

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 10, 1895.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Boston Standard: In war the Chinese run away from their foe; in peace they spear innocent women and sleeping children. There may be another crash in that China shop before long.

—The Montreal Gazette is rejoicing in a new dress and an avalanche of compliments. It is needless to say—everyone knows—that the Gazette is one of the best and handsomest newspapers in all Canada.

—Montreal Gazette: "If you meet a Liberal chief with a face indicating the deepest inward thought, it will be safe to conclude he is debating with himself whether there will be most votes in telling Mr. Greenway to stick to the Protestant horse a while longer or in advising him to discard the animal for a bicycle with a little seat behind for the Roman Catholic scholar."

—What is said to be the largest dry dock in the world was formally opened by the Prince and Princess of Wales on Saturday last. The great dock is 87 feet wide, 35 feet deep, has a total length of 750 feet, and a capacity of 73,000 tons. The pumping engines for emptying it are the most powerful known. The guaranteed time for emptying the dock is two hours and fifteen minutes, which necessitates delivering 540 tons of water per minute.

—Montreal Gazette: "If the remarks between the members of the Judicial Committee who heard the appeal in the prohibition case be a safe guide, the Privy Council opinion will be that the provinces have no power to prohibit the importation, manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages. Then a deep sigh will be heard by the provincial ranks, with plebeian voices dictating on their hands. The man who is a prohibitionist for votes is rarely a prohibitionist for prohibition."

—The Patriot is still trying hard to keep up the "Blue Rain" cry. Its effect must fall, in view of the growing prosperity of the country. What it says about the "National Poverty Policy" must be regarded as fallacious, when it is remembered that the revival of prosperity in the States is coincident with a new tariff which approximates to that of Canada—though still much the higher of the two. Whether or not Free Trade will bring great prosperity to Victoria, New South Wales, is yet to be proved.

—According to one organ L'Eclaireur of Quebec, Mr. Laurier has declared himself boldly for the re-establishment of Separate Schools in Manitoba, and has vigorously reproached the Government for not having interfered more promptly. According to the other, the Tribune of Winnipeg, "Mr. Laurier will stand on the broad principle of provincial rights, and decline to interfere with this province. We are sure Mr. Laurier does not believe in Separate Schools; he is too advanced and liberal a thinker to entertain them. It is to be hoped as the Mail and Empire says that in his coming deliverance the leader will be sufficiently clear to protect the journals which speak for him from conflicting versions of his policy."

—The Montreal papers report that an Order-in-Council has been passed giving permission to Messrs. Wallbank and Pringle, of Montreal, to construct dams and power houses along the Lachine Rapids. Work on the dam will be started immediately. In connection with this work the Lachine Rapids Hydraulic and Land Company, composed of Montreal capitalists, are applying to the Dominion for a charter, to which company the rights secured by Wallbank and Pringle will be transferred so soon as the charter is secured. The Mr. Wallbank referred to, is a son-in-law of Hon. W. Richards, of this Province. We hope and have little doubt that the large enterprise in which he is engaged will be completely successful.

NEWS NOTES.

Sixty-four Sable Island ponies were sold at Halifax last week. They brought from $3.50 to $50.

There is a girl in Webster, Mass., only twelve years of age, who weighs 310 pounds. Her name is Elsie Bates.

It is expected that the judgment of the Privy Council on the Prohibition appeal case will not be delivered until November next.

The Disciples of Christ have been in convention at Halifax. Mr. Miller, of this city, was present and preached the opening sermon.

It is rumored that Spain will support Great Britain in the Moroccan question in return for Great Britain's moral support against the United States in the Cuban difficulty.

Hon. John Costigan states that next spring a vessel will be sent to Hudson's Bay to guard Canadian interests here against American poachers, and to explore those waters.

A Japanese line of steamers between Japan and Australia will shortly be started, and thus afford an alternative route between British Columbia and Australia, via China and Japan.

The recent issue of Toronto 34 per cent. debentures has been sold in the London market at prices ranging from 99 1/2 to par. Applications were received for nearly double the amount of the issue.

Miss Flagler, who shot the colored boy in Washington, is held in $10,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury, before whom the case will come, notwithstanding the favorable finding of the coroner's jury, which dismissed the girl.

An eight-story building in the course of erection on the corner of Broadway and Third Streets, New York city, collapsed on Thursday forenoon. Several workmen were killed, and many were injured.

The Dominion Government has received a report from the quarantine officer at Victoria, B. C., that there is no possible danger of the introduction of cholera from China and Japan via the Pacific.

Mrs. E. T. Gardner, the Christian Endeavor Delegate from Acadia, Neb., who disappeared from Boston about the middle of July, has been located. She was found in Norwich, Conn., employed as a domestic in the family of a man named La Pense. She says she will not return to her husband.

It is almost certain that Lord Salisbury will offer Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador to Turkey, the post of Ambassador to Germany; but it is probable that Sir Philip will refuse the offer, as its acceptance would greatly defer his chances of obtaining the ambassadorship to France.

Committees are being selected to make arrangements to entertain the representatives of the Irish race from every part of the world who will assemble on September 24th, 25th and 26th in Chicago to decide on a policy to be pursued respecting Ireland and her people. Over 1,000 delegates are expected.

ROASTS MR. HEALY.

Justin McCarthy Issues a Manifesto to His Countrymen.

Justin McCarthy, M. P., has addressed the following manifesto to the Irish people in Great Britain and America. It is as follows:

Fellow Countrymen.—The election of a great coalition and anti-home rule majority to the House of Commons makes it my duty to point out to you that dissension in our ranks is ruinous to the national cause; that the only means by which we can hope to repair the disasters which discord and insubordination have brought upon us are through the restoration of discipline and a genuine observance of the Irish Nationalist party's pledges to act loyally together.

With a united party in a united country, even the present situation would afford no ground for despondency. The Tory and anti-home rule majority of 120, created in 1886, was overthrown in five years by vigor and consistency in the Irish united party.

No man can doubt that but for unhappy events in the autumn of 1890, the verdict in 1892 in favor of home rule would have been absolutely decisive.

Factionalism prevented this result. Unhappily this faction has continued since, and outbreaks in discipline in our own ranks have given the enemies of Ireland another lease of power in Great Britain.

In spite of all discouragements and difficulties the national spirit has once again asserted itself. Ireland voted with unquarrelable resolve, but it cannot be doubted that Ireland would have done far better still, and Great Britain would not have done so ill, had it not been for the action of the so-called Irish Nationalists, who have been endeavoring openly to bring back the coercionists to power, and still more lamentable blows aimed at the Irish party and the Irish national cause by one of our own colleagues at the most critical moment in the elections.

It would be almost impossible to over-estimate the disastrous effect of Mr. Healy's unfounded charges against his own colleagues at Omagh, made, as they were, on the authority of leading members of the party, and at a period of election when there was no possibility of counteracting their effect on the polls. Mr. Healy attended the Omagh convention without any commission from our party, and with no apparent object, except that of making this attack. The information on which he professed to act had been according to his own statement, in his hands for many months before. Had the charges been well founded, to make them at that particular moment, without one word of enquiry, or even notice to his colleagues, would surely have been an act of treason to his party and its cause. But when you remember that the charges are absolutely unfounded and untrue—grossly and maliciously untrue—what is to be said of the conduct of anyone who chose that moment to place this poisoned weapon in the hands of Ireland's foes? For these charges had been the principal stock-in-trade of the coercionists in Great Britain and factionists in Ireland.

It is with deep regret that I feel compelled to characterize Mr. Healy's action at the Omagh convention as disloyal to his party, and, even setting aside our own special obligations to each other, as a breach of the ordinary code of honor, and discipline essential to the existence of every political organization. The Omagh scandal is, unhappily, only the latest of a series of attacks on the unity and efficiency of the Irish party. Let us endeavor that it shall be the last. Convinced as I am of the injury such actions have already inflicted on our great national cause, and of the injury their repetition must ensure, I feel bound on the eve of the meeting of Parliament to address a respectful word of warning to our fellow-countrymen and to inform my colleagues frankly of the views I hold—views which, in case I am honored by a re-election to the chair of the party, it will be my duty to my utmost power to enforce. JUSTIN MCCARTHY.

A meeting of the Irish party will be held in London on Tuesday next, when, according to the opinion of those in touch with the feeling of the majority of Mr. McCarthy's supporters strong action will be taken against Healy unless he withdraws his Omagh charges and apologizes for them. It is quite possible that the meeting may result in a fresh secession of Healyites from the party to the number, perhaps, of twenty.

On the other hand, Mr. Healy replies in a two column letter in which he details minutely his position, justifies his actions, and repudiates the charge against him, and declares that what he said at Omagh he willfully adheres to. In the letter Mr. Healy says: "Neither you, nor the Irish party, nor any human authority, will secure from me either a withdrawal of the words I used at Omagh or an apology for them."

Five Lines n K and L. I find the people around here prefer Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to any other I have in stock. They are a wonderful pill. Send three dozen at once, I am nearly out. P. S.—Send by post, J. W. Ireland, Gourock.

The Labrador cod fishery is now reported to be most encouraging. The fishery is chiefly frequented by Newfoundlanders, whose stay at home fellows have also been doing well in gathering the harvest of the deep. The seal catch too, was a good one. Fortune seemed to have determined to make it up for the islanders for their late run of ill-luck.

"I am Cured of 30 Years Cured." MRS. P. CLONEY, of Charlottetown, formerly of Gargigan Bridge, P. E. I., writes: "I have used PRUSSIAN OIL for Lame Back that I have suffered from for twenty years. I have also used it for Dyspepsia, and in both cases it has given me the most wonderful relief. I can cheerfully and ably recommend it."

"USE IT AND PROVE IT." A full range of sizes of ladies' tan-colored kid gloves, seven stud lacing, worth $1.00. We want to clear this lot out and offer them at 50c per pair tonight. —Moore & McLeod.

Tonight—Flanellette-shirts for 20c; regatta-shirts for 50c, worth 75c.—J. B. MacDonald & Co.

Mr. Schreiber, while at the "Soo," visited the works of the Sault Ste. Marie Pulp Co., which is expected to prove a big thing for that part of the country, as it is twenty carloads of pulp a day. The mill will be one of the most complete in the country, and the company is also spending a good deal of money in the construction of a wharf and dock basin.

MOVEMENTS OF THE SOLICITOR-GENERAL.

Addresses in the West—Picnic at Tracadie to-day.

The Hon. J. J. Curran, Solicitor-General, accompanied by the Rev. Father Burke, came to town by the 1.25 accommodation from Alberton yesterday afternoon. While in the West he attended a picnic under the auspices of the C. M. B. A. of Alberton, at Kildare Capes, and in reply to a flattering address delivered a splendid address. After a brief allusion to the merit and high standing financially of the Association, he spoke for upwards of an hour on Canadian nationality, depicting in eloquent and poetic language the labors and sacrifices of the pioneers of the four great nationalities in planting civilization here and development our great heritage. The great Canadians who formed and watched over the Confederation came in for unstinted praise. Our government and institutions were declared to be in every regard superior to those of older and greater countries, and our future would certainly be a glorious one if all creeds, classes and nationalities recognized their responsibility and worked out in justice and unity their common matter how grave. We were all equally bound to perfect the work of confederation and this obligation could not be well discharged unless we loved peace and respect each other the others prize. He hoped that if the time ever came when other sentiments prevailed, at least the people of this beautiful Island would be found on the side of justice peace and right. The Solicitor-General was cheered to the echo when he returned his seat.

At Summerside, yesterday, while the train returned East was held a short time the citizens tendered Mr. Curran an impromptu but enthusiastic reception at the C. M. B. A. rooms, when after receiving a beautiful address read by Rev. D. J. G. McDonald, and having replied in most felicitous terms, Mr. Curran shook by the hand the great stream of prominent ladies and gentlemen who at that early hour had come out to meet and greet him.

At the Hon. gentleman's picnic at Tracadie with Hon. D. Ferguson where he speaks at a picnic. He will return to Government House this evening where he and Mrs. Curran are guests and on Monday cross to Picton en route to the Bras D'Or.

MR. GREENWAY'S CHARGE. (Montreal Star, Independent.) One of the Liberal policies for the settlement of the Manitoba matter is to withdraw the "remedial order" and let the minority appeal to the Privy Council. Let for this it is only fair to say that this is not known to be Mr. Tarte's policy, nor yet Mr. Laurier's policy; but it appears to be the policy of the Toronto Globe. And in so far as the Globe is the best settlement of this question is probably a compromise, it is a good policy. But just why the "remedial order" must be withdrawn and the minority must take a formal appeal before the Manitoba Government can do "justice" is not clear. As a matter of fact, the Manitoba Government faced that condition of things several years ago. There was no "remedial order." The minority was then appealing for justice. They then received the present law, which the Privy Council declares to be unjust.

"Exactly," the Globe might reply, "That was the result then; but a new condition has been created to-day by this very decision of the Privy Council. Let the Manitoba Government see what it can do now." By all means! And who hinders them? What, pray, is the remedial order but a declaration on the part of the Dominion Government that it practically accepts the decision of the Privy Council, and then passes the whole thing on to the Manitoba Government? There they have it—the new condition in its entirety. There is, first, the statement of the Privy Council that an injustice exists and there is, secondly, the statement of the Dominion Government that if no one else will do justice in the matter, it will. The Manitoba Government could not be better informed of the conditions that surround it. The remedial order gives its sole excuse for re-opening the question. For the Dominion Government to withdraw the remedial order would be, for itself, a declaration that it proposed to let an injustice continue, and, for Mr. Greenway, with the loss of the best reason he can give his people for amending the law. It is easy to see why Mr. McKenzie Bowell might object to carrying the odium attaching in some parts of the country to the remedial order, but why Mr. Greenway should object to having this odium borne by someone else is a mystery.

Mr. Greenway's opportunity is a magnificent one. He can propose a reasonable compromise which will very probably please the extremists on neither side, but which will take the wind out of the sails of popular agitation on both sides, will remove this exceedingly dangerous question from our politics, and will disappoint the whole crew of scheming politicians, Confederation-smashers and Annexationists who hope to make capital out of the country's peril.

Now see that your blood is pure. Good health follows the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla which is one of the great blood purifiers.
