NOVEMBER 13, 1885.

Principles Wanted.

THE following is what the Montreal Witness has to say on the situation. The Witness is more confirmed in its Gritism than its near neighbor, the Family Herald and Weekly Star. The latter claims to be independent in politics, and so it is to a certain extent, but its readers will invariably find that for the one good word it has to say for Sir John's Government, it has ten for the Grit Opposition :—

"The Liberals of Montreal have called a meeting of the judicious and the zealous of the party for the purpose of thoroughly organizing for the work during the approaching elections. They ascribe their failures hitherto to the lack of thorough organization, and are determined that, in the district of Montreal at least, the next election, which is generally looked for next year, will not find them unprepared. Organization is highly necessary, is in fact indispensable, but it is not the prime necessity. It seems to us that what the Liberals of Canada need most of all is clearly defined principles, which it will be worth while organizing to carry out, which will inspire enthusiasm enough in Liberals to make organization easy, and which the electors will consider apart from the question of the outs and ins. Their present attitude toward many questions is such as to create indifference among many in the ranks of their own party, without in any way winning support from their opponents. For instance, as to the fiscal policy of the country, they are neither Free Traders nor Protectionists, and, consequently, disgust Free Trade Liberals, without at all allaying the suspicions of Protectionists. While the majority of the party both in Parliament and in the country are in favor of prohibition, and it is almost certain that if a majority of Liberals were returned a prohibitory measure would be carried, yet the party does not pledge itself to prohibition. The Liberals have, therefore, the opposition of the liquor party without support of the prohibitory party. There are local questions of importance which the Liberals do not raise and pledge themselves to solve. Organization without any policy worthy the name will not effect much for a party which is nothing if not one of principle.

Loss of the General Middleton.

MR. JOHN MCDONALD, of the firm of McDonald, McDonald & Co., Souris, arrived from St. John's, Nfld., last evening. He was on board the General Middleton, which was wrecked at Rose Blanch. From him we learn that on Friday, the 31st Oct., the General Middleton sailed from Bras d'or Lake, bound for Newfoundland. The wind southwest, blowing hard. At 3 p. m. the wind increasing to a gale. The schooner layed too until 4 p. m. of the 31st Oct., and made sail again. The wind was northwest. She passed Cape Ray at 1 p. m., and sighted Rose Blanch light at 5 o'clock The weather looked bad, and the wind was northeast. The captain thought it prudent to harbor the vessel. He had a pilot on board, and got nearly into the harbor where the schooner mistayed. He dropped anchor, but the chains parted at once. The schooner then went among the rocks and became a total wreck. The crew barely had time to get into the boat (loosing every thing,) when the schooner was dashed to pieces. The boat landed at Rose Blanche. All were kindly treated by Mr. Fourneaux and Mr. Sorsolid, who showed every kindness to Mr. McDonald, the Captain, and the crew.

Sons of Temperance at Cornwall.

On last Tuesday evening a large and enthusiastic temperance meeting was convened in the Methodist Church. The meeting opened with singing and prayer, after which the Rev. Mr. Dodge briefly stated the object of the meeting. Wm. Boyle, Esq., being called to the chair, referred to the importance of the temperance work, and the duty and value of organized efforts.

Geo. W. Millner, P. G. W. P. of the Sons of Temperance, then delivered a stirring address, and was followed by P. G. W. P., R. M. Barrett. The addresses were listened to with marked attention, and at the close thirty-five persons gave in their names applicants for a division, when Mr. Barrett, assisted by Mr. Millner, instituted "Excelsior Divison," with the following officers :—

W. P.—William Boyle.
W. A.—Lavinia Howard.
R. S.—Charles Kiely.
A. R. S.—Alex. Murchison.
F. S.—Mary McPhee.
T.—Arch. Stitson.
Chap.—Rev. W. W. Lodge.
C.—Pope Howard.
A. C.—Mary E. Crosby.
I. S.—William Smith.
O. S.—Thomas Collins.
Acting P. W. P.—James McDonald.

MYSTERIOUS rumors, says the Halifax Chronicle, are afloat regarding a schooner which left here in September for St Pierre, Miq , with a cargo of liquor and tobacco. Her cargo, which was in bond, was, it is said, landed a short distance to the eastward of here. The vessel has not since been heard from. It is rumored that she went to P. E. Island in disguise and in ballast, and took a cargo of potatoes under a false name thence to New York.

MESSRS. TICE & CAVANAGH have placed a light in front of their Livery Stable, Grafton Street, which they intend continuing every night until the electric light is completed. The citizens in that vicinity will appreciate this kindness. Since these gentlemen have started the livery business, their trade has increased to such an extent that they have been obliged to add to their premises a large waiting room, where parties can, with comfort, remain until their teams are ready.

MR. R. BAGNALL, of Hunter River, recently weighed 85 turnips which aggregated a total of 1,088 lbs. or 12¾ lbs. to each turnip. We consider this the best growth of the season in any part of the Island. This is ahead of Mr. Oaks, of Crapaud. Mr. Bagnall says he can still beat this if necessary.

Smallpox in the City.

NINE CASES DISCOVERED.

THE city was last evening thrown into a fever of excitement over the announcement of Dr. Jenkins that several cases of smallpox existed in our midst. The authorities were at once informed, and the Health Officer, Dr. Johnson, took charge of the infected district. He flagged the street on which the houses are situated at both ends, and placed the police and several constables in charge of the street and houses theron.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held this morning. Dr. Johnson, who was present, informed the Board that seven cases existed in the city. Four were in one house, that of widow Thompson, which is situated on Long Street. Two of these were critical cases, and two were developing. In the house next to Thompson's the Health Officer found another case, that of Mrs. O'Hara. She was suffering slightly from the disease. In another house a girl named Way was sick of the disease, and in another Mrs. Chilton. William Jones, a sailor on board the bark Lucy Pope, was also found suffering from symptoms of smallpox—contracted, it is supposed, at Thompson's.

The Health Officer urged upon the Board the necessity of procuring an hospital outside of the city where the victims could be removed immediately after they contracted the disease.

The Mayor, Councillors Crabbe and Morris, and Dr. Jenkins, were appointed a committee to act in conjunction with the Health Officer and Quarantine Officer, and were instructed by the Board to use every means in their power to eradicate the disease.

The greatest unanimity prevailed at the meeting, and the members of the Board are determined not to spare money in their efforts to prevent the spread of the epidemic in this city.

It is difficult to find out the origin of the disease. The Thompson family have been ill for several weeks. One of the children first took chicken pox. This one got well, but another, five years of age, also took the same disease, died after a short illness, and was buried on Sunday. In the meantime James, the eldest of the family, and three others became ill, and were under medical treatment for ordinary ailments. Last night Dr. Jenkins visited the family, and on brief examination pronounced their malady smallpox. A subsequent examination also brought to light the other cases above stated.

To-day Dr. Johnston made a personal inspection of all houses in the infected district, and examined all the inmates of houses on Long Street.

NOTES.

William Jones, who is suffering from smallpox symptoms, was this afternoon removed to the Marine Hospital in charge of Dr. Warburton. The Lucy Pope was, after his departure, thoroughly fumigated.

The report circulated that smallpox exists in the family of Mr. B. Pickard is without foundation.

The house of a family called Way in Gay town has also been isolated.

A meeting of the clergymen of various denominations was held in the vestry of St. Paul's Church to-day, and Rev. C. O'Meara was appointed to attend all patients suffering from Smallpox.

WOULD it not be well for some of our druggists to import a quantity of Lane's celebrated Micmac Remedy. A gentleman who has experience with it says it is a certain cure and preventative of smallpox.

Another case of smallpox has been discovered, making nine altogether in the city. Mrs. Began, who resides on Long Street, is the victim.

A house on Queen Street, occupied by Mr. James Breen, has been isolated, as members of the family yesterday visited one of the houses on Long Street which was infected with the disease.

The old Insane Asylum has been secured from the Local Government It will be used as an hospital for all patients suffering from smallpox, and will be under control of the City Board of Health. Country patients will be admitted and we learn their expenses will be paid by the Local Government.

The offices of all the physicians in the city to-day were besieged by men, women and children, anxious to be vaccinated.

The patients will be removed to the Hospital to-morrow. Hereafter, all parties showing symptoms of smal-pox will be removed to the Hospital without delay, by the Board of Health.

The Convents and the City Schools have been closed until Monday.

THE steamer Worcester arrived from Boston yesterday morning with freight and the following passengers :—James McDonald, H. M. Customs ; John Bertram, Henry Allan, Miss Lucy McCurdy, Mary E. Hurrey, Josie Anderson. Katie McSwain, John Nickerson, Alex McLean. She sailed this morning with a large freight and the following passengers :—Robert Troy, T. Burns, David Butcher, John Mullen, Rose Murray, A. Gamble.

To gain the public confidence is essential to business success, and it can only be gained by a steady course of faithful dealing with them. It is by this course that Messrs Tuckett & Son have secured the great success of their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. This confidence is not only a source of business to the firm. but also a source of economy which the consumers get the benefit of. The merchant never loses a moment of time in examining the quality of tobacco. The name fixes the quality as absolutely as the mint stamp fixes the value of the guinea. It is not even necessary for the commercial traveller's trunk to be burdened with a sample of "Myrtle Navy," all his customers know what it is, and know in an instant when it has been supplied. There is no room for any dispute about it. No waste of time or postage in writing complaints about it. These may look like trifles to the uninitated, but they save money, and enable merchants to perform the work of distribution at the smallest possible cost. They are part of the reasons why the finest quality of tobacco grown can be sold at so cheap a price.

BIG HORSES.—At the recent horse show in New York two remarkable animals were on exhibition. One is the monster draught horse Jumbo, 8 years old, 19½ hands high, and weighing 2,400 pounds. The other is Samson, Jumbo's comrade. They look like twins, and weigh together just 4,000 pounds, which proves that they are good horses.
