IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CATHERINE MacKENZIE

The recent death of Mrs. Alexander MacKenzie of Canoe Cove who passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, and whose death has already been announced in the local press, has removed one of the oldest land marks and best-known residents of this community. The deceased was born in this district seventy-three years ago, being the daughter of the late Neil (Malcolm) and Jessie (MacNevin) MacKenzie, and was the eldest sister in a family of five boys and three girls. All her sisters and brothers survive her, their names and home-places being as follows: Malcolm and Jessie (Mrs. Mark Inman) in Canoe Cove, P. E. Island; Dan and Florrie in Boston, Mass.; Neil in Saskatchewan, and John Edward and Roderick, in California.

The deceased was twice married, her first husband being the late John K. MacFadyen, carriage-builder at Canoe Cove. To this marriage ten children were born, and all but one survive, both father and mother, their names and home places being as follows: Malcolm, Collin and Jessie (Mrs. Sandy MacKenzie) in Canoe Cove; Flora Ann (Mrs. Peardon Hamilton) in Charlottetown; Bateman and John in Boston, Mass.; Everett in Moncton, N. B., and Dan and Goodwill, in Reading, Pennsylvania.

Several years after the death of her husband, who predeceased her thirty years ago, Mrs. MacFadyen married her widowed cousin, Alexander MacKenzie of Long Creek, and in so doing she became step-mother to a large family of boys and girls. The large united family that resulted from this union made big demands on her care and labor—a care and labor however that for upwards of twenty years was greatly lightened by the loyal affection and assistance of her children and step-children. Her husband, Alex, predeceased her over two years ago, and since that time she has lived most of her time with her son-in-law, Alex MacKenzie of Canoe Cove.

The late Mrs. MacKenzie was naturally of a home-making disposition, but her many home chores did not entirely prevent her from having outside interests, for she took a keen interest in everything that she felt tended to the welfare of her immediate community. Her chief interest, however, outside her home was in her home church at Canoe Cove—a church that in her early years held nominal connection with the old established Church of Scotland to which it owed its origin, but which has recently united with the Presbyterian Church in Canada. In her early years the deceased, like most of her contemporaries of that time, came under the influence of a profound religious experience, and during the prolonged and oppressive illness of her last days, her early Christian faith never forsook her.

The funeral service of the deceased which was held in Canoe Cove Church was very largely attended by friends and relatives from Canoe Cove and surrounding districts. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Donald Nicholson who chose for the subject of his sermon, the third and fourth verses of the twenty-first chapter of Revelation, with special emphasis on the words, "Neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things have passed away." Besides the impressive sermon by the pastor, the service consisted of the singing by the congregation of the favorite funeral psalm, "The Lord's My Shepherd"; also an appropriate hymn sung by the pastor, alone, and a favorite hymn of the deceased, "Safe in The Arms of Jesus", sung by the congregation, the organist on the occasion being Miss Joyce Nicholson, daughter of the officiating pastor.

The burial was in charge of Neil D. MacLean, well-known undertaker of Charlottetown, and the pall-bearers were as follows: Bruce MacLean and Dan MacEwan, both of Long Creek; and James MacNevin, Lauchlan MacKinnon, Francis MacDougall and Albert MacDougall, all of Canoe Cove. At the close of the church service the body of the deceased was conveyed to Argyll Shore Cemetery, and laid to rest beside the grave of the husband of her youth and father of all her children.

TRURO, N. S., Oct. 9—(CP)—The Truro Town Council has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the conviction of persons tampering with the town's parking meters. Mayor J. Glassy said several have been damaged and one had disappeared.

YOUR COMMERCE BRANCH

Keystone of Main Street

The towns of Canada are pleasant places. Our town has a character all its own... but any Canadian feels at home here.

There's our bank, for instance... a branch of The Commerce. You'll find one in most towns. And there's our bank manager. He's a professional man. He's learned from many towns like ours. So he knows how to give the kind of service that comes only with long acquaintance.

Yes, our Canadian towns are pleasant places... and the men and women at your Commerce branch are good people to know.

ST JOHN, October 9.—Miss Dorothy Russell of Chatham was elected president of the Maritime Presbyterian Young People's Societies, and an invitation to hold the next meeting at Thanksgiving, 1951, in Westminster Church, New Glasgow, was accepted in the sessions of the 11th annual conference held during the week-end in St. Matthew's Church.

The full slate of officers installed by Rev. John Humphreys last night was: past president, Miss Jean MacDonald, Sydney, N.S.; president, Miss Russell; vice-presidents, Miss Mabel Auld, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Miss Muriel MacLellan, Halifax; Robert MacLean, Campbellton, N. B.; Lyman F. D. Purnell, Fairville; George Pike, St. Johns Newfoundland; Miss Mary Chisholm, Springvale; secretary, Miss Thelma Larter, Montague; P. E. I. treasurer, Robert Murray New Glasgow; Bulletin editor, Ralph Kane, Halifax; assistant editor, Miss Kaye MacLeod, Halifax.

Developing the conference theme, "The Church in the World today," Rev. R. Russell Gordon, New Glasgow, on Saturday morning dealt with the problem of evil. Miss Jean MacDonald, Sydney, was in the chair for the general sessions.

As a new project for Presbyterian Young People support of a youth secretary in Formosa was agreed upon and officers at the conference missionary services were devoted to this project. Miss Margaret MacDougall, New Glasgow, past president, reported on camps held at Camp Geddie, Merigomish, N. S. Ralph Kane, Halifax, reporting on the Bulletin expressed gratitude to volunteer helpers.

A sight-seeing tour along the river on Saturday afternoon was followed by the convention banquet in the Pythian Hall, Main Street. Greetings were brought from the Anglican Y.P.U. by Rev. Gordon W. Philpotts, for the Baptist Y.P.U. Don MacKee and for the United Church Y.P.U. by Graeme Somerville. Mr. Gordon extended the greetings of the Moderator, Rev. Dr. F. Scott MacKenzie of Montreal. Reports from the pre-assembly congress in Montreal were given by Miss M. McDougall, New Glasgow, and Miss Muriel MacLellan, Halifax, and Miss MacDonald told of the sessions of the World Council of Christian Education which met in Toronto in August.

Conference Communion

The conference communion services were held in St. Matthew's Church on Sunday morning when the sacrament was administered by Mr. Humphreys and Mr. Gordon. At the afternoon mission service the worship period was conducted by Miss Joan Large and Miss Doris Ferguson of Charlottetown and Gardner Dalzell of Kensington, P. E. I.

In Japan, China, India and Formosa last year.

At the evening service when the installation took place Mr. Gordon gave his final address on the conference theme and spoke from the text "Ye shall be witnesses unto me." In the fellowship hour after the service Mr. Munro showed colored film taken on his world-encircling tour of the mission fields. The conference closed with the fellowship circle.

MORE HEAT FOR LESS MONEY!

Don't wait until next winter—now is the time to insulate! GYPROC WOOL insulation enables home owners to save up to 30% in fuel costs, yet the house is kept warm and comfortable in spite of the coldest weather.

With GYPROC WOOL protecting your house, every bit of heat from your fuel is made to work—it is kept inside to warm you, instead of being allowed to escape through walls and roof to the outside.

GYPROC WOOL will give you comfort this coming winter—and year after year, for GYPROC WOOL is the "Lifetime Insulation". It is mineral; does not deteriorate; is moisture-resistant and fire-safe; and permanently retains its insulating properties.

Write for a copy of "Insulation Manual", which explains how insulation works and shows how easily GYPROC WOOL may be installed in your home.
