HANLAN, the Toronto champion, is now at home with his friends, who have given him such a reception as any man might be proud to have. The people of the City by the Lake are determined to show that they appreciate the merits of their oarsman, and they honor him accordingly.

COUNTERFEIT five dollar bills on the National Bank Pawling New York State, are being offered in Montreal. Counterfeit is dangerous and well calculated to deceive. The Ts in printed matter on back of the bill are not all crossed, and the reading on the upper portion of back runs too close to the border.

BEFORE ordering elsewhere (any person wanting anything in the Marble or Freestone line) go to E. G. Hunter's establishment, on Kent Street, near King Square. You will get good value for your money.—[July 17, 61]

A BOY named John McAree about fourteen years of age was arrested by the police to-day for stealing fifty dollars from his aunt, who has recently returned from Boston. Another boy who was with McAree after he committed the larceny was arrested and held to give testimony against him.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—The Rev. Mr. Christie, Presbyterian Missionary at Trinidad, will address a public meeting in St. James' Church on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, on the nature and results of the mission work in that interesting field. A MONTREAL Witness special from Coaticook, Quebec, says a tornado swept over that place from west to east yesterday afternoon, doing very great damage. Rain and hail poured down in torrents for half an hour, and were accompanied by a hurricane which blew down many barns and damaged potato crops in surrounding country. A thunderbolt struck the smokestack of some lumber mills and was disseminated, threw the machinery all over the premises, and entering a store near by and knocked senseless a lady customer. A storm of such violence has not been known here for ten years. The extent of the damage cannot be estimated.

THE trial of the Parker girl for perjury must be conducted as a private prosecution, the Court refusing to regard the Crown as a party to it. There are no doubt good reasons in law and equity for throwing upon the Osbornes the trouble and responsibility of proving their complaints, and it will be interesting now to note what they propose to do. They will gratify the public very much by carrying the case through, and if they do not there will seem to be necessity for further investigation by the law, in some other form, into the facts connected with the murder of McCarthy. The additional facts that have come to light since the trial of the Osbornes are important enough to justify the public in expecting that further enquiry will be made in some way, whether the Osbornes choose to drop their case against Parker or carry it through.—Moncton Times.

THE Stipendiary Magistrate, of Halifax, delivered the following judgment in the Brennan case on Wednesday: "After a most careful consideration of the evidence taken before me in this case, and the law relating to bailment, I am of opinion that there are sufficient grounds to put the accused party, William C. Brennan, on his trial for the offence charged against him, and in accordance with the authority given under section 52 and 56, chap. 30 of 32nd and 33rd Vic., I shall admit the accused to bail, himself in the sum of $400 and two sureties in the sum of $200 each, by recognizance conditioned to ensure his appearance in trial at the next sitting of Her Majesty's Supreme Court for the County of Halifax. The effect of this judgment is not to commit the party to trial, but to give bail to answer any charge that may be preferred against him before the Grand Jury."
