobson had been osculated into obscurity, and the first thing he asked of the members of the arrangement committee who boarded the Olympia in the bay was that all females who looked as if they had intentions should be kept at a distance.

"The committee pledged him the honor of New York that he would be protected, but they realized at once that they had the biggest kind of a contract on their hands. It is no easy job to guard a hero against chaste salutes. It would never do to tell every lady who came to be presented that she mustn't kiss the admiral, for nine-tenths of them would certainly regard such a caution as a downright insult. Then, too, the thing is so quickly done! It might be all over before Dewey could yell for help. The only plan was sleepless vigilance, and it was exercised to the limit.

"When a woman was spotted who looked as if she might be meditating a rush and a smack, she would suddenly find herself carried backward into the throng. It seemed like the natural swaying of the crowd, and how it really happened could only have been explained by the dozen or more quiet gentlemen in citizens' clothes who always bobbed up mysteriously whenever the admiral halted in his triumphal progress. They had several bad scares; but, taken altogether, the kiss patrol was a huge success. It was the first time on record that the government ever ordered a blockade on human lips."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Gifts For Dewey.
"Well," said the patriotic farmer, "ef Dewey ain't comfortable when cold weather sets in, all I've got to say is it won't be our fault! Gran'mother's half blind, but she's done knitted him six pair of woolen socks, my ole woman has made him a quilt, with the star spangled banner in the middle, the two gals has made him a flannel muffler, I've bought him a pair of jeans britches an the ole shoemaker has kilt his only cow to git a pair of shoes fer him out of the hide!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A Tenacious Tenant.
"It was very careless!" exclaimed the Parisian property owner.
"What's the matter?"
"The agent has rented my property to a man named 'Guerin.'"
"What of it?"
"I don't like the name. It sounds mighty unpromising in case we should feel called upon to undertake an eviction."
