Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Director of First Aid Services of the Red Cross, tested the class on May 22nd and the following candidates received First Aid Certificates: Peter Bushey, Hazel Crockett, Shirley Ford, Anne MacDonald, Francis MacDonald, Paul MacDonald, Faber Murphy, Sterling Creamer, Muriel Croucher, Franklyn Hearz, Ann MacDonald, Patricia MacDonald, Irene Mallard, Jack MacDonald.

MONTAGUE W. M. S.

A very pleasant evening was spent by the ladies of the W. M. S. of Montague United Church, when they were entertained by Mrs. Eithan Stewart at her summer home for their June meeting. Mrs. Archie Hume gave a short devotional service on the theme "People Grow Older". The 23rd Psalm was repeated in unison.

The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Edgar MacKinnon and appropriate hymns were sung. This lovely service closed by a prayer in unison. The president, Mrs. Leon Johnston, then took over.

Roll call was answered by a Scripture verse containing the word "Help". A welcome was given to Mrs. Hill of England, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Horace Fraser.

A report of the box valued at $148.06 which was sent for Overseas Relief was given. Two work meetings were held to make quilts for this box and a very nice Afghan was knitted for it. Mrs. Nellie Fraser, supply secretary, reported sending a parcel of toilet articles, which were brought in at the May meeting, for displaced persons arriving in Halifax. A letter from the Temperance Federation was read and a few members paid their dues. The president spoke of the Missionary Rally to be held in Lower Montague. A letter saying that Miss Inman would be available in August as guest speaker was read.

Nineteen hospital and forty sick and shut-in calls were reported. Thirteen cards, nineteen treats, and flowers sent to five sick were also reported. Some squares for another Afghan to be sent in the next box were brought in and it is hoped that squares for another heavy quilt will be ready for the fall.

Prayer was asked for the Evangelistic meetings which are to be held the first week in July.

Mrs. Lorne Wigginton then gave an interesting talk on the last chapter of the Study Book. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and committee and a social half-hour enjoyed.

*HOSPITAL NOVELTY DANCE, Beaver Club Hall, Montague, JJuly 10th Downtowners Orchestra.

*ST. PETER'S BAY NORTH JUNIOR FIRST AID CLASS—Junior First Aid Certificates were presented to the following pupils of St. Peter's Bay North at the school closing on Thursday, June 29th: Anne Gillis, Daniel Lewis, Elaine O'Hanley, John Lewis, Anne Marie Mullin, Desmond O'Hanley, Robert Rossiter, Francis Gillis, Catherine MacCallum, Gerald Gillis, David MacCallum, Eugene Rossiter, Raymond McKinnon, Bernie O'Hanley, Francis Rossiter, Mary Lewis. This Junior First Aid Class was conducted by Miss Phyllis Morrison, a qualified Red Cross instructor. Miss Morrison is one of the first group of teachers who qualified as a First Aid instructor, and has conducted several most successful Junior First Aid Classes in her school at St. Peter's Bay North.

The regular meeting of the Montague Home and School Association was held in the school on Monday night with the president, Dr. G. S. A. Inman presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Elsie Watterworth. In the discussion which followed there were pointed out the many advantages of such an organization and it should stimulate and encourage the members to greater effort on behalf of the school and its activities. It was made evident that parents and teachers can co-operate in the further advancing of the child's education, and that through a larger membership this work might be promoted to a greater degree. A film, "Who Will Teach Your Child?" was presented by the National Film Board through Mr. Eric Duvar. The film presented several aspects in the adjustment of children to society and citizenship, and the great need of understanding teachers to help them solve their problems. Two other interesting films were also shown on life and scenery in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Watterworth reported that the questionnaires sent out were being returned completed, and that in a short time the several committees will be formed. The next meeting may be held in August prior to school opening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stewart have returned home from an extended visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Baker of New Glasgow, N. S. While in Nova Scotia Mrs. Lavers visited many provincial centers.

At St. James Church on Sunday, Rev. O. Kiggins blessed the beautiful statue of the Infant Jesus of Prague, which has been donated to the church by Miss Gladys MacDonald of Boston, Mass. Miss MacDonald was formerly of this town and her kind remembrance of her native parish is much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ceredini left a few days ago on return by car to their home in New York City, after visiting for several weeks in Georgetown where they were the guests of Mrs. Ceredini's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Solomon.

On Friday the lobster fishing season officially closed and the last pack took place at the two local factories. It is generally conceded that the season just closed was a highly successful one, both from the standpoint of the amount of fish caught and from the prices paid for both the market and canner types of fish.

Congratulations are in order to Cullen DeLory of Georgetown, who at recent trials held in Charlottetown was selected a member of the Abegweit track and field team. Cullen specialized in the 100 yards and 200 yards sprints and placed second in both events at the trials.

Mr. and Mrs. William White of Borden motored to Georgetown a few days ago, where Mrs. White will visit for a week with her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson.

Recent guests of Mrs. Florence Jenkins, Richmond Street, were his daughter, Miss Dorothy Jenkins of the firm of W. R. Jenkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brown of Charlottetown.

Mr. John Boyce of the Fisheries Research Division of the Dominion Department of Fisheries, who is stationed at Halifax, N. S., was the holiday weekend guest of his pa-

Miss Adele Campbell was a week end visitor with Susan MacAulay at Souris West.

Percy O'Hanley, Souris, was a recent visitor to Mr. and Mrs. Angus Beaton, East Point.

The Co-operative are now unloading their last carload of lime for this season.

Peter MacDonald, North Lake, is now employed as deckman on the Abegweit ferry.

Kenneth Pierce, relieving station agent at Bedford, spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pierce.

Mrs. William Fraser and Mrs. Hudson Morrow, who have been patients in the Souris Hospital with flu, have returned to their homes. Their many friends and neighbours hope for their speedy recovery.

The Junior Farmers meeting of the Eastern Star Club was held in East Point School on Wednesday night last, with an attendance of seventeen members and three visitors. The meeting was very well organized and conducted. After the minutes were read and adopted, also new business discussed. A debate was held, "Resolved that fire is more beneficial to man than water." Water won by three points. Leader for Pro was Marion MacDonald, followed by Ronald MacDonald and Maurice Holland; for Con leader Joseph Cheverie, followed by Howard Holland and Cecile Provost. The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. and Mrs. Boyce, at St. David's Manse.

Miss Mabel Lavers has returned home from an extended visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Baker of New Glasgow, N. S. While in Nova Scotia Mrs. Lavers visited many provincial centers.

At St. James Church on Sunday, Rev. O. Kiggins blessed the beautiful statue of the Infant Jesus of Prague, which has been donated to the church by Miss Gladys MacDonald of Boston, Mass. Miss MacDonald was formerly of this town and her kind remembrance of her native parish is much appreciated.
