IN MEMORIAM

FERGUSON—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Ellsworth Ferguson who passed away 6 years ago.

Though six years have gone by,
Your dear memory lingers still,
Until the day we meet again,
I know dear one, it always will.

Audrey and daughters Diane and Debbie.

JONES—In loving memory of Mrs. A. Roy Jones who passed away Dec. 12th, 1950.

Her cherished smile and kindly ways,
Are pleasant to recall,
She had a smile for everyone,
And died beloved by all.

Lovingly remembered by husband and family.

IN MEMORIAM

JACK MacLEOD

The people of Grahams Road and surrounding communities, were saddened on the morning of November 26th when it was learned that Jack MacLeod had passed way very suddenly. To know a person who had the integrity, basic goodness and quiet character that Jack possessed left its mark on his many friends.

He will be sadly missed in the community, Prince Edward Lodge A.F. and A. M. Stanley Bridge and his church where he was an elder but more so in his home where he leaves to mourn his wife the former Mary MacRae and son Gerald, also two sisters, Miss Annie MacLeod and Mrs. Elmer MacLeod, French River.

The funeral was held on Thursday, November 28th from New London United Church.

It was largely attended by relatives and friends who came from far and near to pay their last respects to a very dear friend.

The service was conducted by Rev. L. M. Murray, Kensington, who spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved. The hymns sung were "Unto the Hills Will I Lift Up" and "Abide With Me". Mrs. Ray MacLeod, church organist had charge of the music.

The Masonic service was conducted by Past Master Ernest Dunning. The beautiful floral offerings paid silent tribute to the esteem in which he was held by his friends. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in New London cemetery. The funeral arrangements were under the direction of J.L. Davison, Kensington.

Honourary pall bearers were: Edgar Gillespie, Fred Campbell, Ralph Gillespie, Borden Campbell Ralph Dennis, Eric Gillespi.

Active pall bearers were Harold Mayhew, Douglas Cole, Hugh Goss, George P. MacLeod, Roy Brown, Duncan Cole.

Sleep on beloved, sleep
And take thy rest
We loved thee well
But Jesus loved thee best.

We wish to say Thank You to all kind neighbours and friends, who helped in any way in our recent sad bereavement, also for all floral tributes.

Mary MacLeod and Gerald.

IN MEMORIAM

J. FRANK VILLARD

It was with deep regret when it was learned that J. Frank Villard, well known plastering contractor of Milton, Mass., died in the Milton Hospital, after a brief illness on October 30, 1957, in his sixty-ninth year.

A native of New Zealand, P. E. I., Mr. Villard had lived in U.S.A. for the past forty - seven years during which time, he with his two brothers, the late Dalis and Laurence Villard, successfully initiated the plastering, contracting firm of "Villard Bros", of which he was the manager until his retirement in 1955.

The deceased who was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Villard of New Zealand, was of a friendly, genial disposition, ever popular in any group both young and old. Hhis ever benevolent presence will be missed at all the "Down East" functions, as he was at all times most loyal to his native Island Home. His ready charity to his less fortunate friends, his kindly advice, along with his zealous devotion to his church was an inspiring example to all who knew him, and one which will not soon be forgotten.

He is survived by his wife, the former Agnes Callahan of Woburn, Mass., a daughter Edwina at home, and a son Warren, all of Milton Mass. A sister Flora, Mrs. Wm. Hanlan of New Zealand, P.E.I. also five grandchildren to whim the sympathy of all is extended.

The funeral was held on November 2nd at nine o'clock to St. Agatha's Church, Milton. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his cousin Capt. Francis Ford U.S. Army Chaplain, who also conducted the commital service at the grave.

The pall bearers were William Konan, Edward Villard, James McCabe, Joseph Mallard and Richard and John Sweeney.

The numerous spiritual offerings, floral pieces, telegrams, letters and cards of sympathy, received, tangibly testified to the high regard in which the late Mr. Villard was held by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. S. R. Pendleton wish to thank friends and neighbours who were so kind and helpful during their recent bereavement, and all who sent flowers, cards and letters of sympathy.

Martin To Seek Leadership

OTTAWA (CP)—Former health minister Paul Martin indicated Tuesday he will be a candidate for the Liberal party leadership, to be vacated next month by Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent.

Former external affairs minister Lester B. Pearson announced last week he will be a candidate at the party's leadership convention Jan. 14-16.

Mr. Martin, commenting on published speculation that he intends to announce his availability in Windsor, Ont., Friday at a meeting of the Essex East Liberal Ascoation, said:

"Whenever I make my announcement it will be to my constitutents.

"I am not saying that it will be next Friday. There will be other meetings after Friday's. But what I have to say about this will be to my constituents."

Mr. Martin said he had not yet chosen the occasion for announcing "what I have in mind."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FELIX DOIRON

The death occurred in the Western Hospital, Alberton, on Thursday morning, November 7th of Mrs. Felix Doiron of Duvar in her 73rd year. The late Mrs. Doiron was the daughter of the late Mary O'Hearn and Peter Poirier of Howlan.

In 1908 she married Felix Doiron of Duvar. Of this union the following family was born: Peter and Paul of Duvar; Robert and Anthony of Ontario; Margaret) Mrs. Jerry Arsenault, (Ursula) Mrs. Anthony Finnan of Howlan, (Helen) Mrs. Oscar Gallant of Halifax; (Bernice) Mrs. Howard Arsenault of Carleton, Lot 6; (Helen and Ferdinand died in infancy.

Mrs. Doiron was ill for a long time but bore her suffering with Christian fortitude and was never known to complain. She had entered almost every hospital on the Island where she was tenderly treated for a malignant disease which caused her death having entered Western Hospital on Tuesday, November 5th, where she received the last rites of the Catholic Church of which she was such a devout member, having attended mass until the Sunday previous.

Her children all were present at her wake with the exception of her eldest son Peter, who was so ill at the time. Her only sister (Margaret) Mrs. Frank Gallant with her husband, motored from Boston, Mass., to be present at her wake and funeral. Also present were a half sister and brother (Edith) Mrs. Jerry Gallant and Firmin Perry of Howlan.

Her largely attended funeral was held at St. Anthonys on Saturday morning with Rev. Clarence Pitre her beloved pastor as celebrant. Many mass cards and beautiful floral tributes were silent testimonies of how she was held in life.

Her pall bearers were her four sons-in-law, namely Oscar Gallant, Howard Arsenault, Anthony Finnan and Jerry Arsenault; a nephew Vincent Perry and Peter Gallant. May her soul rest in peace.

IN MEMORIAM

FERGUSON—In loving memory of Ellsworth Ferguson who died December 12th, 1951.

IN MEMORIAM

FREDERICK J. GREGORY

Relatives and friends were saddened to hear of the passing of Frederick James Gregory at his home on November 12th. The late Mr. Gregory although suffering from heart trouble for some time, death came suddenly and unexpectedly. Mr. Gregory was attending his daily chores and had retired for the night when he was stricken and passed away before medical aid could be summond.

The late Mr. Gregory was born in Parkdale, November 1st, 1898, and was the son of the late William Gregory and Levina Pigott.

Mr. Gregory when only 17 yrs. old joined the 105 Battallion and went overseas in 1916. Later he was transferred to France with the 13 Black Watch Battallion in which he was wounded and taken prisoner until the end of the war. He returned home in 1919 where shortly after he took up Employment at the Experimental Farm until 1940. Then he again joined to serve in the Veterans Guard in Ripples, N.B. for four years when his health forced him to give up a career he loved.

He then came home to enjoy the comfort of his home and family. Not able to work,. he spent his time with his many friends he made through his years of many travels.

He was loved by the young as well as the old. His home was a meeting place for everyone. Always met with a welcome smile and a friendly handshake. His large family took part in all the different sports in which he went along and enjoyed every minute with them.

The late Mr. Gregory leaves to mourn his passing besides his wife Carrie McIntyre, seven sons and six daughters, namely, Earle in Calgary, Gorden in Alberta, Clifford, (Sam) in Indianopolis, Warren, Helen, (Mrs. Neil MacCallum) Joan (Mrs. G. Shepard) Shirley, Mrs. Sheldon Jordan), Arlene (Mrs. Donald Campbell, Glenda (Mrs. Joe Gallant) all in Charlottetown; Eleanor, Lloyd and Wendell at home, besides 17 grandchildren; also three brothers George in Parkdale, Robert and Hurdis both of Winnipeg; also one sister, Mrs. James McAleer of Charlottetown.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from Trinity United Church and was conducted by the Rev. A.F. MacLean, assisted by Rev. G.H. Christie. The choir beautiful rendered "Abide With Me".

The Canadian Legion attended in a body.

Pall bearers were Messrs Herb Cannon, Milton Cannon, Leo MacDonald, James Andrews, Ollie Douse, Augustus Dowling. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Peoples Cemetery.

Subway Strike Is Continuing

NEW YORK (AP)—Threats of wholesale dismissals from their jobs failed today to deter a rebellious group of motormen from continuing their strike on New York City's subways.

Members of the Motormen's Benevolent Association carried the strike into its third day, ignoring warnings from the Transit Authority that they will be dismissed if they do not return.

Backing the Transit Authority, Mayor Robert F. Wagner warned the strikers Tuesday that they are causing great economic hardships to the city as well as jeopardizing their own incomes and security. The subways handle more than 4,500,000 fares daily.

BREAKING STATE LAW

He said he feels few strikers realize they are breaking state law which imposes dismissal or severe penalties on civil service workers who strike against government agencies.

Governor Averell Harriman also urged the strikers to return to work.

The MBA, backed by six other craft unions, is seeking to break out from a system-wide labor contract with Michael J. Quill's Transport Workers Union.

The united front of craft groups claims a membership of more than 16,000 of the city's 31,917 hourly rated employees.

The New York Central Railroad reported Tuesday night that the largest commuter train in its history, a Mount Vernon local, left Grand Central terminal with 1,700 persons on 12 coaches and made 12 stops in the Bronx.

VOTE MONDAY

A representation election to decide on one union to bargain with the authority on behalf of all subway workers is scheduled for next Monday.

Said Quill: "I promise that if the TWU loses we'll get out of the subways."

Frank Zelano, who heads the striking motormen while their leaders are in jail, scoffed at Quill's offer and said that the Transit Authority "gave us the same privilege" before the strike.

"It's up to the Transit Authority to make the next move," Zelano said.

STORK WON'T WAIT

SHANNON AIRPORT, Ireland (Reuters) — A baby was born Tuesday night to a Hungarian refugee shortly after an American airliner she was in landed after circling the airport unable to land because of fog. The mother 22-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Raics, was attended in the plane by a 20-year-old New York stewardess, Lilian Steigerwald, making her first flight.
