Williams Blasts Three HR Yanks Defeat White Sox

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

The two pennant races exploded in a Hellzapoppin' afternoon of combat Thursday which saw the New York Yankees move within four games of Chicago's White Sox with a 4-3 victory over the American League leaders after the Milwaukee Braves had muscled back into the National League lead with an 8-5 victory over Brooklyn.

Chicago's Walt Dropo and Larry Doby and Yankees Billy Martin and Enos Slaughter were ejected in a wild first inning of fist swinging and tongue wagging at Comiskey Park as the Yankees won the series 2-1 and handed 10-game winner Billy Pierce his third defeat.

At Brooklyn, where the Braves took a half-game NL lead as Pittsburgh completed a four - game sweep over Cincinnati by beating sweep over Cincinnati by beating the Redlegs 3-2, Dodgers pitcher Don Drysdale and Braves' shortstop Johnny Logan got the heave-ho after a brawl that had most everybody in the act.

STREAK ON LINE

The defeats dropped Cincinnati to second and Brooklyn to fifth pending a night game at Philadelphia where the St. Louis Cardinals put their eight-game winning streak on the line against the Phillies.

New York defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-4 in the other NL game.

In the other AL games, where Ted Williams' bat provided the only fireworks, Detroit moved into third place with a 2 - 1 decision over Baltimore as the Boston Red Sox, powered by Williams' three home runs, whipped the Cleveland Indians 9-3.

A wild pitch by Yankee starter Art Ditmar that just missed Doby started the fuss in Chicago. The 6-1, 182 - pound Doby charged, swung and sent the 6-2, 185-pound righthander sprawling. Dropo and Slaughter then mixed it up and Martin started jawin' with Doby.

American League President Will Harridge sat in on the 28-minute melee.

RIVERA HOMERS

When they got around to playing baseball, Jim Rivera poked a two-run homer for a 2-0 Sox lead in the second inning. But the Yankees scored one in the third—the first run off Pierce in 26 innings—and then ended the little lefty's search for an eighth consecutive victory with a three-run fifth on doubles by Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle and singles by Bill Skowron and Andy Carey. Sherm Lollar homered for the other Sox run in the eighth.

Williams drove in five runs with his 15th, 16th and 17th homers of the season—the third three-home run game of his career and the second this year. Frank Malzone drove in three other Red Sox runs with a homer and double as Tom Brewer won his seventh on the fourth try. Early Wynn lost it for a 7-7 mark. Williams' third shot was off reliever Bob Lemon, making his first appearance since pulling a leg muscle May 24.

The Tigers scored in the sixth, on Charlie Maxwell's sixth home run in six days and J. W. Porter's Texas League double. John Tsitouris, a 21 - year - old right-hander who reported from Charleston of the American Association after the game had started, won in his first major league appearance, a 2 1-3-inning relief job.

WORDS EXCHANGED

Drysdale and Logan got into it in the second inning, after Billy Bruton's second home run had given the Braves a 4-0 lead. Drysdale hit Logan with a pitch and the two exchanged words as Logan strolled to first base. Logan then charged the mound to set things off. Both were ejected.

The Dodgers broke Bob Trowbridge's two-hit shutout spell with three runs in the sixth, two on Gino Cimoli's homer, then tied it fouer-all on Peewee Reese's third hit, a seventh-inning single. The Braves, shut out by reliever Ken Lehman, then tagged Clem Labine for four in the eighth, with Carl Sawatski's three - run homer the clincher.

Bob Friend six-hit the Redlegs for his fourth victory, striking out seven as the Pirates won their fifth in a row. A base-loaded sacrifice fly by Gene Baker beat Hal Jeffcoat in the ninth, breaking a two - all tie produced by Don Hoak's second home run of the game for Cincy. Ted Kluszewski made his first start since opening day and got one hit for the Reds.

Whitey Lockman and Ray Jablonski tagged two-run homers as the Giants scored five in the second to beat Dave Hillman. Red Schoendienst also homered for N. Y.

Washington was at Kansas City in an AL night game.

Yvon Durelle And Anthony Clash In Detroit Tonight

DETROIT (AP)—Yvon Durelle, a commercial fisherman who holds the Canadian light - heavyweight boxing championship, and Tony Anthony, who hopes to land the world title, clash here tonight in a 10-rounder at Olympia Stadium.

The Canadian abandoned his nets when the opportunity came to meet Anthony, No. 1 contender for the title held by Archie Moore.

"I'm losing money, but this is a big opportunity," said the 27-year-old veteran from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B. "Moore is ready to be taken, and if I beat Anthony I figure I'll be the guy to take him."

Despite Durelle's confidence, his 22-year-old opponent is a 3-to-1 favorite in the televised bout. Anthony gained the No. 1 ranking with his startling third - round knockout of Detroit's Chuck Spieser in this same ring two months ago.

A two-time Olympic fighter, Anthony has won 30 of his 34 bouts, 23 of them by knockout. He is unbeaten since he graduated from the middleweight ranks and plans to slug it out with the stocky Durelle just as he did with Spieser.

"I can't afford to look bad," said Anthony, who will have a four-inch height advantage. "Maybe I'll take some punches, but I think it'd be a mistake to stick and run. I have to try to beat him good."

Durelle has had five fights this year, winning four and losing on a third-round knockout to Clarence Hinnant. The record books show he has 40 victories in 56 bouts. One fight was called "no contest," there was one draw and 14 defeats.

"I've really had about 135 fights," he said. "The people who make up the record books never heard about a lot of my early fights in Canada. Actually I've been fighting for 12 years now."

Jimmy Dearmet Goes Into Early Lead In U. S. Open

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Jimmy Dearmet, a 47-year-old grandpa with an eager putter, fired a two-under-par 68 for the early first-round lead Thursday in the U.S. open golf championship, rocked by a violent storm and the abrupt withdrawal of Ben Hogan.

The youthful-looking Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., professional, a three-time Masters champion, sank a 40-foot chip and rolled in putts of 35 and 15 feet to take temporary charge over the world's best shotmakers at the Inverness Club.

At the 18th he pitched a beautiful iron shot from the rough to within eight feet of the pin but the bid for his fourth birdie of the round died less than an inch from the cup.

Demaret finished in bright sunshine after a tempestuous morning which saw a violent thunderstorms, with winds of 50 miles an hour, blow tents and sheds over the course.

COULDN'T PLAY

Earlier Hogan, a four-time winner and a favorite for his fifth, had shocked the tournament by announcing he couldn't play. He said he was plagued by a recurrence of an old backache and was unable to swing a club.

With part of the field still on the course, Demaret had a two-stroke lead over Marvin (Bud) Ward of San Mateo, Calif., 44-year-old former U.S. amateur champion, who had 70.

Tied at 71 were Peter Thomson, three-time British open champion from Australia, Donald Whitt, little known 26-year-old pro from Alameda, Calif.; and Stan Leonard, a 44-year-old internationalist from Lachute, Que.

Although Inverness' 6,919 well-soaked yards played much easier than expected, particularly because of the softened greens, not all the pros found the par-70 course a paradise.

Ed Furgol of St. Andrews, Ill., 1954 champion, took a costly eight on the 451-yard 17th yet finished with a commendable 75.

The storm delayed play for more than an hour and was so severe that the defending champion, Cary Middlecoff, a late starter, said two falling trees barely missed his car as he drove to the course.

Hogan said a backache, which has bothered him since 1946, had come back with such painful agony that he couldn't swing a club.

The tight - lipped master from Fort Worth was stricken Wednesday night and tried to doctor himself with ointment and hot pads. He showed up early today for his start but suddenly felt a revival of sharp pains.

A Toledo doctor, out on the Inverness Club course as a spectator, was summoned to the locker rooms. He suggested an hour's delay in Hogan's starting time to permit diathermy treatment. The U.S. Golf Association gave him 54 minutes. Hogan was taken to a downtown clinic and then brought back to the course where he dressed and went to the practice tee.

After hitting a few shots, he turned to the officials and said, "I don't think I can make it."

The first game of the season in the Island League was played last night at the Memorial Field with the Flyers edging out the Dodgers by the score of 6-4.

The Dodgers went into a short lived 2-0 lead in the fourth inning when Forbie Kennedy got the first hit of MacLean, a clean single, he scored on a wild pitch by MacLean after Buck Whitlock had singled. Carson grounded-totuo singled. Carson grounded out to drive in Whitlock with the second run of the game. Handrahan then struck out to end the inning. Establish Pheasant Hunting Ranch In Alberta Foothills

FALLIS, Alta. (CP) — An 800-acre pheasant-hunting ranch is being developed near this town 50 miles west of Edmonton.

To meet the problems of rapidly-increasing numbers of upland-bird hunters and of more farmlands being "off limits," two men are organizing the first public hunting farm in Canada.

Ken Kinnaird of Edmonton and Tom Walkenden of Jasper, Alta., plan to provide Edmonton and district hunters with ideal shooting within easy acess of the city.

Under present plans, hunters will be allowed to bag a daily limit of four pheasants for a fee of $20. Each hunter also will be given a professional hunting dog and, when requested, a guide.

The owners hope to receive concessions from the provincial game branch such as extended seasons, the right to set their own bag limits and permission to shoot both cocks and hens.

By mid - August the partners hope to release some 20,000 birds, both hens and cocks, and all will be mature birds.

At present Walkenden has 70 breeder birds with a ratio of seven hens to a cock and they are producing an average of 47 eggs a day.

The eggs are kept under such conditions that they can be held until such time as the five brooder houses and rearing pens are ready to handle the thousands of young chicks.

The chicks will be turned into raising pens and then into the three acres of enclosed flying pens where they will be able to develop their flying muscles. Then the birds will be released to the heavy cover of the 800-acre ranch.

Wasn't Cricket But It Was Fun

By JOSEPH MacSWEEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

PRINCETON, N. J. (CP) — Cricket, anyone?

Surprisingly enough, yes. Princeton University has a cricket eleven and there are dozens of others scattered around this northeast section of the United States.

Princeton's team boasts five doctors of philosophy, three graduate students and three undergraduates, including one Canadian, Tom Swabey of St. Catharines, Ont., three Indians, four Americans an' two Englishmen.

Dr. Bryan Stevens, a Yorkshireman who spent two years in Ottawa on a National Research Council fellowship, reports he has high hopes for the Princeton team, which won five of its first seven games this season.

NOT TOO FUSSY

Stevens, a research associate in Princeton's chemistry department, was a little rueful, however, about his grounds, or pitch.

"Just before we played the other day, there was a game of rugby, and before that lacrosse," he said. "You know that crickt requires something like a bowling green.

"It wasn't cricket, but it was fun."

Stevens, who has a quiet sense of humor and makes it clear the game is played for enjoyment rather than sharp competitive reasons, appeared happy that ex-baseball players are showing up well in cricket.

"They have a terrific eye and in some elements of the game are naturals," he said.

VETERAN PLAYER

President of the Princeton club is an alumnus, W. H. Sayen, who played in the 1900s with the last American cricket team to tour England. He i. said to be the only American with the right to wear the Marylebone Cricket Club tie and has written a book entitled A Yankee Looks at Cricket.

In Ottawa, Stevens played with the defence team in the Ottawa Valley Cricket League. He recently encountered a former teammate, Dr. Basil Darwent, now with the Catholic University, Washington, when Princeton defeated a British Commonwealth team.

Princeton also defeated Haverford College of Philadelphia, a team made up fully of American youths who developed "extraordinary" cricket savvy.

Schedule Adopted For City Softball League

A League schedule was drawn up and adopted last night at a special meeting of the City Softball League held in the City Hall under the chairmanship of Col. N. W. Lowther.

It was also decided that players put out of a game for insulting an official would be suspended automatically for one game with a greater suspension to be imposed if necessary by the executive. For an offense other than that against an official players will be banished only for the duration of the game in progress. A profanity ejection calls for an automatic suspension.

There will be no tie games in the League. Games must be played to a decision and in the event darkness interferes the game will be completed before the next scheduled game between the two teams.

All games are called for seven innings with five innings constituting a full game.

The registeration deadline is Saturday, June 15. Each team is allowed 15 players and the registeration fee per player is $1.00.

Following is the schedule for the second section:

Mon. June 17—B.Y.C. vs Barry's (Parkdale); B.I.S vs Ross Burner (Parkdale); B.I.S. vs Ross Burner (Old Daimond);

Wed., June 19—Barry's vs Ross Burner (High School); Jr. B.Y.C. vs B.I.S. (Old Diamond). Jr. B.Y.C. (Old Diamond).

Monday, June 24—Ross Burner vs B.Y.C. (Parkdale); Barry's vs B.I.S. (Old Diamond).

Wednesday, June 26—Ross Burner vs Jr. B.Y.C. (Old Diamond); B.I.S. vs B.Y.C. (Parkdale).

Friday, June 28—Jr. B.Y.C. vs Barry's (Parkdale).
