A GOOD TIME.—At St. James' Hall this evening. Call early.

A WORD IN SEASON.—Christmas is coming, but the people will not know where to go for bargains unless you advertise.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY.—The musical and literary entertainment of the Methodist Brick Church Sunday School will be held on Thursday evening 20th inst., the night after Christmas.

LIVE STOCK SHIPMENTS.—Montreal advices state that the export of live stock by the St. Lawrence route reached its highest point this year, viz.: 85,053 head of cattle and 58,983 sheep. Last year the figures were 60,828 cattle and 41,161 sheep.

REMOVED.—Mr. W. W. Clarke has removed his office from Queen's wharf to Hyndman's building, corner Queen and Water Streets, (old telegraph office) where all persons wishing to see him on express or steamship business will find him at the usual hours.

FOR MORE THAN A GENERATION, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been before the public, and its popularity was never greater than at present. As a remedy for the various disorders caused by constitutional taint, this medicine has no equal. The demand for it is prodigious.

MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.—The Willing Workers' Tea and Fancy Sale in St. James' Hall, this afternoon and evening, will be the event of the season. The management is in excellent hands, and a pleasant time is guaranteed all who attend. Tea will be served at six o'clock.

BROKE HIS LEG.—The Moncton Transcript says: Mr. William Morrell, aged over 57, who recently moved from Prince Edward Island to Sunny Brae, fell on the ice last Saturday and broke his leg near the hip joint. Dr. Ross, who attended him, fears that owing to his extreme age his recovery is doubtful.

SULLIVAN AND LANNAN.—John L. Sullivan has signed a contract with Harry Miner to box in two of his theatres in New York during the week of December 16. The champion is to receive $2,000 for the engagement, and Joe Lannan, who is to spar with him, will get 150 and a liberal allowance for expenses.

NEW JERSEY JUSTICE.—A queer decision by a New Jersey justice of the peace is reported. John Wolf put a stuffed wolf at the door to represent his name. A dog destroyed the sign, and the justice holds that as the stuffed wolf represented John Wolf the dog is guilty of biting the man, and his owner must pay $25 damages.

STILL THEY COME.—The Annapolis Special says: On Wednesday last, the coldest morning we have had this season, Miss Maggie Steadman of Lequire sent us a curiosity in the shape of a full blown pansy which has withstood the late snow storm. She says it beats the late Yarmouth caterpillar all to pieces.

WOMAN OR WINE?—A Kingston, Ont., despatch says that members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union who are interested in celebrating the jubilee of Queen's University have withdrawn because wine is to be permitted at the banquet. The beverage is not to be used indiscriminately, but by those banquetters who desire it and pay for it.

ABOUT STREET RAILWAYS.—An exchange says: The cost of running street railways with horse power and with electricity has been carefully estimated, and for the purpose of comparison a line of fifty cars is taken. Such a line, operated with horses, costs $300.75, per day, and with electricity $69.50. The difference in favor of electricity is $231.25, or $4.62 per day saved on each car.

ABOUT GHOSTS.—A St. John despatch says: Rev. Wm. Lawson, Methodist, preached last Sunday on the Lower Cove Ghost. The real spirit, he bluntly declared, was gin, and Mrs. Jackson's ghostly visitor was the result of delirium tremens. He had himself seen her in that state. He preached a powerful temperance sermon, denouncing in scathing terms men who go along with a prayer book under their arm and go over to communion table while they own houses in which rum is sold.

THE WRONG SHOP.—An exchange says: Some friend has kindly sent to this office a tract on "Christian Giving or Paying What We Owe." If he had sent it to a large number of our delinquent subscribers—whose names we could have furnished—he would have had a better and larger field to operate in. Perhaps he will think of this the next time. Anyone who is anxious to be informed on this subject can be furnished with a copy by calling at this office.

CORN AS FUEL.—Kansas farmers are burning corn for fuel, finding it cheaper than coal. Corn is sold on the farm at twenty cents per bushel, while the average price of coal delivered at the farm ranges from twenty one to twenty three cents per bushel. The farmers alliance brought to the attention of the two commodities, and advised that half the corn crop be used as fuel, thus advancing the price of the other half and saving money in their fuel bills. The farmers have begun to act on this advice.

I. O. O. F.—On last evening, 11th inst., the following were elected officers of Port Is-Joe Encampment, No. 13, for the ensuing year: C. P.—Wm. R. Boreham. H. P.—Rev. Fred. E. J. Lloyd. S. W.—Charles Lawson. E. S.—Theo. L. Chappelle (re-elected). F. S.—George Walker. Treasurer—Walter P. Doull (re-elected). J. W.—John T. Hardy.

Of the above names, Mr. Theo. L. Chappelle has been successfully elected Recording Scribe since the formation of the Encampment over thirteen years ago, with the exception of one term served as C. P.

STEAMSHIP COMMUNICATIONS.—The International Steamship company have in contemplation a very radical change in the running of their steamers next summer. Three steamers will be put on the route between Boston and St. John, giving a service of five trips a week. On two trips a week only will the steamers touch at Portland, making the other three direct between Eastport and Boston. It is the intention of the company to make quick trips between St. John, Eastport and Boston. Leave St. John say at 7 a. m., Eastport at 12 m., and go direct from the latter place direct to Boston, arriving there early in the morning. The details of the new arrangement have not yet been made public, but the intention is to give additional steamboat service and quicker transportation to the travelling public on their route.—Portland Press.

NO WONDER HE DIED.—A man named Donahue died suddenly at Madison, Wis., a few days ago. He used to amuse people by swallowing live reptiles, knives and indigestible substance for the price of a drink. A post mortem was made in his stomach were found five jack knives, one with the blades open.

The parties to the action live at Porter's Lake and were married thirty years ago. The wife 58, husband 62. The evidence was in effect that the respondent abused and beat his wife during the past 20 years and knocked out her teeth at one time. Adultery was also alleged.

A GOOD PASSAGE.—The Summerside Farmer says: The Ripley Ropes, owned by Messrs. H. Stavert and M. Dunn, made an excellent round trip between this port and Pictou, a few days ago. She left here with a cargo on Wednesday of last week, about 11 a. m., and returned on Sunday morning about the same hour, with a cargo of coal. It is claimed this is the fastest trip on record.

HIS LIFE INSURED.—Daniel A. Ross (formerly of P. E. Island,) the conductor who was so fearfully and fatally mangled while coupling cars at Oakland, California, a few weeks ago, and whose heroic conduct has already been referred to in THE EXAMINER, had his life insured in the Pacific Accident Insurance Co. for $2,500. The policy was made out in the name of his sweetheart, Miss Nellie Downs, of Winslow, Arizona.

MORE SHIPMENTS.—We learn from the Summerside Farmer that Mr. John Henry took over by the boat for Bancroft & Sawyer, Lawrence, Mass., 200 sheep, on Tuesday, and one horse for the same destination. There were also 14 horses on board, which came up in the boat from Charlottetown, and were shipped by Mr. Oliver Mason, for St. John.

A WARNING TO OTHERS.—As the western train was moving out of the yard here on Monday, Mr. H. J. Cunningham, of Miscouche, attempted to get on board the rear car, near Holman's brick warehouse. The train was moving faster than he bargained for, and as he caught hold of the iron guard he was jerked suddenly round and across the track and thrown on the sleepers, with the result that he was badly shaken up and his face disfigured. Great care should be exercised on boarding a train when it is in motion.—Farmer.
