News on the French Riviera

Our family and friends may not have been lonely but they were certainly envious as the seven of us left for the French Riviera, Cote d'Azur.

When we arrived there was a definite temperature difference - only so that you'd notice - 45 degrees or so! The natives were wearing winter coats but we quickly donned our shorts and ole Bullwinkle had even come prepared - already wearing his.

We experienced the food - for some it was their first experience with French cuisine and it was reported that they said it often tasted like S - - T! Paying three or four dollars for a can of Coke didn't bother these people though and they always had a coca in hand.

enced the beaches and they really are topless. The boys were understandably excited as they walked up and down the beaches, Mote Carlo, Cannes, and Nice. The girls in th parades seemed to have a similar effect.

We bought lots of Nice T-shirts to bring home - C'est combien? Prenex-vous Visa? usually large or X-large - the size of us! And the floats and characters in the parades - the size of them!

O.K. One out of the seven days was a grey, less-than beautiful day and as we wandered we were brought back to the reality of less-than-perfect weather.

As we flew out of France four winds blew lonely, and strong too!

The purpose of this Volunteer Bank is to create a file of names and numbers of people who want to be involved in their university. This is how it works:

1. You must complete the form.
2. Drop it off at the desk (in the slot) or at The Barn.

This is all in the planning stage and hopefully all the bugs and flaws will be worked out. What we need is your support and assistance to make this service a beneficial one. So don't forget to fill out the volunteer file form.
