After the ceremony was performed, the man took an envelope from his pocket, and with a suggestive look at the clergyman placed it in a book on the table. The couple then left the house. The minister thought it was his marriage fee, but upon unsealing the envelope he read on a piece of paper: "I'll see you later."

CURIOUS FACTS FROM THE CALENDAR.—New Year's day of 1893 fell upon Sunday. January 1 will happen on Sunday but once more during the century; that will be in 1899. In the next century it will occur 14 times only as follows: 1905, 1911, 1922, 1928, 1933, 1939, 1950, 1956, 1961, 1967, 1944, 1989 and 1995. The intervals are regular—5-6-11, 6-5-6-11—except the interval which includes the hundredth year that is not a century, when there is a break—as 1893, 1899, 1905, 1911—when three intervals of six years come together; after that plain sailing till 2001, when the old intervals will occur in regular order.

A VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. William McGarrigal, of the Northumberland,

DIES SUDDENLY THIS FORENOON.

Heart Disease the Cause of Death—No Inquest.

WILLIAM MCGARRIGAL, for many years baggage master on the steamship Northumberland, and for the last two years night watchman, died suddenly this forenoon about eleven o'clock. It appears that Mr. McGarrigal was proceeding along Richmond Street, in the direction of his home, and suddenly fell on the sidewalk in front of the residence of Mr. Geo. M. Moore. He was quickly lifted up and assisted to the residence of Mrs. McGonnell, a few doors west of where he fell, and Dr. Taylor was soon brought on the scene by Mr. Edward Davy. About five minutes after the doctor arrived Mr. McGarrigal breathed his last.

Mr. McGarrigal contracted a heavy cold on the last trip of the Northumberland, from which he never fully recovered. The cold was accompanied by a severe cough which troubled him greatly. He tried many remedies, but they did not seem to have the effect of relieving him very much. This morning he complained of a severe pain across his chest, and when he was going out of the house shortly before eleven o'clock, his wife suggested that he had better see the doctor. He said he would do so, but it was not long before news of his death reached Mrs. McGarrigal.

Mr. McGarrigal was a man about sixty years of age, and weighed upwards of two hundred pounds. He was a native of the north of Ireland. He came here with Captain Evans in the steamer Westmorland and joined the Princess of Wales in 1864, and has been in the employ of the Steam Navigation Company ever since. He was a sober industrious man, and was well liked and deservedly respected by all who knew him.

The sudden death of Mr. McGarrigal was reported to Dr. Conroy, coroner, and he, after enquiring into the facts of the case, decided that death was the result of heart disease and an inquest was unnecessary.

Mrs. McGarrigal and the relatives of the deceased have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

ARRIVAL AT GEORGETOWN.—A correspondent at Georgetown writing Jan. 4th says: "Capt. John Hemphill's schooner Marcella Butler, arrived here last night from Guysborough, N. S. The Marcella Butler is the first sailing vessel that arrived here in 1894."

—The Montreal Gazette's review of the year occupies seventeen columns.

—The Toronto Globe is constrained to admit that "looking at the whole situation it may be cheerfully conceded that Canada has had a remarkable immunity from serious financial trouble or hardship."

All the information obtainable regarding Chicago's financial condition tends to show that the deficit in the municipal treasury amounts to nearly $3,000,000.

George Begg, a Montreal cook, attempted to put an end to his life on Sunday by taking a big dose of brandy and coal oil. The attempt was a failure, but Pegg was decidedly sick.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

1. The whole civilized world has been interested in the Great Celebration. The crowned heads of Europe, the governments of all the famous nations of the globe, the lands of the Orient and the Islands of the sea have all been co-operating to render the Exhibition worthy of the greatest event of modern times. Its magnitude and marvelous character can only be described by saying that it has comprised all the rarest products of land and sea, the most dazzling wonders of nature and the grandest productions of human genius.

2. The Great Fair which celebrates the discovery of America by Columbus has never been equalled. It was larger and more magnificent than any similar exhibition ever held. Over twenty million dollars was expended in its grand spacious buildings, and the result was the most attractive Exhibition the world ever saw.

3. This gorgeous display is vividly portrayed in our PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION. This captivating volume is a brilliant panorama of the Great Fair which has awakened such a world wide interest.

This wonderful work is a royal octavo volume of over 800 large double-column pages, 10½ inches long by 7½ inches wide. It contains nearly twice the amount of matter in an ordinary quarto book, and is therefore equal to a large volume of 1600 pages.

It contains a complete history of the World-renowned Exposition at Chicago; captivating descriptions of the magnificent Buildings and marvellous Exhibits, such as Works of Art, Textile Fabrics, achinery, Natural Products, Latest Inventions, Discoveries, etc., with a full description of Chicago, its wonderful Buildings, Parks, etc., by ex-Governor Wm. E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition History Co., with an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, ex-U. S. Senator and ex-Minister to Spain, including a chapter on the Women's Department by Frances E. Willard, President of the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance Unions.

CONDITIONS—It is printed from clear, new type, on fine calendered paper, and is embellished with a large number of BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS, which charm everyone who sees them.

This grand work surpasses anything that has yet appeared in this line, and will be sold by subscription only. Wait for it; take no other.
