PALACE OF THE SUN. Magnificent Ruins of Very Ancient Cities in Arizona and New Mexico. There are many remarkable ruins and relics of what were once in the very long centuries ago, cities in the great south-west, peopled by an indigenous and civilized population.

The capital of this extinct empire is supposed to have been situated in Pennsylvania, Arizona, the ruins of which are traceable along the Gila river, in what are known as the Casa Grande. Relics of the structure have been found in the ruins of this ruined city, and these are often described in terms of grandeur to the prehistoric columns and mighty archways that speak in imperishable stone of the magnificence of ancient Egyptian cities.
