

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 22, 1892.

The Flag of the School.

In view of the raising of the flag over Upper Prince Street and West Kent Street schools, the following uniform plan for raising school flags, suggested by Mr. James Vroom, of St. Stephen, New Brunswick, will be interesting:—

- 1. The flag to be raised over the school building throughout the day (except in the case of a storm of unusual violence)...

On the receipt of the news of the death of the sovereign or an heir to the throne, the death or burial of a governor or general of Canada, lieutenant governor of the province, or premier of the Dominion government...

It is stated that a detective has been all over this Province to find out whether or not the law is being complied with in respect to the sale of tobacco...

Wedding Bells.

Frank Judson and Miss Nettie Burke were married in New Bedford, Mass., on the 13th inst. Miss Delia Judson, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid...

Personal.

Mr. W. S. Stewart and bride returned home last evening. His Lordship Bishop Courtney left for home this morning.

Mrs. Nancy A. Owen, of Ithaca, N. Y., was 101 years old on Friday last. Her health is good and faculties well preserved.

Mr. H. A. B. Williams, better known as "Alphabetical" Williams, agent for Howarth's Hibernics, is here making preparations for the appearance of his company at the Lyceum on the evenings of the 28th, 29th and 31st October.

There were registered at the Hotel Davie yesterday: Mrs Macdonald, Freetown; Miss Macdonald, do; Masters Harold and Roy Macdonald, do; Miss Dr. McLeod, Minneapolis; John J. Fairbairn, Montreal; W. H. Doerke, Toronto; John Baker, Montreal; J. P. Copeland, do; Emerson Wood, London, Eng; M. H. Henderson, Toronto; Robert H. Gray, do; O. S. Landan, do; Frank Burch, Montreal; F. Brock, St. John.

The Boston correspondent of the Halifax Herald says: A native of P. E. Island has been chosen to compile both the ode and the poem for Boston's Columbus day celebration. The gentleman is Henry O'Meara, of the Boston Journal, one of the most talented journalists of the city, and the honor of being selected in the connection mentioned is one of which any literary man might be proud.

Mrs. Madeline Ramsdell, of St. John, is now at Mrs. McGregor's, Prince Street, with a fine line of Hair Goods in Switches, Frizzes, etc., and will also make up to order, excellent Switches from combings. Ladies' and gents' Wigs a specialty. Madame Ramsdell will call upon the ladies during the day, and will be pleased to receive calls each evening.

Columbus.

Down in the darkness till earth crust doth part, Is the gold of the unwrought mine; Deep in recess of the lowliest heart Rare diamonds of genius may shine.

Onwards, eye on o'er the fathomless brine, From the far Castilian land; Neath an ardent sun, 'neath a pale moon-shine,

On with the aid of a womanly wit, Which served the high-set purpose well, For the squadron's glittering sails were lit Through fair Hispania's level.

On with the aid of a womanly wit, Which served the high-set purpose well, For the squadron's glittering sails were lit Through fair Hispania's level.

Onward, eye on, though the night shadows fly, Through the anniversary of the landing of the Loyalists.

Onward, through hurricane, cloud and shower; Still onward, what'er may defy. Calming, controlling a millions crew, The victims of loneliness and fear;
