Vol. 1, No. 1

UNIVERSITY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

OCTOBER 3, 1969

Yes, that's what the first UPEI student newspaper was when UPEI opened its door in 1969. The dictionary definition of cadre reads "skeleton or framework" -- were they making a more subtle excuse than we do now for a disjointed paper? This titled was carried until 1977 when it was enlightened by The Sun. A Potato species ruled the front page between 1983-1986 with The Netted Gem. There must have been a coup staged by townies as the title was shortened to The GEM in 1986. Influenced by the right to free speech [and also wanting to disassociate itself with previous publications] UPEI X-PRESS was born last year.

These precious items were found in the very first issues of UPEI's student newspaper. We hope you enjoy them and appreciate them for the times they reflect.

SECRET AGENTS AT U.P.E.I? or NARC, NARC, WHO'S THERE? by Dennis MacKay

CHARLOTTETOWN (CPS) -- Despite R.M.C.P. reports that there aren't 300 special agents with Tommy Guns on campus, it is very likely that there are. The CADRE asked the following people to comment. Here are the comments on the question of Narcs on campus:

President Baker: "No, not that I know of. I think they are totally justified in investigating narcotics, but I hope they would contact me first."

Junior MacLeod: Chief of security farce [is this a deliberate typo? -ed.] U.P.E.I. "No, not to my knowledge, and I would know if there were."

John Smith: Dean of Arts, "I know nothing about it, but I would not be surprised if there were."

We also contacted the R.C.M.P. The Desk Officer said there were 300 narcs with Tommy Guns on campus, but he did not wish to be quoted. Asked for a comment, he said, "No comment."

Watch out for more BLASTS FROM THE PAST next week.....
