

Readers:

Well, it's finally here, the last issue of the year. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped out on the paper and the Student Union for their support.

It has not been a spectacular year, we have had our bad spots, as many have been quick to point out, but I feel there is a gradual change taking place in the SUN, hopefully towards the better.

I have learned alot this year in working with the SUN, the most prevalent being that you can't please everyone. My only regret is for missed opportunities for improvement.

Barring any unforeseen circumstances I will be holding this position again next year. I look forward to working for and with you and I encourage you to make an effort to get involved next year. You won't know how far your contribution will go to improve the paper until you try. Perhaps if we all work together we can attain a level of quality never before accomplished by the U.P.E.I. newspaper or any other.

Dear Editor:

Allow me to borrow some space in the paper to express my views and sentiments to the jerk who behaved rather foolishly at the party at Blanchard Hall on Friday night past.

It is of my opinion that anyone who has the nerve (and stomach) to do such a thing as you did, should be sent to some sort of institution. Be it a penal institution or a mental one. It is of general consensus that people who behave in the fashion that you do should not be able to attend university because you lack sound mind and judgement.

I'll admit that I don't know all that is to know as to why you did what you did, but all that I can say is no matter what the reason, I wouldn't wish what you did on my worst enemy especially you.

It should give us comfort though to think that some kind of imbecile like you roams campus. There is no telling what else you would stoop so low to do. Tell me, are you into beating up girls too?

Since I heard of the incident and have witnessed the great art work performed by you on the walls and floors of Blanchard Hall, I have been thinking of some descriptive adjective to describe you. Unfortunately, I have only come up with one, but, it's to my liking and I'm sure it will be to everyone else's liking also. Are you ready? COWARD!

- A concerned resident of Blanchard Hall, not only thinking of the safety and well being of Blanchard Hall residents but of all people on Campus.
