LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP PINKHAM UPON THE GROWTH OF THE NORTH-WEST.

His Lordship Right Rev Dr. Pinkhan, Bishop of Saskatchewan and Calgary, exerts authority over territory five times larger than England and Wales. This involves onerous labor and great responsibility; indeed, His Lordship, who had just come out from England, and who is on his way to his vast diocese, contemplates resigning the bishopric of Saskatchewan, and devoting himself exclusively to that of Calgary.

The good bishop has been in the North-West for over thirty three years.

He has experienced hardship; he has ridden thousands of miles in waggons before the advent of the railways; he passed through the trying period of the first Riel rebellion in '70, and experienced narrow escapes; and he may be said to have been the first to start the school system of Manitoba on its way. He was archdeacon in Winnipeg for many years, and then became superintendent of public instruction.

His Lordship has been to England largely for the purpose of securing support for his work. Saskatchewan and Calgary are really two distinct dioceses in the Province of Rupert's Land. Each is a separate entity, with one bishop governing the two. The work is growing, but the need is great.

His lordship says that people in the east have little idea of the resources of the North-West. Alberta is one vast coal bed, while the Crow's Nest Pass Railway has opened up coal formations of the greatest value. The people in the east forgot what they owed to the North-West. His Lordship used to get assistance from the church in the east, but when the delegates to the general synod reached Winnipeg, and were treated to the characteristic hospitality of the place, they thought the whole country was rich. His Lordship invited them to go west, but they did not accept his invitation. However, assistance fell off. There are no endowments, of course, and the people are much scattered, and, for the most part, unable to give largely. They have ranchers and some well-to-do people, but the majority are poor, though loyal to the Church. In the Calgary diocese there are six self-sustaining churches, but His Lordship needs nine more clergy, whom he could place at once. The state, however of the finances do not permit of his engaging such. The whole face of the country has changed since His Lordship first saw it. There is a great future before it.

Rupert's Land sent delegates to the general synod, the first meeting of which was at Winnipeg. His Lordship rather regretted the action of the Montreal diocese which had caused some delay in getting the machinery to work. The majority of the delegates had come to a certain resolution. Montreal, not having got all it wanted in the matter of diocesan autonomy, should have obeyed the will of the majority, as their own delegate had done. But Dr. Davidson had talked a great deal and the machinery of the general synod, which was to be the final court of appeal, was not yet in operation.

With regard to English politics, his lordship said that while he was not a politician, he would say that he would be perfectly willing to make a present to Kruger of all the pro-Boers in England, including the Hon. Mr. Courtenay, a clever man, 'but an awful crank, you know.'

Asked to the ritualistic question, his lordship replied, you will find me as close as an oyster on that question. Not a single word."

His lordship, though he has seen hard service, states that he can do as good a day's work as any other man. He has enjoyed it to the full; he has seen the country change and grow in a wonderful manner; and he is hopeful of the future.

With regard to the Galicians and the Doukhobors, his lordship is of the opinion that while both in time, through their children and children's children, will make good settlers, it was rather much to ask of the small English population to absorb such numbers of foreigners, who have a, different language, different customst and a different moral code to their own settlers. If the latter was a hundred thousand strong he would not mind so much, but they are small as yet in numbers, and these people have their distinctive townships. It was a strain upon their respectability and character, to ask them to absorb such numbers of Galicians and Doukhobors. He was not a politician, but he doubted the wisdom of sending so many of these foreigners into the country to form themselves into destinctive townships, amid a small English-speaking population.—Montreal Witness.

CANADIAN BOY'S HAIR TURNED GRAY.

Lieutenant-Colonel Hudson's son, a member of the First Canadian Contingent, writes from Rondebosh, May 7: "You will no doubt be surprised to learn that I am almost completely bald. A number of my comrades have grey hair and there is no reason to be astonished at this. Young Williamson, of our regiment, who was wounded at Paardeberg, and who is now here, has hair completely white, still he is only 17 years and 8 months old. Just imagine the surprise of his mother when she sees him."

The shadow of the totality of the eclipse moved at the rate of 1,500 miles an hour. This beats Kruger's quick step out of Pretoria.—Ottawa Citizen.

CURING DYSPEPSIA

Is Simplicity When Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are Used.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets don't cause feverish over-stimulation of the digestive organs. Their effect is to strengthen and re-invigorate the stomach, while they are digesting the food.

In effect, Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets say to the worn-out, exhausted stomach: "You take a day off. Let me do your work for a while; you just take it easy, and rest." Then they go to work, and the effect is marvellous.

The food is digested, dyspepsia disappears, indigestion, heartburn, sour stomach, etc., vanish The stomach grows strong, healthy, vigorous, able to digest any food supplied to it The blood becomes pure, the nerves that were shattered by indigestion or dyspepsia become steady and healthy, and the irritable, fault finding man or woman becomes pleasant, genial, and sunny-natured. All because he or she used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the smaller tablets that are in every box.

The manner in which these changes are made is simplicity itself. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets act in place of the stomach till the stomach regains its strength. At the same time they tone it up and nourish it.

Try the treatment yourself. Give your stomach a holiday. Give Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets a chance. They'll positively do the work.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, each box containing a full double treatment, for stomach and bowels, are for sale by all druggists.
