CHARLOTTETOWN BOOT AND SHOE FACTORY.

SPRING, - - - 1887 - - - SPRING.

WE must thank our friends and the public generally for their ever increasing patronage since we have commenced business.

Our Boot & Shoe Factory, in starting, had many difficulties to overcome, and we are glad that to-day those difficulties have been surmounted, and we are now well able to compete with the best Boot and Shoe Factories abroad.

Some of the advantages purchasers have in buying from us are, saving of freight, ordering goods when you want them (not six months before), getting them without delay—which saves carrying a large stock which deteriorates on the shelves.

Our leathers are bought directly from the tanneries, thereby saving commissions which many factories have to pay.

We are more determined than ever to give the BEST OF SATISFACTION and to merit the whole of the Island's patronage.

We hope to see many new industries arise, thereby increasing the prosperity of the "Gem of the Sea."

Irish National League.

The following correspondence is published:—

"HOUSE OF COMMONS, LONDON, March 23, 1887. HON. JOHN FITZGERALD, LINCOLN, Neb.:

"The Coercion Bill proposed to-night in the House of Commons is the eighty-seventh since the Act of Union eighty-seven years ago. It is also the most stringent, tyrannical, and uncalled for by the state of affairs in Ireland. Never before has a Coercion Bill been proposed when crime was so rapidly decreasing, as compared with previous years. The measure is aimed against all open agitation, and appears to be expressly designed for driving discontent beneath the surface. It places all public speakers, writers and conductors of newspapers absolutely at the mercy of Stipendiary Magistrates holding their office at the pleasure of the crown. It condemns the Irish speaking peasant of rack-rented Kerry to the tender mercies of a packed jury of Orangemen or Landlords, or to a jury of Englishmen at the Old Bailey in London. The Liberal Party, headed by Gladstone, stand as one man against this iniquitous measure, and will fight tooth and nail to prevent its passage. It is impossible to believe that even the present House of Commons will continue to follow the Tory Government in their mad course, and good judges consider the measure will break and ruin the cabinet. We must, however, prepare for the worst, and I confidentially appeal to the American people for their sympathy and support which they have never withheld from a people struggling for liberty.

PARNELL" Mr. Fitzgerald's reply:—

"LINCOLN, Neb., March 29, 1887. CHARLES S. PARNELL, House of Commons, London.

"Cable received. League will redouble efforts. Ireland secure of American sympathy and support in the coming crisis. Nebraska Legislature to-day by unanimous vote passed resolutions sympathizing with Ireland and condemning Tory policy of coercion.

"This and similar manifestations throughout this free country give the lie to slanders of English press that true Americans do not sympathize with Ireland. The great liberty-loving people of the United States are entirely in sympathy with Ireland's struggle for Home Rule.

JOHN FITZGERALD, President I. N. L. A."

The following resolutions passed through both houses of the Nebraska legislature by a unanimous vote, and were immediately cabled to Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Parnell over the signatures of the President of the Senate and the speaker of the House of Representatives:

"WHEREAS, The Government of Great Britain, in defiance of the wishes of the Irish people, and of the express will of the peoples of Wales and Scotland and of the democracy of England, deny the Irish people a responsible government, and threaten them with the infliction of laws that will trample on every vestige of personal and constitutional liberty and must only end in bloodshed, if not in the ruin of the Irish people; and

"WHEREAS, The Irish people have always been steadfast and faithful friends of American liberty, fighting for its achievement and dying for its preservation, and so bound up with us by ties of blood and honorable memories that our hearts are greatly moved by their noble struggle for human freedom;

"Resolved, That we condemn the Irish policy of Lord Salisbury and his cabinet as a violation of every principle of constitutional law and justice, as inhuman in conception and tending not only to injure the people of Ireland, but to imperil the safety of the British empire and to estrange the good will and friendship of the American people who can never sanction a policy that conflicts with justice and liberty.

"Resolved, That we extend to Mr. Parnell and his co-laborers, and to the Irish nation our heartfelt sympathy and encouragement to continue their saintly struggle under the auspices of national and responsible government, Ireland shall once more enjoy peace and happiness.

"Resolved, That we honor the noble stand taken by Mr. Gladstone and the enlightened democracy of Great Britain, and express our confidence that the triumph of their principles of justice and liberty to Ireland will prevail over the barbarous and unrighteous policy of the Tory government. That the speaker be instructed to cable a copy of these resolutions to the Hon. Charles Stewart Parnell and Hon. W. E. Gladstone, House of Commons, London.

The Smallness of the World.

I was one day in London, walking down the Strand, while a gentleman who was accompanying me was relating to me a somewhat startling incident in which he had been an actor.

He and a friend, while bathing in the Amazon river, narrowly escaped being destroyed by a huge shark, which suddenly joined their company, and abruptly terminated their aquatic gambols in the tropical stream. My friend related the details of their escape, and extolled the bravery of his companion on that occasion. Then, naturally, he expressed his regret at the unlikelihood of their ever meeting again; and while pivoting in the most conclusive way that it was quite impossible they ever should do so, he suddenly exclaimed: "Why, my goodness, here he is!" And behold! in that crowded thoroughfare, and shaking hands vigorously, stood these two men, neither of whom expected to see the other again!—Rose Eyttinge, in the American Magazine.

The Trot for Fortune.

The postponed trot at Fortune took place on Thursday, 31st ult. There was a large number of sporting men of the vicinity in attendance. Three horses started; Fortune Queen, owned by Wm. R. Dingwall, Fortune Girl, owned by Wm. H. Webster, and Island Boy, owned by D. McInnis.

In the first heat the horses got a fair start, but inside of the first quarter mile the Fortune Queen showed that she was master of the situation, but before she arrived at the wire she was closely followed by the Fortune Girl.

Second heat. In the lead off the horses got a good start. The three horses trotted for all they were worth, but the superior speed and enduring wind of the Fortune Queen, bore her in handsomely fifty yards ahead, followed by the Fortune Girl, who shows pluck and good endurance.

In the third heat the pluck of the Fortune Girl was displayed by her keeping neck and neck to the Queen, but she was about fifty yards behind at the end of the race.

The race resulted as follows: Fortune Queen, red mare, owned by W. R. Dingwall, 1st; Fortune Girl, owned by W. H. Webster, 2nd; Island Boy, owned by Capt McInnis, 3rd.

The race was one of the most successful ever held on Fortune ice, and all the spectators left with a good impression of all the horses that took part in the race.

A Busy Pastor.

The Detroit Free Press says: "Rev. Edward Judson, D. D., a son of Rev. Adoniram Judson, the noted pioneer missionary, is a veritable chip of the old block. Five years ago he left a large and fashionable church and large salary at Orange, N. J., to labor as a missionary among the poor of New York. He preached on the streets for a long while, and then took charge of the Bereau Baptist Church, corner of Downing and Bedford streets, whose membership has been increased to 700 from 100. It is a hive of religious activity. It supports seven homes for aged people, provides employment for indigent members, and has a tract repository; its first tract being written by Channoy M. Depew. All the tracts are illustrated. A hundred girls are taught sewing school. It has also a fresh-air fund, a flower mission and an ice water fountain. Several missionaries are kept at work among the poor. Mr. Judson will celebrate the centennial birthday of his father in 1888 by erecting a memorial church. To pay for it he is soliciting a dime from each Baptist in the entire world."

Why throw away so much hard-earned money trying worthless medicines, when for 35 cents a remedy can be procured that will cure coughs, colds, sore lungs and croup? Give it a trial. Adamson's Balsam will do it. Trial bottles 10 cents. dy w 1w

The Only One He Has.

AN INDIAN AGENT'S INGENUOUS EXCUSE FOR SHOOTING A MAN IN SELF-DEFENCE.

The Indian Commissioner at Washington has received the following letter from Indian Agent E. C. Osborne, at the Ponca Pawnee and Otoe Agency, Indian Territory, under date of April 2: "With a profound sense of regret I have to report that in discharging, yesterday, E. M. Smith, a farmer at the Otoe agency, for general bad conduct upon the agency, but chiefly because of his ungovernable temper, which was continually being turned loose upon both employes and Indians, I had to kill him in self-defence. He had repeatedly threatened to kill the clerk in charge, Mr. Young, who reported his conduct and asked that he be discharged. I went to Otoe to explain to him my reasons for discharging him, to hear his defence if he had any, to pay him his salary for the past quarter, and to dismiss him. While yet quietly and calmly discharging the duty he made a violent attack upon the clerk in charge, whom he wounded in the arm and doubtless thought he had killed, and then turned upon Mr. Justice, the agency blacksmith, and myself, with a cocked and levelled revolver and with the manner of a maniac, when I shot him dead. I am thoroughly convinced that I saved three lives in taking him, and when it is considered that one of these three was my own, and the only one I have, I trust I may be exonerated."

Anti-Coercion.

A POWERFUL APPEAL FROM GLADSTONE.

On the 9th inst. Gladstone issued to the miners in the North of Great Britain, a majority of whom are enthusiastic followers of his, the following letter which amounts to a manifesto: "I cannot refrain from calling your attention to the meeting which is to be held in Hyde Park next Monday, and to which, I understand, tens of thousands of the workmen of London intend generously to devote their holiday. If ever there was a time when it was to the interest of the English workman to bethink himself this is the time. It is the first time when a coercion bill, if passed, is to be passed by England's vote alone, against the voices of Scotland, Ireland and Wales. It is the first time when such a bill will have been passed under the sanction of the house-holders at large, who were never enfranchised before the last election in 1855 and 1866. It is first time coercion has been proposed without any attempt by the ministry to show what we know they cannot show—a state of exceptional and flagrant or growing crime. If England is to coerce Ireland for crime, Ireland can apply that relatively to population she has less crime than England. In my opinion the rejection of the bill is even more needed by England than by Ireland. For Ireland it is a question of suffering, and she knows how to suffer; for England it is a question of shame and dishonor, and to cast away shame and dishonor is the first business of a great nation. In 1876 a meeting of London workmen first gave effectual force to the movement for Bulgaria which brought about the election of 1880. May the meeting of Monday next ring the death knell of the worst, the most insulting and most causeless coercion bill ever submitted to parliament."
