N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—A late wave of profit taking wilted many gains on the stock market Thursday but prices generally remained up.

Steels led the list higher in the early hours and were joined by aircrafts and by some chemicals in fairly active trading. As prices dwindled later in the session the trading pace slowed. Volume for the day totalled 1,860,000 shares.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cents to $175.60, with industrials up 40 cents, rails down 10 cents and utilities up 20 cents.

Among Canadian issues Distillers Seagram spurted ahead 3¼. Canadian Pacific and International Nickel edged ahead ¼ while McIntyre slipped 1. Hiram Walker and Dome Mines were unchanged.

Prices were irregular on the American stock exchange. Gainers included Colonial Airlines, Consolidated Mining, and St. Lawrence. Among the losers were Barium Steel, Hazeltine and Northern Airlines.

TORONTO (CP)— Base metals were mildly easier most of the day on the stock exchange Thursday, but ended with a narrow index gain on the strength of some fractional improvements among senior issues. Western oils also gained strength in closing transactions, maintaining the firmer trend of recent sessions. Most uraniums traded lightly. There was little change in golds and holding companies.

Hudson Bay gained ¾, leading senior base metal winners. Other improvers, with advances up to 25 cents, included Eastern Smelting, Merrill, United Asbestos, Violamac, New Athona, which jumped 19 to $1.09, Duvan Copper and Quebec Chibougamau.

Among uraniums, Lorado added 8 to $2.18 on 101,000 shares. Belcher Mining was active for the second day, gaining 6 to 90 and trading 317,000 shares. Gulch was up 9 to $1.34.

Peace River's 40-cent improvement to $9.90 topped the better western oils. Other best performers, gaining up to 20 cents, included Prairie Oil and Gas, New British Dominion, Okalta, Federated Pete and Anglo - Canadian, whose shareholders Wednesday approved amalgamation with Canadian Oil Companies Ltd.

Bulolo notched the best advance among golds, a mild 20 cents to $5.55.

Index changes: Golds down .09 to 86.99, base metals up .15 to 218.59 and western oils up 1.19 to 113.23.
