...POST-NUPTIAL SHOWER — A very delightful post-nuptial shower was held at the Beaver Club, Montague, on Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Younker, whose marriage took place on July 26. Over thirty guests were present, and the young couple were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts. Mrs. June Coles read an original address, and the gifts were opened by Miss Florrie Beaton and Miss Lillian MacLeod. The verses were read by Mrs. Norman Bell. Mr. Younker expressed his appreciation on behalf of himself and his bride, the former Alice Collings. The evening was spent in an enjoyable dance during which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Younker left yesterday on return to Toronto where they are employed.

...MAGISTRATE'S COURT — At Magistrate's Court at Georgetown yesterday before Magistrate Gilbert Gaudet, a resident of Cardigan was fined $50.00 and costs for reckless driving. Two residents of Murray River were each fined $50.00 and costs for driving while their ability was impaired by alcohol, and their license was also automatically suspended for three months. A resident of Cardigan was fined $50.00 and costs on the same charge. A resident of Borden charged with obtaining by false pretenses with intent to defraud a 1954 Ford Mainline to the value of $2,200.00, had his case adjourned and was released on bail of $1,000.00, and two sureties of $500.00 each. A resident of Summerside was fined $20.00 and costs for consuming liquor in or about a motor vehicle. A resident of Montague having clearance lights. And a party from Newton Cross was fined $2.00 and costs for having more than three adults in the front seat of a cab.

Summer flowers and fern formed the setting yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's United Church, Belle River, when Thelma Grace, daughter of Mrs. Albert J. MacDonald, Flat River and the late Albert J. MacDonald was married to William Sinclair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacTavish of Lower Newtown. The Rev. W. E. MacPhail, assisted by the Rev. J. E. Heathwood performed the double-ring ceremony which was followed by a reception at the bride's home.

Given in marriage by her brother, Malcolm, the bride wore a gown of white tulle organza embellished in lover's knot design, and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her finger-tip veil of white tulle was caught in a small matching cap.

Bridesmaids were, Miss Margaret MacTavish, sister of the groom and Mrs. Edyth MacDonald, sister of the bride. They wore waist-length gowns of frosted yellow and green organza, respectively, with matching headdress and carried old-fashioned nose gays.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. MacDonald wore Edyth's carnations with her gown of blue print shantung and navy accessories. Mrs. MacTavish, the bridegroom's mother, wore a corsage of pink carnations on a powder blue ensemble with blue accessories.

Mr. William D. MacDonald, brother of the bride, wore best man and the ushers were Mr. Hector MacDonald of Wood Islands and Mr. Charles Gillis of Eidon.

Soloist for the 5 o'clock ceremony was Miss Marlene Balderston of Cross Roads.

Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home in Flat River and also one at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Reeves, Cross Roads.

They left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and for travelling the bride chose a suit of blue wool with navy accessories.

On their return they will reside in Lower Newtown.

Wait Turn At Scottish Gathering

Is appreciation or anticipation that can be read in the faces of these young dancers as they sit at the edge of the stage to take their part in yesterday's Scottish dancing competitions. It would appear that the sword dance will be the next number.

Gathering

...of Prince Edward Island; Hon. Paul Martin, Federal Minister of Health and Welfare; Hon. B. Earle Macdonald, Provincial Minister of Health and Welfare; Federal members of Parliament, Neil A. Matheson, J. Angus MacLean and J. Watson MacNaught. These were introduced by Mr. George Fraser, president of the Caledonian Club who called upon Mr. Blair Macdonald to introduce the guest speaker. Mr. W. R. Shaw presided during the contests and games.

Adding to the color of the occasion was the R.C.A.F. Pipe Band from Rockcliffe, Ontario. The sweet music provided by this aggregation, boasting some of the most outstanding pipers and drummers in the world, thrilled the large gathering which indicated their pleasure by hearty applause. The large following of camera fans in evidence also gave some indication of the appreciation held for the band.

Present at the occasion was Miss Lena MacLure with her father, W. Chester S. MacLure. Miss MacLure had the good fortune of being a passenger on the same boat with the Elgins when they came to Canada. She had made their acquaintance on the ship and had the opportunity of renewing it yesterday. She describes Lord and Lady Elgin as a most fascinating couple. "Her Ladyship was a most gracious person," said Miss MacLure.

For one man, yesterday will remain as a memorable event in his life. David Rennie of North Wiltshire, P.E.I. received his first Christmas present a good many years ago from the decorated tree in Bloomhall, Pife, the home of the Bruce family. Mr. Rennie's grandfather served for 25 years for Lord Elgin's father and Rennie's daughter Catherine, who is now Mrs. Bernard of Charlottetown, served as a nursemaid for the family before coming to this Province about twenty years ago. When Mrs. Bernard was introduced to Lady Elgin, her Ladyship's greeting was "Hello Cathy!" Mr. Rennie and his daughter had many reminiscences with Lord and Lady Elgin.

A very keenly contested programme of Highland dancing and piping brought entrants from many parts of the Island and a very large group from various communities in Nova Scotia. Judging the dancing was Mrs. Garden Lawson of Montague. Pipe Major R. Howie of the R.C.A.F. Band judged the piping while Major Ian Callum MacLeod judged the adult piping.

The following are the results of the contests:

Class 7—Highland Fling, P.E.I. First, Evelyn Fraser, Charlottetown; second, Heather Burke, Charlottetown.

Class 8—Highland Fling, P. E. I. First, Judith A. MacDonald, Cardigan; second, Norma H. Duvar, Charlottetown.

...ENTERTAINS GUILD — Miss Margaret MacLure was hostess to the members of the Presbyterian Young Women's Guild, Montague, at the regular meeting Monday evening. The president, Mrs. Malcolm MacKenzie, presided and the meeting opened with the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers" followed by the Scripture lesson read by Mrs. Elsie Watterworth and prayer by Miss MacLure. Roll call was answered by thirteen members. One new member, Mrs. Bob Murray, was cordially welcomed by the president. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the financial report was read by Mrs. Byron Stewart, who also reported on the success of the July ice cream social. The correspondence included two letters of appreciation. Plans were discussed for holding an ice cream social in the church hall later in the month. The meeting closed with the hymn "Come To The Saviour" and the Missal benediction. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John H. MacKenzie, and a social hour was enjoyed by everyone.
