Court Levies Fine Of $50

A fine of $50 and costs or 15 days in jail was meted out last night to Harold Ingham Bryenton Malpeque, on a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

The charge arose out of a highway accident at Cornwall, while the accused was travelling on the Trans-Canada Highway toward Borlen.

At last night's special session the accused requested that his plea be altered to guilty. This was accepted by the prosecution, represented by Alan K. Stables. The accused was not represented by counsel.

SOURIS STUDENTS RAISE FUNDS

Souris Regional High School recently contributed the sum of $215 to the support of a retarded children's class being conducted in the high school by the Retarded Children's Association of Souris. The students raised funds through the sale of Christmas cards under the direction of David Mullally, president of the Retarded Children's Association; David Mullally, grade 12 student; and Edward Stevenson, treasurer of the students' council.

New Organ Will Be Installed At Zion Presbyterian Church

Improvements and expansion of church facilities were indicated by an estimate of expenditures in the coming year presented at the annual meeting of Zion congregation in the church hall last night.

Trustees were authorized to consider the renovation of the lower hall and kitchen, and a new organ is to be installed in the church early this year.

Matron MacKenzie read the report of the trustee board. The Christian education building fund was eliminated in the report, and a substantial amount was set aside for the organ.

E.A. Cudmore expressed on behalf of the trustee board appreciation of the work of Zion Women's Auxiliary.

Conservation To Face Dink Is Probed

By RALPH CAMERON
Guardian-Patriot Staff Writer

An authority on installation of the machinery at this city by directors of the Exhibition Association, and the possibility of converting the Coliseum for wintered risk purposes.

The matter arose last year when the management of the Sports Arena announced its intention of ending its operation because of heavy financial losses. Carl Butler, owner of the arena, said losses had been incurred each year and this was the last season he intended to operate.

City officials were immediately approached to determine if they wished to continue operation of the arena in the knowledge that various investigations have been carried out to plan the feasibility of the plan.
